Making a Killing William Johnson, 1996     BBC Wildlife , 1996     Dangerous Edges of Graham Greene Dermot Gilvary, Darren J. N. Middleton, 2011-11-17 Informative broad ranging this title sheds new light on the life and literary art of one of the last century s most celebrated authors The first volume to be authorized by the Graham Greene Birthplace Trust Dangerous Edges of Graham Greene brings together writers journalists and scholars to investigate as well as to assess Greene s prolific oeuvre and intense personal interests Here the reader may explore everything from Greene s Vienna at the time of the filming of The Third Man to his sometimes fraught relationship with Evelyn Waugh from Greene s unconventional fictional treatment of women to his believing skepticism While Greene often informed friends that a ruling passion gives to a shelf of novels the unity of a system critics of his literary art have found it extraordinarily difficult to define the content of this ruling passion Perhaps this is because Greene s own character seems so paradoxical ironic even Moreover in believing that sin contains within itself the seeds of saintliness he consistently loiters on what Robert Browning calls the dangerous edge of things In exploring this dangerous edge this book covers the full breadth of Greene s life and literary career     New York Magazine , 1988-06-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea     Neo-Victorian Humour , 2017-06-06 This volume highlights humour s crucial role in shaping historical re visions of the long nineteenth century through modes ranging from subtle irony camp excess ribald farce and aesthetic parody to blackly comic narrative games It analyses neo Victorian humour s politicisation its ideological functions and ethical implications across varied media including fiction drama film webcomics and fashion Contemporary humour maps the assumed distance between postmodernity and its targeted nineteenth century referents only to repeatedly collapse the same in a seemingly self defeating nihilistic project This collection explores how neo Victorian humour generates empathy and effective socio political critique dispensing symbolic justice but also risks recycling the past s invidious ideologies under the politically correct guise of comic debunking even to the point of negating laughter itself This rich and innovative collection invites us to reflect on the complex and various deployments of humour in neo Victorian texts where its consumers may wish at times that they could swallow back the laughter a scene or event provokes It covers a range of approaches to humour utilised by neo Victorian writers dramatists graphic novelists and filmmakers including the deliberately and pompously unfunny the traumatic the absurd the ribald and the frankly distasteful producing a richly satisfying anthology of innovative readings of canonical neo Victorian texts as well as those which are potential generic outliers The collection explores what is funny in the neo Victorian and who we are laughing at the Victorians as we like to imagine them or ourselves in ways we rarely acknowledge This is a celebration of the parodic playfulness of a wide range of texts from fiction to fashion whilst offering a trenchant critique of the politics of postmodern laughter that will appeal to those working in adaptation studies gender and queer studies as well as literary and cultural studies more generally Prof Imelda Whelehan University of Tasmania Australia
