Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis, 2005-10-17 Throughout the course of the twentieth century communism has enjoyed direct competition with all other governmental and economic systems Often communist countries produced their own special brand of party intellectual These figures rightly occupied their place within their own national context and within the context of the International Some communist intellectuals through the high level of erudition exhibited in their writing have received a wider reception despite their direct linkage to party politics e g Antonio Gramsci Georg Lukacs and Victor Serge are good examples After 1956 when Khrushchev exposed Stalin's atrocities to the Twentieth Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and as a result to the entire world Marxist philosophy was widely discredited It had been assumed that Stalin's excesses were somehow encouraged or supported through Marx's thought When in the mid 1960s Louis Althusser first offered his re-readings of Marx's philosophy it and communist political practice were in ruin However Althusser was in a unique cultural and historical position Thinking and writing concomitant with the structuralists and poststructuralists in France and also having access to certain theoretical tools while simultaneously committing himself entirely to Marxist thought Althusser was conceivably the last of his tradition He was a Marxist philosopher who unlike Sartre at the end of his life did not abandon communism to for instance existentialism In Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis gives readers a striking example of intellectual biography and critical theory His approach considering the work and life of Althusser within French Marxism and

French intellectual culture fills a void in contemporary scholarship But much more importantly Lewis is able to show how Althusser's thought is the result of and a response to specific French intellectual and political traditions of reading Marx It is through this combination of concerns

The Making of Chicana/o Studies Rodolfo Acuña, 2011 The Making of Chicana o Studies traces the philosophy and historical development of the field of Chicana o studies from precursor movements to the Civil Rights era to today focusing its lens on the political machinations in higher education that sought to destroy the discipline As a renowned leader activist scholar and founding member of the movement to establish this curriculum in the California State University system which serves as a model for the rest of the country Rodolfo F Acu a has for more than forty years battled the trend in academia to deprive this group of its academic presence The book assesses the development of Chicana o studies an area of studies that has even more value today than at its inception myths about its epistemological foundations have remained uncontested Acu a sets the record straight challenging those in the academy who would fold the discipline into Latino studies shadow it under the dubious umbrella of ethnic studies or eliminate it altogether Building the largest Chicana o studies program in the nation was no easy feat especially in an atmosphere of academic contention In this remarkable account Acu a reveals how California State University Northridge was instrumental in developing an area of study that offers more than 166 sections per semester taught by 26 tenured and 45 part time instructors He provides vignettes of successful programs across the country and offers contemporary educators and students a game plan the mechanics for creating a successful Chicana o studies discipline and a comprehensive index of current Chicana o studies programs nationwide Latinas/os of which Mexican Americans are nearly seventy percent comprise a complex sector of society projected to be just shy of thirty percent of the nation's population by 2050 The Making of Chicana o Studies identifies what went wrong in the history of Chicana o studies and offers tangible solutions for the future

