

Connection

A high-angle photograph of a diverse group of 15 people of various ages and ethnicities standing in a circle on a light-colored tiled floor. They are all holding hands, forming a human ring. In the center of this circle is a large, white, circular graphic. The word "Connection" is written across this white circle in a bold, black, handwritten-style font. A thick red underline is drawn beneath the word. The people are dressed in casual to business-casual attire, and the overall atmosphere is one of unity and teamwork.

Making Connections Kathleen Pithouse,Claudia Mitchell,Relebohile Moletsane,2009 This book follows on from a symposium that was held in Durban South Africa in July 2007 The symposium was called Seeing for Ourselves Exploring the Practice of Self Study in Teaching Learning and Researching for Social Change The Durban Symposium as called in this book was actually the second in a series of invitational international symposia organized through the second in a series of invitational international symposia organized through the Centre for Visual Methodologies for Social Change in the Faculty of Education University of KwaZulu Natal Committed as it is to the use of visual and other participatory methods within textual research in order to bring about social action the Centre for Visual Methodologies for Social Change started off its symposia series with Putting People in the Picture an event that eventually led to the publication of an edited book Putting People in the Picture Visual Methodologies for Social Change edited by Naydene de Lange Claudia Mitchell Jean Stuart 2007 The Routledge Handbook of Family Communication Anita L. Vangelisti,2012-11-27 With a synthesis of research on issues key to understanding family interaction as well as an analysis of many theoretical and methodological choices made by researchers studying family communication the Handbook serves to advance the field by reframing old questions and stimulating new ones The contents are comprised of chapters covering theoretical and methodological issues influencing current conceptions of family research and theory centering around the family life course communication occurring in a variety of family forms individual family members and their relationships dynamic communication processes taking place in families family communication embedded in social cultural and physical contexts Key changes to the second edition include updates throughout providing a thorough and up to date overview of research and theory new topics reflecting the growth of the discipline including chapters on singles as family members emerging adults and physiology and physical health Highlighting the work of scholars across disciplines communication social psychology clinical psychology sociology family studies and others this volume captures the breadth and depth of research on family communication and family relationships The well known contributors approach family interaction from a variety of theoretical perspectives and focus on topics ranging from the influence of structural characteristics on family relationships to the importance of specific communication processes Media, Technology and Everyday Life in Europe Roger Silverstone,2017-03-02 The importance of the daily experience of new information and communication technologies is highlighted by this timely volume The book is based on work carried out in the European Media Technology and Everyday Life Network and is structured round a series of seven empirical case studies drawn from research within Europe The application of this perspective draws attention not just to the significance of information and communication technologies for a mature understanding of the conduct of everyday life in contemporary Europe but also for the significance of that understanding for the development of communication and information policy The research makes a significant contribution to our understanding of the dynamics and evolution of a core dimension of European society as well as informing on going and important debates on the nature of the relationship between the social and the technological in the information and communication arena

Interventions to Prevent or Reduce Unhealthy Habits in Children and Adolescents during Restricted Conditions Mojtaba Keikha, Mostafa Dianati, Motahar Heidari-Beni, Mohammad Hossein Ebrahimi, 2024-12-27 The prevalence of childhood overweight and obesity has increased worldwide in recent decades Childhood obesity is associated with serious health problems and the risk of premature illness and death later in life In addition there is a growing concern over the effects of sedentary lifestyles on young people s health Low physical activity and sedentary behaviour are associated with metabolic and mental health during childhood and adolescence Parallel to obesity and low physical activity in children and adolescents excessive use of the virtual space including increased screen time activity or internet and smartphone addiction is among the most important health threatening factors for children and adolescents

New Media, Development and Globalization: Making Connections in the Global South Don Slater, 2014-01-15 New media development and globalization are the key terms through which the future is being imagined and performed in governance development initiatives and public and political discourse Yet these authoritative terms have arisen within particular cultural and ideological contexts In using them we risk promoting over generalized and seemingly unchallengeable frameworks for action and knowledge production which can blind us to the complex global patterns and promise of social reality This compelling book forces us to look at these terms afresh Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic fieldwork in Latin America West Africa and South Asia Don Slater seeks to challenge these terms as voicing specific northern narratives rather than universal truths and to see them from the perspective of southern people and communities who are equally concerned to understand new machines for communication new models of social change and new maps of social connection The central question the book poses is how we can democratize the ways we think and practise new media development and globalization opening these terms to dialogue and challenge within North South relations Rooted in sociological debates New Media Development and Globalization will also be a provocative contribution to media and cultural studies studies of digital culture development studies geography and anthropology

Adolescence Mental Health in School and University Iman Permana ,Herni Susanti, 2024-07-29 A school whether run by the government or a private institution is established to prepare adolescents for adulthood In some regions some religious societies have established a comprehensive educational institution supported by their religious competencies requirement in their curriculum along with the national curriculum Adolescence is a period of life that ranges from 10 to 19 years old and expands from school to the early phase of university Adolescents are considered highly susceptible to mental health issues Anxiety depression behavioral disorders and suicidal attempts have been shown to increase before the age of 24 There is a myriad of factors that can contribute to the development of mental health disorders in this context including family parenting style and bullying from peers teachers Failing to address contributing factors may hinder adolescents from fulfilling and sustaining healthy and productive adult lives
