States The book's structure provides a detailed map of how and why contemporary European sexual politics is changing and how this contributes to establishing European norms and values in developments in law and policy around prostitution and sexual assault By examining how and why the EU and its Member States implement their policies in these two policy areas we can begin to illuminate how contemporary European sexual politics serve some groups interests while marginalizing Others

Multiplicity of Nationalism in Contemporary Europe Ireneusz Paweł Karolewski, Andrzej Marcin Suszycki, 2010-01-01 Nationalism remains one of the key political societal and socio psychological phenomena in contemporary Europe The international scholars assembled in this edited collection suggest that the use of three perspectives supranationalism boundary making nationalism and regional nationalism may be promising as an explanatory framework for the analysis of nationalism in Europe The volume distances itself from older dichotomies such as civic and ethnic nationalism and questions the one sided normativity of nationalism in particular regarding the concept of liberal nationalism It argues that a promising approach to contemporary nationalism should reflect the multiplicity of nationalism

The Racialization of Sexism Francesca Scrinzi, 2023-12-05 Populist radical right PRR parties are questioning women s rights and sexual democracy Yet paradoxically they appropriate issues of gender equality to attack migrants and to mobilize a growing number of women as voters and members based on a racialization of sexism discourse This book engages with these puzzling developments in order to investigate the evolving ideologies of PRR parties and their understudied membership from a gender perspective Why do men and women join these parties How do they negotiate the gendered propaganda of their organizations Do these parties mobilize their members in gender specific ways How is the PRR achieving growing political legitimacy through such renewed gendered ideologies And how does its mainstreaming strategy articulate with gendered social change and the advent of new generations of activists Drawing on a two year comparative and intersectional study of the Lega Nord in Italy and the Front national now Rassemblement national in France and based on life histories of over 100 activists The Racialization of Sexism tackles how gender at the interplay with class ethnicity age and religion shapes the parties strategies as well as their activists experiences and how gender relations are transformed in unconventional ways within these parties This book will be of interest to those studying gender as well as nationalism racism social movements radical politics and party politics

Contemporary Encounters in Gender and Religion Lena Gemzöe, Marja-Liisa Keinänen, Avril Maddrell, 2016-11-16 The

The Christian Right in Europe Gionathan Lo Mascolo, 2023-11-02 Inspired by the success of the US Christian Right and the rise of the global far right ultraconservative Christians in Europe are joining forces and seek to reshape Europe By assembling in anti gender movements and sharing anti Muslim narratives they actively influence the political landscape and shape government policies The contributors offer new perspectives on the protagonists and the entangled networks that work to abolish liberal democracy in Europe behind the scenes This anthology is the first to bring together case studies on the Christian Right in over 20 European countries providing a transnational perspective and an accessible insight for clergy politicians and academics alike

Nationalism in Contemporary Europe Andrzej Marcin Suszycki, 2021 This book proposes a conceptualisation of nationalism with a multilevel operational character It offers three different perspectives on nationalism that consider both the discursive structure and the discursive agency of nationalism It also demonstrates a number of intra phenomenal and extra phenomenal constraints on nationalism This book underlines that nationalism in contemporary Europe should not be regarded in terms of methodological homogeneity and conceptual uniformity ideological rigidity or strategic consistency but rather as a contested segmented bounded and contextual phenomenon

On the Shoulders of Grandmothers Cinzia Solari, 2017-08-03 On the Shoulders of Grandmothers is a global ethnography of Ukrainian transnational migration Gendered migrant subjectivities are a key site for understanding the production of neoliberal capitalism and Ukrainian nation state building a fraught process that places Ukraine precariously between Europe and Russia with dramatic implications for the political economy of the region However processes of gender and migration that undergird transnational nation state building require further attention Solari compares two patterns of Ukrainian migration the forced exile of middle aged women most grandmothers to Italy and the voluntary exodus of families led by the same cohort of middle aged women to the United States In both receiving sites these migrants are caregivers to the elderly Using in depth interviews and ethnographic data collected in three countries Solari shows that Ukrainian nation state building occurs transnationally She examines the collective practices of migrants who are building the new Ukraine from the outside in and shaping both Italy and the United States as well The Ukrainian state in order to fulfil its First World aspirations of joining Europe and distancing itself from all things Soviet is pursuing a gendered reorganization of family and work structures to achieve a transition from socialism to capitalism This has created a labor force of migrant grandmothers who carry the new Ukraine on their shoulders Solari shows that this post Soviet economic transformation requires a change in the moral order as migrant women struggle to understand how to be good mothers and grandmothers and men join women in attempts to teach their children to be successful and honorable people now that the social rules have drastically changed Looking at individual migrant women and men and their families in Ukraine allows us to see the production of neoliberal capitalism and new nationalism from the ground up and the outside in for a region that promises to be a flashpoint in our century
