Recapitalization Of Banks In Transition Economies:

Designing Financial Systems in Transition Economies Anna Meyendorff, Anjan V. Thakor, 2002 This collection examines the design of financial systems for central and eastern European countries engaged in the transition to market based economies It highlights the need for better approaches to measuring performance and providing incentives in banking and for financial mechanisms to encourage private sector growth Written by leading European and North American scholars the essays apply modern finance theory and empirical data to the development of new financial sectors East-Central European Economies in Transition, 1994 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche East-Central European Economies in Transition John Pearce Hardt, Richard F. Kaufman, 1995 A collection of papers assessing what has been accomplished and the obstacles that remain in the transition from communism to capitalism in East Central Europe The papers are arranged within four sections the transition to market economies and political pluralism Western assistance and integration regional relations and country studies Each section begins with an overview This assessment was initiated by a formal request from the Joint Economic Committee of the US Congress to the Congressional Research Service Some of the papers were discussed in May 1994 at a conference in Washington DC A compilation of statistical material prepared for the conference is included as an appendix Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Balance of Payments, Exchange Rates, and Competitiveness in Transition Economies Mario I. Blejer, Marko Skreb, 2007-08-23 Integrating transition economies into the global commercial and trade market system is a prolonged and risky process This book is a collection of studies dealing with the different issues related to the liberalization of external relations in economies moving from a socialist to a market based system The focus is on external sector developments and the topics deal with balance of payments conditions exchange rate policies and regimes international competitiveness international capital flows trade and other matters related to the integration of transition economies into the world economy An understanding of the principles involved and of the experiences of both transition and advanced economies during this process is crucial to ensure its ultimate success Written by internationally recognized scholars the chapters cover these issues in a systematic manner The first section treats current account developments capital flows and exchange rate policies in transition countries the second section deals with specific issues related to international trade and the final section consists of six specific country experiences In this final section a chapter dealing with the Russian Federation discusses the collapse of the ruble in August 1998 Financial Policies in Socialist Countries in Transition, Debt as a Control Device in Transitional Economies Herbert L. Baer, Cheryl Williamson Gray, 1995 Transitional Economies Y. Kalyuzhnova, M. Taylor, 2001-07-19 The integration of the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States international financial system was arguably one of the most profound changes experienced by the world economy in the 1990s This book examines these countries in reforming their financial systems in the first decade of transition Through case studies as well as more thematic approaches contributors deal with crucial elements of building a market based financial system the transformation of the banking sector and non bank reform and regulation of financial markets They emphasise the importance of institution building to the process of financial sector transformation and highlight the lessons to be learned from transitional financial experiences State-owned Banks in the Transition Khaled Sherif,Michael S.

Borish,Alexandra Gross,2003 State Owned Banks in the Transition Origins Evolution and Policy Responses reviews the experience with state banking over the last decade in the transition economies of Europe and Central Asia State ownership of banking systems has undermined economic reform efforts and has distorted emerging markets This study compares various approaches to reform and calls attention to the significant costs associated with continued state ownership It concludes with lessons from experience and recommendations for policymakers on approaches to reducing state ownership of banks in the region The findings indicate that restructuring of state banks has proven time consuming and costly and governments are better off moving swiftly to privatize or liquidate their remaining state banks rather than attempting to rehabilitate them This report includes seven case studies of individual state banks that have been reformed or privatized over the past decade The case studies highlight the challenges of implementing various reform measures and illustrate how such challenges have been addressed in difficult economic and political contexts When is Transition Over? Annette N. Brown,1999 Contains six lectures which discuss criteria for determining the end of the transition process These include changes in the characteristics of the economic system outcomes of the transition process and institutional reforms Preventing Bank Crises Gerard Caprio,1998 Trata de como prevenir a crise nos bancos estudando v rios casos de bancos que quebraram no mundo
