 sea warfare air power developed very rapidly When Benny Foulois retired from his post as Chief of the Air Corps at the close of 1935 the B 17 Flying Fortress of World War II fame had completed its test flights and in January 1936 a contract for the first 13 Fortresses was signed by the Army General Foulois died in 1967 just 6 decades after the Army s Aeronautical Division was formed At the time of his death the United States Air Force which he had helped to create was equipped with supersonic fighters bombers with a range of 8 000 miles or more intercontinental ballistic missiles and thermonuclear weapons But an air force is more than an agglomeration of aircraft bombs and bullets It needs several other elements a clear understanding of its purpose or mission a body of ideas concepts and doctrine governing in broad terms how it will carry out its mission strategy and tactics for the efficient use of its equipment a system for supplying its material and human needs a research and development organization to keep ahead of potential enemies experienced leaders and sound organization to coordinate and direct its activities These elements were lacking when the Army s only aviation unit first took to the field on
