Teresa Berger

Making Liturgy:

Making Liturgy Dorothea McEwan, 2002 A group of women writers from a variety of traditions share their experiences of creating and using liturgy Part One offers a complete guide to creating your own liturgy Part Two provides a broad selection of liturgies that have been specially written for the seasons of the Christian year or for landmarks in our personal lives The liturgies are readily adaptable to a wide range of occasions but it is the editors hope that in sharing their collection of liturgies you will be encouraged to create your own

Creating Uncommon Worship Richard Giles, 2005 Offering helpful suggestions on how to avoid the common problem of restricting liturgy to words being spoken in the front of the church Creating Uncommon Worship is filled with ideas on how to enrich the liturgy by creating a context of action movement and symbolic expression involving the whole assembly

Gender Differences and the Making of Liturgical History Teresa Berger, 2020-03-26 Mapping uncharted territory in the study of liturgy's past this book offers a history to contemporary questions around gender and liturgical life Teresa Berger looks at liturgy's past through the lens of gender history understood as attending not only to the historically prominent binary of men and women but to all gender identities including intersexed persons ascetic virgins eunuchs and priestly men Demonstrating what a gender attentive inquiry is able to achieve Berger explores both traditional fundamentals such as liturgical space and eucharistic practice and also new ways of studying the past for example by asking about the developing link between liturgical presiding and priestly masculinity Drawing on historical case studies and focusing particularly on the early centuries of Christian worship this book ultimately aims at the present by lifting a veil on liturgy's past to allow for a richly diverse notion of gender differences as these continue to shape liturgical life

Making Worship Real Aimee Wallis Buchanan, Bill Buchanan, Jodi B. Martin, 2001-01-01 A resource for youth and their leaders this handbook introduces the history theology and practice of Reformed worship

Making the Most of the Lectionary Thomas O'Loughlin, 2012-08 A valuable resource for enhancing liturgical understanding What is the point of the Lectionary What are the problems and opportunities that it presents to those who use it What are its strengths and weaknesses as an aid to worship How can it be used and communicated most effectively today These are among the key questions Thomas O'Loughlin addresses in this stimulating and much needed liturgical guide to the design history theology and purposes of the Lectionary

Ritual Making Women Jan Berry, 2017-07-05 Ritual Making Women looks at the way in which women's making of ritual has emerged from the rapidly developing field of women's spirituality and theology The author uses ethnographic material to explore how the construction of ritual uses story making and embodied action to empower women Ritual far from being a timeless and universal practice is shown to be a contextual and gendered performance in which women subvert conventional distinctions of private and public The book combines narrative and case study material and draws on feminist theology and theory social anthropology and gender studies

Making a Scene in the Pulpit Alyce M. McKenzie, 2018-10-23 How can preachers ensure that their sermons continue to engage listeners in a world defined by visual media and the short segmented delivery of information Alyce McKenzie harnesses the element of drama and the human fascination with scenes to offer ministers a modern means of sermon development and delivery McKenzie's core strategy is to invite listeners into scenes whether from Scripture or contemporary life and once they are there to point them toward the larger story of God's relationship with humankind Creating such scenes unifies the whole process of preaching she says from the preacher's daily life observations to interpretation of scenes from Scripture to sermon shaping sequencing and delivery The process culminates in a specific understanding of the purpose of the sermon to send listeners out into the scenes they'll play in their lives for the next week equipped to act out their parts in ways that are kinder more just and more courageous than last week

Liturgy's Imagined Past/s Teresa Berger, Bryan D. Spinks, 2016-05-03 This book calls attention to the importance of scholarly reflection on the writing of liturgical history The essays not only probe the impact of important shifts in historiography but also present new scholarship that promises to reconfigure some of the established images of liturgy's past Based on papers presented at the 2014 Yale Institute of Sacred Music Liturgy Conference Liturgy's Imagined Past/s seeks to invigorate discussion of methodologies and materials in contemporary writings on liturgy's pasts and to resource such writing at a point in time when formidable questions are being posed about the way in which historians construct the object of their inquiry

The Making of Stanley Hauerwas David B. Hunsicker, 2019-09-10 Stanley Hauerwas is often associated with the postliberal theological movement yet he also claims to stand within Karl Barth's theological tradition Which is true Theologian David Hunsicker offers a reevaluation of Hauerwas's theology arguing that he is both a postliberal and a Barthian theologian helping us understand both the formation and the ongoing significance of one of America's great theologians

The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi-faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty-four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church's practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope
