Nation And Narration:

Nation and Narration Homi K. Bhabha, 1990 A collection of essays celebrating the fact that English is no longer just an English language Contributors include Gillian Beer Rachel Bowlby Doris Sommer and Sneja Gunew Nation and Narration Homi K. Bhabha, 1990 Bhabha in his preface writes Nations like narratives lose their origins in the myths of time and only fully encounter their horizons in the mind's eye From this seemingly impossibly metaphorical beginning this volume confronts the realities of the concept of nationhood as it is lived and the profound ambivalence of language as it is written From Gillian Beer's reading of Virginia Woolf Rachel Bowlby's cultural history of Uncle Tom's Cabin and Francis Mulhern's study of Leavis's English ethics to Doris Sommer's study of the magical realism of Latin American fiction and Sneja Gunew's analysis of Australian writing Nation and Narration is a celebration of the fact that English is no longer an English national consciousness which is not nationalist but is the only thing that will give us an international dimension Nation & Narration Homi K Bhabha, 2013-04-15

Nation and Narration Homi K. Bhabha, 1999 On literature and nationalism Nation and Narration Homi K. Bhabha, 2013-05-13 Bhabha in his preface writes Nations like narratives lose their origins in the myths of time and only fully encounter their horizons in the mind's eye From this seemingly impossibly metaphorical beginning this volume confronts the realities of the concept of nationhood as it is lived and the profound ambivalence of language as it is written From Gillian Beer's reading of Virginia Woolf Rachel Bowlby's cultural history of Uncle Tom's Cabin and Francis Mulhern's study of Leavis's English ethics to Doris Sommer's study of the magical realism of Latin American fiction and Sneja Gunew's analysis of Australian writing Nation and Narration is a celebration of the fact that English is no longer an English national consciousness which is not nationalist but is the only thing that will give us an international dimension Nation and Narration Giorgio Guzzetta, 2004 Encyclopaedia of Nationalism Athena S. Leoussi, With over one hundred entries the Encyclopaedia of Nationalism offers a complete and concise set of tools for the study of nationalism in a single volume The focus throughout is theoretical and for this reason particular nationalist movements and individual leaders are treated only as illustrative historical contemporary cases in numerous entries The Encyclopaedia is organized in an alphabetical sequence of entries each of which includes a short bibliography for further reading The reader will find in depth discussions of the work of modern theoreticians of nationalism BOOK JACKET Determinations Neil Larsen, 2001-09-17 In essays that engage the current theoretical parlances of ambivalence hybridity and the subaltern Larsen concludes with a critical reassessment of Benedict Anderson's Imagined Communities The Possibility/Impossibility of a New Critical Language in Education, 2010-01-01 The critique of Critical Pedagogy in its current various trends and paths teaches me not only the shortcomings of various versions of Critical Pedagogy No less important it offers an invitation to a reflection on the limitations costs and open horizons of critique itself It is an invitation to transcend critique as such But what alternative do we have and from where or with what ears might we listen to the music of the new call What is it that awaits us outside the critical tradition that in an unproblematic manner we could use internalize or surrender ourselves to Such questions reintroduce us to Utopia They reintroduce us to the Utopia of the possibility of happiness of the kind that is neither made possible nor advocated by self abandonment and enslavement destruction of the otherness of the Other and the I This book manifests a refusal to abandon Critical Theory's telos it offers no solutions victories of the oppressed and emancipation neither does it promise peace and unproblematic consensus On the contrary all the eternal open Diasporic individual can hope for is worthy Diasporic Love of Life creativity mature forms of togetherness and eternal nomadism as a manifestation of co poiesis Rhetorics of Belonging Anna Bernard, 2013 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library The crisis in Israel Palestine has long been the world's most visible military conflict Yet the region's cultural and intellectual life remains all but unknown to most foreign observers which means that literary texts that make it into circulation abroad tend to be received as historical documents rather than aesthetic artefacts Rhetorics of Belonging examines the diverse ways in which Palestinian and Israeli world writers have responded to the expectation that they will narrate the nation invigorating critical debates about the political and artistic value of national narration as a reading and writing practice It considers writers whose work is rarely discussed together offering new readings of the work of Edward Said Amos Oz Mourid Barghouti Orly Castel Bloom Sahar Khalifeh and Anton Shammas This book helps to restore the category of the nation to contemporary literary criticism by attending to a context where the idea of the nation is so central a part of everyday experience that writers cannot not address it and readers cannot help but read for it It also points a way toward a relational literary history of Israel Palestine one that would situate Palestinian and Israeli writing in the context of a history of antagonistic interaction The book's findings are relevant not only for scholars working in postcolonial studies and Israel Palestine studies but for anyone interested in the difficult and unpredictable intersections of literature and politics Mythistory and Narratives of the Nation in the Balkans Tatjana Aleksić, 2007 The idea of this collection is to bring to the forefront various ways in which the literary poetics of Balkan nations interrelates with their national poetics and present recent and innovative explorations of literature and film which actively engage with national poetics a kind of mythopoiesis of the modern Balkans In proposing an approach to the national question that lies distinctly in the liminal space best designated as mythistory the collection brings together two dominant approaches to national discourse The first tends to interpret the nation as a myth an artificial creation an invention even a oedream The other is a mapping of the nation that considers its historically progressive role It is their multifaceted dynamics that brings to the foreground a unique national mythopoetics Mythistory is explored through its multifold engagement with the text as a major element in the universal nationalist discourse as a narrative strategy extensively utilized in Balkan literary and film narratives and as a particular technique in approaching the text Through the insights gained from literary and critical theory historical analysis and cultural anthropology this collection seeks to reveal the application of mythistorical discourse upon narratives responding to nation forming historical events The texts in this collection articulate very distinct agendas of gender identity culture philosophy and aesthetics all interwoven with national problematic but steer away from the definition by which mythistory is relegated to the transparently propagandist

