Crazy Ji Meir Shahrar, 2020-10-26 Crazy Ji Chinese Religion and Popular Literature is the first study in any language of one of the most colorful deities in the pantheon of late imperial and modern China Sire Ji or as he is better known Crazy Ji The author uses the evolution of the cult of this eccentric deity to address central questions regarding the nature of the Chinese religion tradition its relation to the Chinese social structure and the role of vernacular fiction and popular media in shaping religious beliefs in China Meir Shahrar demonstrates that vernacular novels and oral literature played a major role in the dissemination of knowledge about deities and the growth of cults and argues that the body of religious beliefs and practices we call Chinese religion is inseparable from the works of fiction and drama that have served as vehicles for its transmission His analysis of the cult of Crazy Ji shows that far from being as is often argued a mirror of the Chinese bureaucratic order Chinese religion offers a means of liberation from it Finally this study of the cult of Crazy Ji illustrates how lay believers influenced the practices of organized religion in Contemporary Art Cinema Culture in China Xiang Fan, 2024-11-14 How do contemporary Chinese audiences access art cinema What are the alternative channels for the distribution and exhibition of art cinema in China How is Chinese art cinema changing with the booming of internet media and commodity culture in the 21st century To answer these questions Xiang Fan explores the dynamic networks of art cinema in China in the 21st century highlighting the cultural practices of intermediaries such as independent programmers internet critics and fan translators Offering insights gleaned from original ethnographic research Fan reveals how these intermediary practitioners think about cinema negotiate judgement and appreciation construct a discourse of value and taste and most importantly constitute a coordinated and interrelated network for the sharing of art cinema She argues that although their motivation was derived from a cinephilia seeking to forge an alternative mode of distribution and reception the new cinema culture they have produced simultaneously negotiates a subtly complicit relationship with authoritative and market forces In doing so she offers an original interdisciplinary perspective on contemporary art cinema culture in Chinese society

Plantain Valley Ai Wu, 2013-06 Plantain Valley is a collection of short stories by the master storyteller Ai Wu Mrs Jiang in Plantain Valley Mrs Zhou in A Woman's Tragedy and Mrs Shiqing in Mrs Shiqing are all workwomen of the underclass in the border area They live in endurance and diligence with the mere hope of rudimentary living and that their family members will remain safe. However in the Ghostlike World of the old days the ubiquitous darkness suffocates them so they cannot escape from all this even though they bear a strong desire for living and show obscure actions of resistance. Readers see a series of tragedies and suffering in that society and no matter if alive or dead people are better dead than alive due to these tragedies. Mouse vs. Cat in Chinese Literature, 2019-03-18 In literatures worldwide animal fables have been analyzed for their revealingly anthropomorphic views but until now little attention has been given to the animal tales of China. The complex competitive relationship between rodents vilified as thieves of grain and the felines with whom they are perennially at war is explored in this presentation of Chinese tales about cats and mice. Master translator Wilt Idema situates them in an overview of animal tales in world literature in the Chinese literary tradition as a whole and within Chinese imaginative depictions of animals. The tales demonstrate the animals symbolism and their unusually prominent and verbal role in the stories. These readings depict cats and mice in conflict in marital bonds and in litigation most centrally in a legal case of a mouse against a cat in the underworld court of King Yama. Many of the stories adopt the perspective of the mice as animals merely trying to survive while also recognizing that cats are natural hunters. This entertaining volume will appeal to readers interested in Chinese literature and society comparative literature and posthumanist consideration of human animal relations. Film History and Screen Culture in and beyond Greater China Lin Feng, 2025-02-28 Bringing together work from established and emerging scholars and practitioners from around the world this collection expands existing scholarship on cinemas of the Sinosphere by revealing forgotten and emerging aspects of film history. Organised chronologically individual chapters cover geographic regions of mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan to engage with key issues of film history and screen politics that are overlooked by the traditional canon of Chinese cinema. Tackling key debates on post colonialism cold war and their sociopolitical impacts on screen culture in these regions this collection challenges the binary paradigms that are perpetuated in the historical scholarship of Chinese cinema such as left wing and right wing cinema commercial entertainment and political propaganda films and mass consumption of genre films versus the critical acclaim of New Wave auteurism. Together the essays reveal the cultural mobility across different geographic and sociopolitical borders their intertwined experience of the past and historical events impact on contemporary filmmaking and screen cultures. This collection will be of interest to students and researchers of Film Media and Cultural Studies as well as Asian Studies and Chinese Studies. The End of the Revolution Wang Hui, 2011-08-01 Challenging both the bureaucratic one party regime and the Western neoliberal paradigm China's leading critic shatters the myth of progress and reflects upon the inheritance of a revolutionary past. In this original and wide ranging study Wang Hui examines the roots of China's social and political problems and traces the reforms and struggles that have led to the current state of mass depoliticization. Arguing that China's revolutionary history and its current liberalization are part of the same discourse of modernity Wang Hui calls for alternatives to both its capitalist trajectory and its authoritarian past From the May Fourth Movement to Tiananmen Square The End of the Revolution offers a broad discussion of Chinese intellectual history and society in the hope of forging a new path for China s future A Brief History of the Chinese Language VII Xi Xiang,2023-03-15 As the seventh volume of a multi volume set on the Chinese language this book studies the Mongolian influence on neologisms in Modern Chinese and innovations in word formation and lexical meanings during the period Focusing on lexicons in Modern Chinese the Chinese language used since the 13th century CE this book first introduces new monosyllables and the entry of spoken idioms and dialects into the written language as well as the mingling of the Chinese language with the Mongolian and Manchu languages It then focuses on the development and features of polysyllabic words in Modern Chinese covering alliterative and rhyming compounds and trisyllabic and four syllable words The final chapter discusses the change of lexical meaning systems in Modern Chinese based on an analysis of monosyllables disyllables and polysyllables Illustrated with abundant examples this comprehensive groundwork on Chinese lexical history will be a must read for scholars and students studying the modern Chinese language and linguistics and especially for beginning learners of the modern Chinese lexicon The Barefoot Lawyer Chen Guangcheng,2015-03-10 An electrifying memoir by the blind Chinese activist who inspired millions with his fight for justice and freedom An amazing tale The Wall Street Journal It was like a scene out of a thriller one morning in April 2012 China s most famous political activist a blind self taught lawyer climbed over the wall of his heavily guarded home and escaped Days later he turned up at the American embassy in Beijing and only a furious round of high level negotiations made it possible for him to leave China and begin a new life in the United States Chen Guangcheng is a unique figure on the world stage but his story is even more remarkable than anyone knew The son of a poor farmer in rural China blinded by illness when he was an infant Chen was fortunate to survive a difficult childhood But despite his disability he was determined to educate himself and fight for the rights of his country s poor especially a legion of women who had endured forced sterilizations and abortions under the hated one child policy Repeatedly harassed beaten and imprisoned by Chinese authorities Chen was ultimately placed under house arrest After nearly two years of increasing danger he evaded his captors and fled to freedom Both a riveting memoir and a revealing portrait of modern China The Barefoot Lawyer tells the story of a man who has never accepted limits and always believed in the power of the human spirit to overcome any obstacle It is remarkable how Chen s lone voice was able to shake the state to its foundations Poignant and inspiring The Washington Post Riveting an eminently readable albeit chilling memoir that will grip the attention of readers everywhere Publishers Weekly Tense and tightly written a moving call to arms for the ideas of human dignity and the rule of law Kirkus Reviews An astonishing story Booklist
