Making Friends For Christ:

Making Friends for Christ Wayne McDill, 1979 Making Friends for Christ Touch Publications, 1998 Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France Lewis C. Seifert, Rebecca M. Wilkin, 2016-03-03 Today the friendships that grab people's imaginations are those that reach across inequalities of class and race. The friendships that seem to have exerted an analogous level of fascination in early modern France were those that defied the assumption inherited from Aristotle and patristic sources that friendships between men and women were impossible. Together the essays in Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France tell the story of the declining intelligibility of classical models of male friendship and of the rising prominence of women as potential friends. The revival of Plato's friendship texts in the sixteenth century challenged Aristotle's rigid ideal of perfect friendship between men. In the seventeenth century a new imperative of heterosociality opened a space for the cultivation of cross-gender friendships while the spiritual friendships of the Catholic Reformation modeled relationships that transcended the gendered dynamics of galanterie. Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France argues that the imaginative experimentation in friendships between men and women was a distinctive feature of early modern French culture. The ten essays in this volume address friend-making as a process that is creative of self and responsive to changing social and political circumstances. Contributors reveal how men and women fashioned gendered selves and also circumvented gender norms through concrete friendship practices. By showing that the benefits and the risks of friendship are magnified when gender roles and relations are unsettled, the essays in this volume highlight the relevance of early modern friend-making to friendship in the contemporary world. Friendship: Exploring its Implications for the Church in Postmodernity Steve Summers, 2011-10-27 Is the Church a community of friends? Steve Summers explores the significance of friendship for our understanding of the church today. Since Jesus' statement in St John's gospel, "I call you friends," the concept of friendship has had a huge influence on the Christian understanding of community. But is the historical understanding of friendship enough to serve the needs of the church in a post-modern age? Steve Summers explores the limits of the concept as well as its possible use in contemporary ecclesiology. Friendship Pamela Baker Powell, 2024-04-12 We all need friends. This book is an exploration of Christian friendship. It turns out that friendship has one surprising overlooked almost forgotten spiritual quality. Friendship in Christ is eternal. Scripture emphasizes this. Jesus himself emphasized this. Theologians emphasized this throughout the first thousand plus years of Christian history. Then it was somehow mostly neglected. This book maintains that friendship isn't just a passing luxury. Participation in the joy of friendship is a spiritual blessing. It is an unrecognized spiritual discipline that enriches your soul eternally. Here you will have an opportunity to consider your friendships as more than a pleasant engagement and discover what they can mean for your life today and eternally. Join others on this exploration of the exciting truth that friendships are forever. Awakening America Kari Bitz, 2013-05 Is spiritual awakening and revival possible to have in our nation and our own lives? Absolutely. We can make a difference for God and leave a lasting legacy As we obey God and choose to move forward in unity prayer fasting and a deeper commitment to God we will begin again to turn a tide that seems impossible The prospect of making a difference in the world can seem daunting As Christians we are called to influence the world around us and bring back a love for God and His Word Author Kari Bitz brings alive the principles of living a victorious life that many seem to have forgotten Her comprehensive view of Biblical principles will inspire anyone to refresh their own walk with the Lord and influence the world around us We can be the beacon of light that God desires for us to be We all know people that need Jesus We must reach them Join Kari Bitz for an incredible journey of spiritual growth and learn how you can be a part of starting the awakening that we and our country desperately need Will we turn the tide together Welcoming the Other J. Greg Sinclair, 2025-10-17 As the church in Canada faces a post Christendom future the welcome and inclusion of diaspora communities offers opportunities for revitalization In 2022 J Greg Sinclair went on a yearlong ethnographic journey to understand the experience of hospitality at Willowdale Christian Reformed Church a sixty three year old congregation of Dutch ethnic heritage in Toronto Canada Using a pastoral cycle of experience exploration reflection and action and an ethnographic research method Sinclair sought to understand and reflect on Willowdale s experience of welcoming many newcomers from Iran Using Zoom interviews and in person observation this qualitative study investigates the changing nature of one congregation in Canada and the challenges and opportunities of welcoming increasing cultural and linguistic diversity Willowdale s experience points to the potential of hospitality as a culture and habitus to move a congregation from an us versus them dynamic to mutuality This book is for church members seeking new modes of hospitality and presents a hopeful vision of a multicultural revitalized and faithful church in Canada Loving People to Jesus Alvin J. Vander Griend, 2020-09-22 Do you have friends who need to know your friend Jesus If so Loving People to Jesus is for you Loving People to Jesus will help you bring joy to Jesus and to your friends as your prayers release his grace into their lives as your caring channels his love into their hearts and as your sharing opens their eyes to the good news of a new life This book will help you Live out a prayer care share lifestyle Reach out effectively to friends and neighbors Become spiritually equipped by digging deeply into God s Word Do together with others what you could never do alone Made for Friendship Drew Hunter, 2018-09-20 God made you for friendship Friendship is one of the deepest pleasures of life But in our busy fast paced mobile world we ve lost this rich view of friendship and instead settled for shallow acquaintances based on little more than similar tastes or shared interests Helping us recapture a vision of true friendship pastor Drew Hunter explores God s design for friendship and what it really looks like in practice giving us practical advice to cultivate the kinds of true friendships that lead to true and life giving joy Complete Works Thomas Brookes (Preacher at Margaret's, New Fish Street.), 1866
