Contemporary American Novels Mousa Abu Haserah, 2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature. The study focuses on four novels: Mornings in Jenin, Falling Man, The Reluctant Fundamentalist, and Riyah Al Janna. The book discusses how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East. It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said's Orientalism into account, also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics, militarism, and post colonial ideology. The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts: the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East. It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political, regional, and religious changes that have shaken it. The Expatriate Perspective: American Novelists and the Idea of America Harold T. McCarthy, 1974 Assesses the attitudes toward America held by writers since the time of James Fenimore Cooper who have left the country to live in Europe. MAGIC IN THREE CONTEMPORARY BRITISH AND AMERICAN NOVELS TRAUMA, ARCHIVE, AND SPECTACLE 王丹丹, 2016-04-01 CHE-YEN WU, 2016-04-01 American Writers Elizabeth H. Oakes, 2004 American Writers focuses on the rich diversity of American novelists. (Inter)racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty-First Century African American Novels E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2024-10-15 Inter racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty First Century African American Novels explores the acts of accompaniment to disrupt the embodied discursive practices of whiteness and Black vulnerability as a way to change social relations across racial difference in the novels. The novels analyzed in the book explore those Black male characters who work through the norms of whiteness in their relations with Black and white women while at the same time enacting the practices of accompaniment to subvert the embodied practices of whiteness. At a time when there is the rise of interest in activist work such as the ongoing Black Lives Matter movement against the systems of white supremacy in the post Trump era, these novels shape an understanding of Black characters' struggle against discursive violence as a radical social praxis to transform the everyday life. The book consists of four chapters on Kalisha Buckhanon's Speaking of Summer (2019), Kalisha Buckhanon's Upstate (2005), Ben Burgess Jr's Defining Moments (Black and White, 2020), and Walter Mosley's Every Man a King (A King Oliver Novel, 2023). While these novels depict a critique of racialized everyday life, they interrogate whiteness as a political act of devaluation of Blackness and Black life by establishing relations through accompaniment. The act as such stretches the boundary lines between who is the accompanier and the accompanied in shifting configurations of whiteness and blackness in the positioning of the vulnerable. The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral, Juan E. De Castro, Nicholas Birns, 2013-09-26 The Contemporary Spanish American Novel provides an accessible introduction to an important World literature. While many of the authors covered, Aira, Bolaño, Castellanos, Moya Viquez, are gaining an increasing readership in English and are frequently taught, there is sparse criticism in English beyond book

Narrative Framing in Contemporary American Novels Sławomir Studniarz, 2017-05-11 This volume examines a range of novels and novellas published over the course of nearly forty years from 1968 to 2014 including E L Doctorow's Andrew's Brain John Gardner's The King's Indian Paul Auster's Travels in the Scriptorium Peter Straub's Mr X and Joyce Carol Oates' Expensive People These texts display one crucial unifying thread they are doubly mediated fictions fictions in parentheses so to speak The application of narrative framing and embedding has been commonly acknowledged and abundantly researched in various works belonging to the Western literary heritage However its use in the twentieth and twenty first century fiction has not been adequately explored perhaps with the exception of the literary creations of such giants as Vladimir Nabokov and John Barth Despite this critical oversight narrative frames prove to be a major resource for modern day novelists who adapt this literary device and very effectively put it to their own uses The essays collected in this volume will serve to spark the revival of interest in this time honored narrative tool demonstrating its validity for research into more recently created novels associated with heroines fail to achieve this status in the story. These secondary heroines, often the friend or sister of the primary heroine, typically disappear from the action of the novel as the courtship plot progresses only to return near the conclusion of the action with renewed demands on the reader's attention. Accounting for this persistent pattern, Camden suggests, reveals the cultural work performed by these unusual figures in the early history of the novel. Because she is often a far more vivid character than the heroine of the marriage plot, the secondary heroine inevitably engages the reader's interest in her plight. That the narrative apparently seeks to suppress her creates tension and points to the secondary heroine as a site of contested identity who represents an ideology of womanhood and nationhood at odds with the national ideals represented by the primary heroine whom the reader is asked to embrace. In showing how the anxiety produced by these ideals is displaced onto the secondary heroine, Camden's study represents an important intervention into the ways in which early novels use character to further ideologies of race, class, sex, and gender.
