Making Of Russia The:

The Making of Modern Russia Lionel Kochan, Richard Abraham, 1983 Russia in the Making John Lawrence, 2025-07-01

In Russia in the Making originally published in 1957 John Lawrence presents the long and complicated history of Russia as a living and intelligible whole from the very beginning Based on a wide knowledge of Russian history and a considerable experience of Soviet ways his book provides an admirable starting point for wider reading The author gives a clear outline which demonstrates how authoritarianism is in the tradition of Russian history Full value is given to the immense changes brought about by the revolution and the book ends with an analysis of the changes in social structure that forced Stalin's work into another mould This book demands no previous knowledge of its subject The author has used his knowledge of Soviet ways to produce from a complicated and confusing record a most readable and easily digestible narrative Russia's Policies Toward the Axis of Evil United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 2003 Making Russia and Turkey Great Again? Norman A. Graham, Folke Lindahl, Timur Kocaoglu, 2021-03-19 This study analyzes theoretically and empirically the background of the rise to power of Vladimir Putin in Russia and Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Turkey It situates this analysis in the contexts of the historical assessment of the fragility of liberal democracy and the persistence and growth of authoritarianism populism and dictatorship in many parts of the world The authors argue that the question whether Putin and Erdogan can make Russia and Turkey great again is hard to confirm personal ambition for power and wealth is certainly key to an understanding of both rulers They each squandered opportunities to build from free and fair democratic electoral legitimacy and economic progress The prospect for restored national greatness depends on how they can handle the economic and political challenges they now face and will continue to face in the near future in a climate of global pandemic and economic recession Both rulers so far have succeeded in maintaining and increasing their powers and influence in their respective regions but neither has made real contributions to regional stability and order Chaos seems to be growing and the EU and the U S thus far seem unable to provide coherent responses to mitigate the impact of their adventurism and disruption The Politics of HIV/AIDS in Russia Ulla Pape, 2013-10-01 This book studies the role of civil society organisations in the fight against HIV AIDS in Russia It looks at how Russia's HIV AIDS epidemic has developed into a serious social economic and political problem and how according to the United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS UNAIDS Russia is currently facing the biggest HIV AIDS epidemic in all of Europe with an estimated number of 980 000 people living with HIV in 2009 The book investigates civil society organisations contribution to social change and civil society development in post Soviet Russia and thus situates a specific type of civil society actors into a broader socio political context and questions their ability to represent civic interests particularly in the field of social policy making and health This allows for a better understanding of the dynamics of state society relations in present day Russia and gives insight into the ways HIV AIDS NGOs in Russia have used transnational ties in order to exert influence on domestic policy making in the field of HIV

