Nathalie Sarraute The War Of The Words:

Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader Sarah Barbour, 1993 Situated at an intersection of feminist critical practice in the United States and feminist cultural theory in France Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader is an investigation of the way in which this French New Novelist's first eight works in their increasing dramatization of the issue of reading problematize certain feminist literary analyses especially in relation to écriture féminine After an exploration of the difficulty Sarraute's writing poses for the critical enterprise through a lengthy reading of Sarraute's criticism in the U S and France Sarah Barbour shows how Sarraute's works eventually prohibit any fixed reading and open up instead a space in which we as readers are moved toward a more personal understanding of our use of narrative and of socio sexual constructs in the continual day to day constitution and reconstitution of subjectivity Nathalie Sarraute conceives of the evolution of the novel as a movement through history and thus situates her work within a tradition of psychological realism at the same time that she proposes radical innovations of the tradition Her novels do not discard or revise past works but rather internalize them in an effort to expand the notion of what is possible for psychological realism This study takes as its model Sarraute's example of simultaneity which invites an understanding of time both as a diachronic movement through phases from the psychological realism of Dostoyevski to that of Kafka to her own and as a synchronic encounter that elicits simultaneous relationships to different phases Within the movement of feminist literary criticism scholars have often discerned what are also referred to as phases that is criticism in the United States has moved from its initial concern with images of women in fiction by male writers to a desire to establish a feminine tradition of women's writing Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader is not an attempt to claim that Sarraute's work represents écriture féminine Reading Sarraute's novels in their evolution Sarah Barbour has found that they forced her own reading and understanding of this term to evolve She therefore proposes that the novels open up a space that is beyond the frozen shells of gender which continue to bind women and men personally and critically The power of Sarraute's work lies in the solitary experience of our encounter with her presentation and perception of reality In this encounter we are forced to experience the fluid nature of subjectivity that is to internalize and explore differences within personal and sexual identity that by extension affect the identity of larger political movements

Nathalie Sarraute and the War of the Words Valerie Minogue, 1981 Echo's Voice Mary Noonan, 2017-07-05
Helene Cixous 1937 distinguished not least as a playwright herself told Le Monde in 1977 that she no longer went to the theatre it presented women only as reflections of men used for their visual effect The theatre she wanted would stress the auditory giving voice to ways of being that had previously been silenced She was by no means alone in this Cixous's plays along with those of Nathalie Sarraute 1900-99 Marguerite Duras 1914-96 and Noelle Renaude 1949 among others have proved potent in drawing participants into a dynamic space of the voice If as psychoanalysis suggests voice represents a transitional condition between body and language such plays may draw their audiences in to understandings previously never spoken In this ground breaking study Noonan explores the rich possibilities of this new audio vocal form of theatre and what it can reveal of the auditory self Feminism A. Maynor Hardee, Freeman G. Henry, 1989 French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition The Avant-Postman David Vichnar, 2023-11-01 The Avant Postman explores a broad range of innovative postwar writing in France Britain and the United States Taking James Joyce s revolution of the word in Ulysses and Finnegans Wake as a joint starting point David Vichnar draws genealogical lines through the work of more than fifty writers up to the present including Alain Robbe Grillet B S Johnson William Burroughs Christine Brooke Rose Georges Perec Kathy Acker Iain Sinclair H l ne Cixous Alan Moore David Foster Wallace and many others Centering the exploration around five writing strategies employed by Joyce narrative parallax stylistic metempsychosis concrete writing forgery and neologising the logos the book reveals the striking continuities and developments from Joyce s day to our own A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens, 2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women s writing in France from the sixth century to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers offering fascinating readings and perspectives The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women s writing which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women s activities in or their relation to the social political economic and cultural surroundings Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Encyclopedia of Contemporary French Culture Alexandra Hughes, Alex Hughes, Keith A Reader, Keith Reader, 2002-03-11 No other reference work is as wide ranging or as contemporary Cross disciplinary useful to students of cultural disciplines other than French International authorship Extensively cross referenced with annotated suggestions for further reading Possible departmental purchase as well as campus library The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli, 2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure Sartre's The Words Perec's W or The Memory of Childhood and Sarraute's Childhood Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers' life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

Sarraute, Le Planétarium Roger McLure, 1987 Barbara Wright Debra Kelly, Madeleine Renouard, 2013-08-01 Legendary publisher and writer John Calder said of Barbara Wright that she was the most brilliant conscientious and original translator of 20th century French literature Wright introduced to an English speaking readership and audience some of the most innovative French literature of the last hundred years a world without Alfred Jarry's Ubu Raymond Queneau's Zazie and Robert Pinget's Monsieur Songe scarcely bears thinking about This wonderful collection of texts about and by Barbara Wright including work by David Bellos Breon Mitchell and Nick Wadley as well as a previously unpublished screenplay written and translated by Wright in collaboration with Robert Pinget begins the work of properly commemorating a figure toward whom all of English letters owes an unpayable debt Writing the Mind Simon Kemp, 2017-09-25 My thought is me that is why I cannot stop I exist because I think and I can't stop myself from thinking Jean Paul Sartre Nausea Writing the Mind Representing Consciousness from Proust to Derrida explores the works of seven ground breaking thinkers and novelists of recent history to compare and contrast the varying representations of the conscious and the unconscious mind Grounding his study in the writings of philosophers like Jean Paul Sartre and Marcel Proust Simon Kemp explores the non literary influences of science faith and philosophy as presented in their works demonstrates how writers learn from and sometimes deviate from preceding generations and how they agree or disagree with their peers Kemp's elegant study also charts the rise and wane of Freudian influence on literature through the twentieth century and the emergence of cognitive and neo Darwinian ideas at the dawn of the twenty first In the work of these seven writers we discover radically different understandings of how consciousness and the unconscious mind are constituted which are the most salient characteristics of mental life and even what it is that defines a mind at all Reinventions of the Novel , 2021-11-01 The history of the Novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question The sixteen articles in Reinventions of the Novel investigate connections differences and similarities in the Novel around the world for the past three hundred years Rather than searching for the essence of the genre they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives considering such matters as tradition and modernity realism rhetoric and identity tableau and spatiality and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Günter Grass while canonical classics like Proust Joyce Richardson and Goethe are read in prosaic pragmatic and media specific contexts In the 1920s many people predicted the death of the novel now more than ever it seems to be the dominant literary form perhaps because it is the same yet always different Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de la toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust Female Exiles in Twentieth and Twenty-first Century Europe M. Stanley, G. Zinn, 2007-09-03 A number of historical events of the twentieth century gave rise to migration immigration and exile to and within the European continent This collection represents an effort to raise consciousness about the marginalization of exiled women artists writers political figures as well as members of ethnic and religious minorities Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman,2005-08-16 In Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman applies insights from pragmatic theory to the French novel in order to examine its discourse conventions Focussing on texts by some of the greatest and most innovative French novelists Diderot Balzac Flaubert Zola Celine Sarraute and Perec Bridgeman analyses how these authors established their own conventions challenged reader expectations and drew conventions from other literary and non literary forms Negotiating the New in the French Novel shows the development of changing perceptions of genre author and reader This book will make fascinating reading for students of French literature particularly of the nineteenth century novel students of Stylistics and of Narratology

The Western Theory of Tradition Sanford Budick,2000-01-01 A study of cultural tradition Sanford Budick reveals an operative concept of Western cultures according to this concept the art of freely receiving and handing on cultural tradition and the act of achieving moral and aesthetic freedom in sublime representation are the same phenomenon Quinquere ,1982
