Montague, LMFT, 2025-02-04 When death touches your family you are never quite prepared Complicating your personal pain and the need to grieve is the equally important task of helping your children understand and process the loss of a loved one How should you answer your child's questions about death Should you let them see you cry How can you support their resilience How can you help preserve memories Drawing from their own personal and professional experience Erin Nelson and Colleen Montague help you navigate loss alongside your child They provide honest ways to talk to your child about death according to age and stage of development and offer ideas on how to process honor and integrate loss Chapters end with reflective questions and healing activities that lead to more meaningful connection between parents and children inspiring hope for the future When families find healing practices together they find ways to integrate their loss and expand their capacity to thrive Through times of tragedy when parents and children have the support they need the shared experience of grief can become part of their family's sacred story Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altiglio MSW, ACSW, LCSW, Shirley Otis-Green MSW, ACSW, LCSW, OSW, 2011-03-23 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work is a comprehensive evidence informed text that addresses the needs of professionals who provide interdisciplinary culturally sensitive biopsychosocial spiritual care for patients and families living with life threatening illness Social workers from diverse settings will benefit from its international scope and wealth of patient and family narratives Unique to this scholarly text is its emphasis on the collaborative nature inherent in palliative care This definitive resource is edited by two leading palliative social work pioneers who bring together an array of international authors who provide clinicians researchers policy makers and academics with a broad range of content to enrich the guidelines recommended by the National Consensus Project for Quality Palliative Care Great! You Lost Your Job, Now Find Your Life! Lloyd Edward Hopkins II, 2013-12 If you are not waking up every day in love with your life it is time to make a change If you are not in love with the person you are with if you are not in love with your job if you are not in love with the station you inhabit you must realize that you are staying out of fear A fear of the unknown You probably think these things are your safety net but they are not They are your leash The leash that is holding you back from your happiness and truly experiencing life It would be the words that my younger brother shared with me Great You lost your job now find your life on the day I was terminated from my job that would inspire me to write this book I wanted to keep a journal of my thoughts experiences and ideas every day until I was employed again One day turned into a week a week turned into a month and a month would eventually turn into a year It would be that year that would change my life forever I was forced to face the reality of who I had become I was able to manage to become a somewhat successful person in life without becoming a complete person Without truly knowing myself My hope is that this book lands in your hands when you need it most I think our priorities are all wrong We are chasing wealth and material things thinking those are what will give us a fulfilling existence We are wrong and it is time for each of us to find our life Lloyd Hopkins The Lost Child Julie

Myerson,2010-07-23 While researching her next book Julie Myerson finds herself in a graveyard looking for traces of a young woman who died nearly two centuries before As a child in Regency England Mary Yelloly painted an exquisite album of watercolors that uniquely reflected the world in which she lived But Mary died at the age of twenty one and when Julie comes across this album she is haunted by the potential never realized She is also reminded of her own child Only days earlier Julie and her husband locked their eldest son out of the family home He is just seventeen After a happy childhood he had discovered drugs and it had taken only a matter of months for the boy to completely lose his way and propel his family into daily chaos Julie whose emotionally fragile relationship with her own father had left her determined to love her children better had to accept that she was powerless to bring him back Honest warm and profoundly moving this is the parallel story of a girl and a boy separated by centuries The circumstances are very different but the questions remain terrifyingly the same What happens when a child disappears from a family What will survive of any of us in memory or in history And how is a mother to cope when love is not enough The Secret Life of Vulnerable Children Ved Varma,2015-06-18 How do disturbed children see the world How can we understand their difficulties Most children have secret worlds but for some these worlds contain secrets that are both permanent and damaging Originally published in 1992 this moving account of the secret lives of such vulnerable and disturbed children will enable professionals working with these children to find out what is going on in their minds what they are thinking what they are feeling why they behave as they do The contributors all experts in their field at the time show how vulnerable children can be assessed and how they can be helped most effectively