Making Histories CCCS, Richard Johnson, Gregor McLennan, Bill Schwartz, David Sutton, 2013-12-16 First published in 2006 History and politics are fundamentally connected indeed historians themselves have often made links between the two explicit Making Histories explores the relationship between history and politics as it has developed in histories which are critical of the dominant academic traditions of history writing and makes a substantial contribution to the debate about the most appropriate way to handle the relations between theory and history Part One is concerned with the development of people's history a social history with popular sympathies and links with radical politics Three phases are discussed the work of the Hammonds the Communist Party Historians Group of the 1950s and the historical political projects of E P Thompson Part Two focuses on the relation between history and theory within Marxism generally and argues that philosophical and methodological assumptions play a key role in more narrowly empirical and historical debates Part Three presents discussions of three newer forms of political history writing which take a more popular turn oral history the public construction of the national past in the form of National Heritage or community and a feminist assessment of histories of the suffragette movement In challenging received opinion about the scope of history the authors stress that historiography is concerned not with the past but with the relation between the past and the present and argue that popular conceptions of history have an importance usually denied or ignored by academic historians Ghosts P. Buse,A. Stott,1999-01-28 Did you know that the father of psychoanalysis believed in ghosts or that Frederick Engels attended seances Ghosts Deconstruction Psychoanalysis History is the first collection of theoretical essays to evaluate these facts and consider the importance of the metaphor of haunting as it has appeared in literature culture and philosophy Haunting is considered as both a literal and figurative term that encapsulates social anxieties and concerns The collection includes discussions of nineteenth century spiritualism gothic and postcolonial ghost stories and popular film with essays on important theoretical writers including Freud Derrida Adorno and Walter Benjamin Marx and Hegel on the Dialectic of the Individual and the Social Sevgi Dogan,2018-08-15 Marx and Hegel on the Dialectic of the Individual and the Social is a detailed investigation of the major works of Hegel and the young Marx with exploring how the concept of the individual is positioned within their ontologies and how this positioning is reflected in their related political views Instead of contrasting a Marxist understanding of the individual with that of a liberal thinker Sevgi Dogan chooses to take Hegel s theory of the state as representative of the modern state which Marx criticizes The decision to be in opposition to Hegel rather than some other liberal thinkers is important for two reasons First since Marx has developed many of his early ideas in critical interaction with Hegel this comparative approach enables the book to present a more thorough and well grounded exposition of Marx s arguments Second since Hegel himself has also criticized the concepts of liberal ideology in many respects differentiating Marx s arguments from those of Hegel s enables the book to underline how and why Hegel s critique of liberal ideology falls short of actually empowering individuals in the way that Marx s account does AMBEDKAR AND THE MAKING OF MODERN INDIA: SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION, DEMOCRACY AND GENDER JUSTICE Dr. Chittaranjan Mallik, The idea of writing this book has been germinating in my mind for long time but due to certain unavoidable reason could not get it finished Really it is very tough task to put together Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar s ideas and thoughts on entirety in a single book yet this book is an attempt to provide a coherent account on his socio political struggles to establish an egalitarian transformative society with the ideas of liberty equality fraternity and social justice through the Constitutional means with all odds of caste indignities and challenged the age old social structure intellectually rooting on the ground and rendered unwavering contributions in making modern India Making Transformative Geographies Benedikt Schmid,2020-06-03 In the light of social and environmental unsustainability and injustice the continuing attachment to the idea that a growth based economy is reconcilable with human prosperity and ecological limits seems increasingly implausible Tracing and dissecting the complexities of social change Making Transformative Geographies speaks about the development of visions alternatives and strategies for a radical transformation beyond accumulation and growth Covering an empirical sample of 24 eco social organizations projects and groupings in the city of Stuttgart Germany the book drills down into the social spatial and strategic dimensions of transformation It advances a conceptually and empirically grounded assessment of the possibilities and limitations of community activism and civic engagement for shifting transformative geographies towards a degrowth trajectory

Law in the Making Alessandro Pizzorusso, 2012-12-06 The present volume presents a part of the results of a research project launched by the European Science Foundation ESF in 1977 Tribute should be paid to the late Professor Aleck Chloros Judge in the Court of the European Community whose belief in the European ideal and enthusiasm for European cooperation and the comparative study of legal problems made him an eloquent advocate of a large scale ESF venture into the field of comparative law Judge Chloros had envisaged the creation of a permanent sizable and well equipped European institute for comparative legal studies The successive working parties convoked by the Executive Council of the ESF which I had the honour of chairing from the beginning came to the conclusion that this ambitious vision could not be realized immediately the financial situation of the member organizations of the ESF also deteriorated making a cautious approach a necessary virtue The solution ultimately adopted by the last of the working parties the Ad Hoc Committee for Comparative Law and submitted to the General Assembly of the ESF in 1979 called for the launching of four pilot projects In November 1980 the Assembly approved detailed plans for two of these projects The first of these dealing with medical responsibility has already been presented in an impressive volume E Deutsch and H L Schreiber editors Medical Responsibility in Western Europe
