Foundations of Museum Studies Kiersten F. Latham, John E. Simmons, 2014-09-11 This broad introduction to museums benefits all educators who teach introductory museum studies, addressing the discipline from a holistic, dynamic, and document-centered perspective. Museums serve to help us understand the past and navigate our future as individuals, as societies, and as a global community. A careful and accurate assessment of a museum's purpose is crucial to its ability to serve its users effectively. Foundations of Museum Studies: Evolving Systems of Knowledge offers a holistic introduction to museums and the study of them from the perspective of specialization in museum studies within the context of library and information science (LIS). The book strikes a balance between theory and practice, examining museums from a systems perspective that considers museums to be document-centered institutions that create and convey information, meaning, and inspiration. The authors utilize examples drawn from their experience with institutions in the United States that can be applied to museums across the world. Future museum professionals who read this book will have a broader perspective, an expanded skill set, and the adaptability to span the spectrum of traditional academic disciplines.

Dyson, 2014-06-19 States Debt and Power argues for the importance of situating our contextually influenced thinking about European states and debt within a commitment to historically informed and critical analysis It teases out certain broad historical patterns The book also examines the inescapably difficult and contentious judgements about bad and good debt about what constitutes sustainable debt and about distributive justice at times of sovereign debt crisis These judgements offer insight into the nature of power and the contingent nature of sovereign creditworthiness Three themes weave through the book the significance of creditor debtor state relations in defining asymmetry of power the context specific and constructed character of debt above all in relation to war and the limitations of formal economic reasoning in the face of radical uncertainty Part I examines case studies from Ancient Greece to the modern Euro Area and brings together a wealth of historical data that cast fresh light on how sovereign debt problems are debated and addressed Part II looks at the conditioning and constraining framework of law culture and ideology and their relationship to the use of policy instruments Part III shows how the problems of matching the assumption of liability with the exercise of control are rooted in external trade and financial imbalances and external debt in financial markets and vulnerability to banking crisis in the character of the private governance of public debt in who has power over indicators of sustainability in domestic institutional and political arrangements and in sub national fiscal governance Part IV looks at how the problems of mismatch between liability and control take on an acute form within the historical context of European monetary union above all in Euro Area debt crises

Policing Rape Katrin Hohl, Elizabeth A. Stanko, 2024-07-05 The policing of rape is in permacrisis This book addresses the question of why police investigations continue to fail most rape victim survivors and puts forward a framework for what policing can do to change this Low conviction rates and poor victim survivor experiences are the hallmarks of the rape justice gap Three decades of research policy and legal changes have tweaked rape investigations to alleviate some of their ills however for the majority of victim survivors the process remains gruelling Police forces are notoriously resistant to reform even in the face of rapidly declining public trust The starting point of this book is the recognition that if we want profound change in policing we must try something new To do so the authors move from asking What is it about rape that makes it so difficult for police to investigate it well to asking What is it about the police that makes it so difficult for police to investigate rape well Policing Rape sets out a practice oriented theoretical framework for radically and sustainably transforming rape investigations rape prevention and the quality of officer engagement with victim survivors The authors reflect on the journey of putting this framework into practice within Operation Soteria Bluestone as a step on the path towards a radical transformation of rape policing This book is essential reading for all those looking to understand and improve the policing of rape