AIDS Make Russia Great Again Christopher Buckley, 2021-06-15 Herb Nutterman a long time Trump Organization employee unexpectedly becomes President Trump's White House chief of staff and finds himself entangled in Russian intrigue and leading the president's reelection campaign Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East-West Business Relationships Jorma Larimo, 2013-04-03 Understand the dynamics of East West relationships in business to make better decisions The Eastern expansion of the European Union has increased interest in this geographic region Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships presents 10 case studies that focus on firms in Central and Eastern Europe and the strategies used for success Academics researchers and practitioners examine a variety of topics including entry and marketing strategies of Western multinational companies choices of locations for foreign direct investments first mover advantages entry behavior of retailing companies dynamics in subsidiary operations industry clusters decision making autonomy and internationalization Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships provides information that is uniquely timely and practical to those in business in this region The chapters bring the academic and the practical perspectives together by analyzing various research studies from different companies in several Central and Eastern European countries This resource discusses companies and the decisions about where they begin and maintain operations and why these strategies were chosen The book provides a clear spotlight on the business decisions currently taking place in the East West interaction Topics in Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships include studies of four Estonian companies on their emergence and success factors a comparative study of performance measures of companies in Central and Eastern Europe a detailed look at the strategies of Finnish and Swedish companies in the Baltic states and Russia the location decisions of Italian firms a comparative study of in store shopping behavior in Italy France and Poland the regionalization of multinational company strategies studies of Estonian companies including the wood and forest industries and more Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships is an essential resource that examines issues of critical importance to business researchers practitioners and policymakers The making of men Herbert George Wells, 1921 Russia, the Former Soviet Republics, and Europe Since 1989 Katherine Graney, 2019-08-27 This book explores what the concept of being European means to people in Russia and the states of the former Soviet Union Katherine Graney provides a panoramic and historically rooted overview of politics in the post Soviet world focusing in particular on how Europe as both real place and symbol has structured the political trajectory of this vast region In sum Graney provides both a theoretical discussion of contemporary Europeanness and an empirical examination of how Russia and each of the fourteen former Soviet states are actually attempting to be European or not Everybody's Magazine , 1918 Italy in the Nineteenth Century and the Making of Austria-Hungary and Germany Elizabeth Wormeley Latimer, 1898 The Making of the Atomic Bomb Richard Rhodes, 2012-06-12 Traces the development of the atomic bomb from Leo Szilard's concept through the drama of the race to build a workable device to the dropping of the bomb on Hiroshima The Making of the Modern Near East 1792-1923 Malcolm Yapp, 2014-01-09 This clear and authoritative text surveys the history of the region from the collapse of the Ottoman Empire to the present day It contains a general regional introduction followed by a series of country by country analyses and a section which places the Near East in the international context Professor Yapp's new edition covers recent dramatic events including the end of the Cold War the Kuwait Crisis of 1990-91 and the continuing conflict in Israel as well as assessing the huge social and economic changes in the region It will be essential reading for students and scholars concerned with modern middle eastern history and politics of the middle east The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art, 1862 Public Opinion, 1863 Foreign Policy Robert J. Lieber, 2017-03-02 The best writing on foreign policy integrates theory and policy in ways that address the principal questions about a country's place in the world and encourage the reader to think about contemporary questions from a long term perspective Accordingly the essays in this volume have been chosen with an eye to whether they represent important and original thinking and are likely to remain relevant The authors included here represent diverse views about foreign policy and the international context in which it takes place While two dozen pieces chosen from a vast literature can never be definitive nevertheless each of these articles offers a thoughtful reasoned and often eloquent assessment that is likely to remain a reference point for those seriously interested in the subject The work is organized into five sections how to think about foreign policy the domestic context foreign policy and unipolarity foreign policy after 9-11 and foreign policy and the future Britain in Europe 1789-1914, a Survey of Foreign Policy Robert William Seton-Watson, 1945 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1905 Cooperation and Conflict between Europe and Russia Magdalena Dembińska, Frederic Mérand, 2021-08-26 When thinking about relations between Europe and Russia International Relations scholars focus on why conflict has replaced cooperation The geostrategic debate excludes the possible coexistence of cooperation and conflict Tracking the evolution of conflict and cooperation patterns in three zones of contact Estonia Kaliningrad and Moldova between 1991 and 2016 this edited volume argues that although the standard narrative remains compelling local patterns of cooperation and conflict are partly autonomous from the geostrategic level To account for the coexistence of cooperation and conflict the first chapter elaborates a theoretical proposition distinguishing fluid rigid and disputed symbolic boundaries which have different impacts on the ground The subsequent chapters address distinct dimensions of Euro-Russian relations paying attention to local reality in Estonia Moldova Ukraine or Kaliningrad different sectors from energy to peoples movement and across institutional contexts such as the EU and NATO They confirm that the standard narrative holds in most cases but also that Euro-Russian relations vary in crucial ways according to the interests and representations of actors immersed in specific geopolitical fields Despite a deterioration of geostrategic relations between Europe and Russia since the end of the Soviet Union Cooperation and Conflict between Europe and Russia explores the intriguing coexistence of conflict and cooperation at the local level and across sectors and institutions The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal East European Politics The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1921
