Making Of Memento:

The Making of Memento James Mottram, 2002 Mottram takes the reader backwards of course like Memento's structure through the complete process by which this watershed film was brought to the screen 25 photos 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J. Olson, 2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define but one thing is certain A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years and new movies rise to cult status every year So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start In 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J Olson highlights the most provocative intriguing entertaining and controversial films produced over the last century The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters unforgettably shocking scenes and exceptionally quotable dialogue With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching A thought provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures this resource includes valuable information on the films creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema Ultimately The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers from casual cinephiles film scholars and avid fans alike a chance to discover or re discover some of the most memorable films of all time Making Sense of Mind-Game Films Simin Nina Littschwager, 2019-06-27 Mind game films and other complex narratives have been a prominent phenomenon of the cinematic landscape during the period 1990 2010 when films like The Sixth Sense Memento Fight Club and Source Code became critical and commercial successes often acquiring a cult status with audiences With their multiple story lines unreliable narrators ambiguous twist endings and paradoxical worlds these films challenge traditional ways of narrative comprehension and in many cases require and reward multiple viewings But how can we make sense of films that don't always make sense the way we are used to While most scholarship has treated these complex films as narrative puzzles that audiences solve with their cognitive skills Making Sense of Mind Game Films offers a fresh perspective by suggesting that they appeal to the body and the senses in equal measures Mind game films tell stories about crises between body mind and world and about embodied forms of knowing and subjective ways of being in the world Through compelling in depth case studies of popular mind game films the book explores how these complex narratives take their embodied spectators with them into such crises The puzzling effect generated by these films stems from a conflict between what we think and what we experience between what we know and what we feel to be true and between what we see and what we sense Interpretation and Film Studies Phillip Novak, 2020-07-31 This book argues that the sustained interpretation of individual movies has contrary to conventional wisdom never been a major preoccupation of film studies that indeed the field is marked by a dearth of effective engaging and enlightening critical analyses of single films The book makes this case by surveying what has been written about four historically important and well known movies D W Griffith's Way Down East Marcel Carné's Port of Shadows Mike Nichols's The Graduate and Michelangelo Antonioni's Red Desert none of which has been the focus of sustained critical attention and by exhaustively examining the kinds of work published in four influential film journals Cinema Journal Screen Wide Angle and Movie The book goes on to argue for the value of the work of interpretation illustrating this value through extended analyses of Roman Polanski's Chinatown and Christopher Nolan's Memento both of which thematize interpretation Novak demonstrates the causes and consequences of reading poorly and the importance of reading well

Analyzing Literature-to-Film Adaptations Mary H. Snyder, 2011-01-20 The majority of scholarly treatments for film adaptation are put forth by experts on film and film analysis thus with the focus being on film Analyzing Literature to Film Adaptations looks at film adaptation from a fresh perspective that of writer or creator of literary fiction In her book Snyder explores both literature and film as separate entities detailing the analytical process of interpreting novels and short stories as well as films She then introduces a means to analyzing literature to film adaptations drawing from the concept of intertextual comparison Snyder writes not only from the perspective of a fiction writer but also as an instructor of writing literature and film adaptation She employs the use of specific film adaptations Frankenstein Children of Men Away from Her to show the analytical process put into practice Her approach to film adaptation is designed for students just beginning their academic journey but also for those students well on their way The book also is written for high school and college instructors who teach film adaptations in the classroom

Making of a nation, 2011 The Philosophy of Neo-Noir Mark T. Conard, 2007-01-05 A collection of essays exploring the philosophical elements present in Neo Noir films Film noir is a classic genre characterized by visual elements such as tilted camera angles skewed scene compositions and an interplay between darkness and light

Common motifs include crime and punishment the upheaval of traditional moral values and a pessimistic stance on the meaning of life and on the place of humankind in the universe Spanning the 1940s and 1950s the classic film noir era saw the release of many of Hollywood's best loved studies of shady characters and shadowy underworlds including Double Indemnity The Big Sleep Touch of Evil and The Maltese Falcon Neo noir is a somewhat loosely defined genre of films produced after the classic noir era that display the visual or thematic hallmarks of the noir sensibility The essays collected in The Philosophy of Neo Noir explore the philosophical implications of neo noir touchstones such as Blade Runner Chinatown Reservoir Dogs Memento and the films of the Coen brothers Through the lens of philosophy Mark T Conard and the contributors examine previously obscure layers of meaning in these challenging films The contributors also consider these neo noir films as a means of addressing philosophical questions about guilt redemption the essence of human nature and problems of knowledge memory and identity In the neo noir universe the lines between right and wrong and good and evil are blurred and the detective and the criminal frequently mirror each other's most debilitating personality traits The neo noir detective more antihero than hero is frequently a morally compromised and spiritually shaken individual whose pursuit of a criminal masks the search for lost or unattainable aspects of the self Conard argues that the films discussed in The Philosophy of Neo Noir convey ambiguity disillusionment and disorientation more effectively than even the most iconic films of the classic noir era Able to self consciously draw upon noir conventions and simultaneously subvert them neo noir directors push beyond the earlier genre's limitations and open new paths of cinematic and philosophical exploration Praise for The Philosophy of Neo Noir Conard can feel confident that these terrific essays will be of interest to film enthusiasts particularly fans of Neo Noir Additionally for those who come to this volume with some background in philosophy not only will they be pleased to find fellow philosophers offering accessible introductions to philosophical thinkers and ideas but they are sure to increase their understanding of noir Neo Noir and many familiar film titles as well as more deeply appreciate the ways in which popular film and television offer wide and varied avenues to doing good philosophy Kimberly A Blessing co editor of Movies and the Meaning of Life Taking up such latter day classics as Chinatown Blade Runner and Memento this volume explores how contemporary filmmakers have taken up the challenge of classic film noir and broadened the genre In this analysis even the pastel shades of South Beach take on a dark coloring in Miami Vice These probing essays locate what is neo in Neo Noir and thus define it as a postmodern genre Paul Cantor author of Gilligan Unbound Pop Culture in the Age of Globalization This collection will serve as a terrific interdisciplinary guide through the chaotic intriguing world of postmodernist thought as it relates to film and philosophy Choice The Cinema of Christopher Nolan Jacqueline Furby, Stuart Joy, 2015-08-04 Over the past fifteen years writer producer and director Christopher Nolan has emerged from the margins of independent British cinema to become one of the most commercially successful directors in Hollywood From Following 1998 to Interstellar 2014 Christopher Nolan's films explore philosophical concerns by experimenting with nonlinear storytelling while also working within classical Hollywood narrative and genre frameworks Contextualizing and closely reading each of his films this collection examines the director's play with memory time trauma masculinity and identity and considers the function of music and video games and the effect of IMAX on his work

The Political Christopher Nolan Jesse Russell, 2023-05-26 Many of Christopher Nolan's films ironically both embrace the tradition of surrealist and Avant Garde filmmaking while simultaneously providing at least tacit support for the Anglo American liberal world order For Nolan this world order which relies on global capitalism technocratic supremacy and ultimate control of world cultural production is a much greater alternative to either left or right wing challenges to this liberalism In Nolan's films this liberalism must occasionally use violence and violate some of its core principals of privacy and freedom to maintain its dominance Nonetheless Anglo American liberalism in Nolan's vision provides a world that is freer more humane and more prosperous than other anarchic Marxist or fascist alternatives Finally and perhaps most importantly for Nolan the security wealth and freedom of this liberal world order enables the world of art and film to blossom and the opportunity for Christopher Nolan to create post ironic dream worlds or in the words of Jean Baudrillard a hyperreality