The Making of Indian English Literature Subhendu Mund, 2021-07-08 The Making of Indian English Literature brings together seventeen well researched essays of Subhendu Mund with a long introduction by the author historicising the development of the Indian writing in English while exploring its identity among the many appellations tagged to it The volume demonstrates contrary to popular perceptions that before the official introduction of English education in India Indians had already tried their hands in nearly all forms of literature poetry fiction drama essay biography autobiography book review literary criticism and travel writing Besides translation activities Indians had also started editing and publishing periodicals in English before 1835 Through archival research the author brings to discussion a number of unknown and less discussed texts which contributed to the development of the genre The work includes exclusive essays on such early poets and writers as Kylas Chunder Dutt Shoshee Chunder Dutt Toru Dutt Mirza Moorad Alea Beg Krupabai Saththianadhan Swami Vivekananda H Dutt and Sita Chatterjee and historiographical studies on the various aspects of the genre The author also examines the strategies used by the early writers to indianise the western language and the form of the novel The present volume also demonstrates how from the very beginning Indian writing in English had a subtle nationalist agenda and created a space for protest literature The Making of Indian English Literature will prove an invaluable addition to the studies in Indian writing in English as a source of reference and motivation for further research Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Southeast Asian Woman Writes Back Grace V. S. Chin, Kathrina Mohd Daud, 2017-12-04 This collection of essays examines how Southeast Asian women writers engage with the grand narratives of nationalism and the modern nation state by exploring the representations of gender identity and nation in the postcolonial literatures of Brunei Darussalam Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines Bringing to light the selected works of overlooked local women writers and providing new analyses of those produced by internationally known women authors and artists the essays situate regional literary developments within historicized geopolitical landscapes to offer incisive analyses and readings on how women and the feminine are imagined represented and positioned in relation to the Southeast Asian nation The book which features both cross country comparative analyses and country specific investigations also considers the ideas of the nation and the state by investigating related ideologies rhetoric apparatuses and discourses and the ways in which they affect women s bodies subjectivities and lived realities in both historical and contemporary Southeast Asian contexts By considering how these literary expressions critique contest or are complicit in nationalist projects and state mandated agendas the collection contributes to the overall regional and comparative discourses on gender identity and nation in Southeast Asian studies

