Making Art Together Mark Cooper, Lisa Sjöström, 2007-08-01 Artist Mark Cooper aims to change the way you think about making art with kids Working with schools around the country Cooper has brought together scores of teachers and hundreds of children to make remarkable collaborative art that has enlivened classrooms and public spaces and been displayed in the nation's most prestigious museums. In this inspiring practical idea-filled book, Cooper shows how any teacher, not just art teachers, can imagine and execute similar projects in their own classrooms. But more than that, Cooper transforms our sense of possibilities, arguing for a new view of art in schools. Making Art Together is a book about art education structured around big ideas that adults can flourish in the role of Master Artist, that the perspective of contemporary art offers liberating possibilities for rethinking art in schools, that art can and should be about the larger world, and thus naturally ties in to all areas of the curriculum. Most of all, Cooper shows us the power of collaboration. From mammoth freestanding sculptures to billboards against violence to maps of the world, the projects here are all planned, designed, and completed by children themselves. The resulting artwork is complex and ambitious on a scale that would be out of reach for any individual child. Working collaboratively using a distinctly democratic model, kids actually think and work like adult artists throughout every stage of the project. Together, the sky's the limit; the artistic and educational opportunities are boundless. Making Art Together is a bold, beautifully illustrated book that could, at a time when art budgets are being slashed, revitalize our sense of what art in schools can accomplish.

The Transmedia Artist Guide to Making Artist Submissions Marie Kazalia, 2011-04-07
Artists, this ebook contains tips and cover letters for you to use as guides for making your own art submissions in any media to art galleries, art museum curators, art consultants, art licensing agencies, interior design agencies, art magazine editors, art poster companies, book jacket publishers, potential art sponsors, multi-opportunity submissions, and more to create opportunities and income streams to support your art practice. The purpose of this ebook is to save you time, not just on a daily basis but to save you months and years of trial and error. The letter formats are tried and have brought results for artists. The sample letters here are based on actual letters that I wrote and used to obtain solo exhibitions, lucrative art licensing contracts, representation with top artist agencies, and representation by art consultants for lucrative Giclee print sales internationally. So why not get started using this e-book and send off submissions to art professionals on your prospect list? If you lack professional contacts, the ebook contains information for obtaining lists. Making Crafts from Your Kids' Art Valerie Van Arsdale Shrader, 2005. Show off your children's cherished artistic masterpieces and incorporate their creativity into your daily life. From ideas for organization and preservation to projects for clocks, albums, and enchanted wainscoting, here are dozens of unusual ways to take kids' art to another level. Every inspiring page presents the work of real children, and the crafts come with easy-to-follow instructions and templates where needed. Using transfer material, take that pretty picture your daughter drew and put the design on a cup and saucer. Showcase the illustrations of many children at once with a family style calendar, or knit a child's design onto a sweater. Every time you look at these projects, they'll warm your heart.
