Seminar,2007 This volume focuses on the interface between Mongolian and Tibetan cultures to encourage the development of new forms of scholarship across geographical and disciplinary boundaries Fire and Ice: Soot, Solidarity, and Survival on the Roof of the World Jonathan Mingle,2015-03-24 A thousand years ago in a Himalayan valley the village of Kumik was founded For generations Kumik villagers survived by learning to cultivate their mountain terrain drawing from the waters of the glacier and snows above the village But now the glacier is almost gone and Kumik is dying Why As Fire and Ice reveals the culprit is black carbon the most dangerous pollutant in the world and the least understood Black carbon absorbs more heat per unit of mass in the atmosphere than greenhouse gases and contributes as much to melting the glaciers of the Himalaya as carbon dioxide It s also a major component of the household air pollution that causes 4.3 million deaths each year from respiratory and cardiovascular illnesses and 3 million more from outdoor pollutants such as industrial exhaust Black carbon threatens to overwhelm Kumik unless the village can change the way it cooks heats farms and lives In Fire and Ice Jonathan Mingle weaves a dramatic narrative of one village s inspiring efforts to adapt to a rapidly changing environment and a scientific detective tale about the impact of fire on every nation Ranging from the Tibetan Plateau to New York and Washington D C from Delhi and Kathmandu and China to northern California Fire and Ice is a heroic exploration of our race to change the fate of our planet Being a Buddhist Nun Kim Gutschow,2009-07-01

This book is the first ethnography of Tibetan Buddhist society from the perspective of its nuns Gutschow lived for over three years among them collecting their stories observing them and studying their lives This picture of the little known culture provides valuable insight into the relationship between women and religion in South Asia today Himalayan Research Bulletin ,1998 Indigeneity In India Bengt T. Karlsson,T.B. Subba,2013-10-28 First published in 2006 Who and what are the indigenous people The question has become highly contentious in India today where eighty million peoples belonging to the state category of scheduled tribes are attempting to gain international recognition as indigenous people as a part of struggle for recognition and rights in land and resources This volume interrogates the politics surrounding the category of peoples in India known as tribals or adivasis and more recently indigenous peoples Tibetan Medicine Among the Buddhist Dards of Ladakh Stephan Kloos,2004 Celibacy, Culture, and Society Elisa Janine Sobo,Sandra Bell,2001 What does celibacy mean for individuals and for the people around them What function does it serve This is the first cross cultural inquiry into the practice of celibacy around the world and through the ages among groups as diverse as Kenyan villagers and U S prisoners Mazatec Shamans and Buddhist nuns and monks Shaker church members and anorexic women The examples of celibacy described here illustrate the complex relationship between human sexuality and its particular sociocultural context Ideas about the body gender family work religion health and other dimensions of life come sharply into focus as the contributors examine the many practices and institutions surrounding sexual abstinence They show that though celibacy is certainly sometimes a punishment or a deliberate ritual abstinence it also serves many other social and material functions and in some cases contributes to kin group survival and well being Celibacy Culture and Society represents a significant step toward understanding the functions and meanings of sexuality Himalayan Buddhist Villages John Crook, Henry Osmaston,2001-12-31 Preface PART One Introduction to the Philosophy of Navya Nyaya PART Two Summaries of Works Notes Index Recent Research on Ladakh 6 Henry Osmaston,International Association for Ladakh Studies,1997 The International Association for Ladakh Studies IALS was formed to provide contacts between all who are interested in the study of Ladakh to organise colloquia and to publish the proceedings and to issue a newsletter Ladakh Studies Ladakh International Association for Ladakh Studies,1999 In 27 articles the book presents the range of recent research on Ladakh a small state in the Himalayas Discusses the archaeology history architecture politics religion gender issues where the Indian subcontinent and Asia meet Anthropos ,1998