"The Autobiography of a Nation Becky Elizabeth Conekin,1998 Narrating Postcolonial Arab Nations Lindsey Moore,2017-10-30 Narrating Postcolonial Arab Nations significantly enhances the interface between postcolonial literary studies and the hitherto under studied Arab world Lindsey Moore brings together canonical and less familiar Arab novels and memoirs from the last half century to consider colonial continuities and consequences Literary narratives are shown to oppose repressive versions of nationalism and to track desire lines toward more hospitable nations The literatures discussed in this book enable a deeper historical understanding of twenty first century Arab uprisings and their aftermaths The book analyzes four rich sites of literary production Egypt Algeria Lebanon and Palestine Moore explores ways in which authors critique particular nation state formations and decolonizing histories engage the general problematic of the nation and redefine repurpose and transcend national literary canons Chapter One contrasts Egyptian literary representations of popular revolt with official revolutionary discourse Chapter Two addresses the enduring legacy of anti colonial violence in Algeria and the place of Albert Camus in its literature Chapter Three uses narratives of gender violence on the Beirut front line to reveal the divisibility and intersectional identity politics of postcolonial nation states Chapter Four emphasizes ways in which Palestinian memoirs insist upon remembering towards a postcolonial future The book provides detailed analysis of literary narratives by Etel Adnan Rabih Alameddine Alaa al Aswany Rachid Boudjedra Albert Camus Rashid al Da f Assia Djebar Ghada Karmi Naguib Mahfouz Jean Said Makdisi Edward Said Boualem Sansal Raja Shehadeh Miral al Tahawy and Latifa al Zayyat It is an indispensable volume for students and scholars of Postcolonial Arab and World literatures

Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War ,2016-06-10 Through chapters dedicated to specific writers and texts Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War is a collection of essays examining literary responses to the Great War particularly the confrontation of two distinct languages One of these reflects nineteenth century ideals of war as a noble sacrifice the other portrays the hopeless brutal reality of the trenches The ultimate aim of this volume is to convey and reinforce the notion that no explicit literary language can ever be regarded as the definitive language of the Great War nor can it ever hope to represent this conflict in its entirety The collection also uncovers how memory constantly develops triggering distinct and even contradictory responses from those involved in the complex process of remembering Contributors Donna Coates Brian Dillon Monique Dumontet Dorothea Flothow Elizabeth Galway Laurie Kaplan Sara Mart n Alegre Silvia Mergenthal Andrew Monnickendam David Owen Andrew Palmer Bill Phillips Cristina Pividori Esther Pujolr s Noguera Richard Smith Nation, Identity and Social Theory Ralph Fevre, Andrew Thompson, 1999 This volume draws on some of the developments in social theory to examine the different dimensions of nation and nationalism in contemporary Wales It considers whether or not people have a clear sense of what a national identity might be

Reading India in a Transnational Era Rumina Sethi, Letizia Alterno, 2021-08-12 This anthology demonstrates the significance of Raja Rao s writing in the broader spectrum of anti colonial postcolonial and diasporic writing in the 20th century In addition to highlighting Rao s significant presence in Indian writing the volume presents a range of previously unpublished material which contextualises Rao s work within 20th century modernist postmodernist and postcolonial trends Exploring both his fictional and non fictional works Reading India in a Transnational Era engages with issues of subaltern agency and national belonging authenticity subjectivity internationalism multicultural politics postcolonialism and literary and cultural representation through language and translation A literary volume that discusses gender and identity on both socio political grounds apart from dealing with Rao s linguistic experimentations in a transnational era will be of interest among scholars and researchers of English postcolonial and world literature cultural theory and Asian studies
