Streible,2012-01-19 A vastly influential form of filmmaking seen by millions of people educational films provide a catalog of twentieth century preoccupations and values As a medium of instruction and guidance they held a powerful cultural position producing knowledge both inside and outside the classroom This is the first collection of essays to address this vital phenomenon The book provides an ambitious overview of educational film practices while each essay analyzes a crucial aspect of educational film history ranging from case studies of films and filmmakers to broader generic and historical assessments Offering links to many of the films Learning With the Lights Off provides readers the context and access needed to develop a sophisticated understanding of and a new appreciation for a much overlooked film legacy Making Movies

Black Thomas Cripps,1993-05-20 This is the second volume of Thomas Cripps s definitive history of African Americans in Hollywood It covers the period from World War II through the civil rights movement of the 1960s examining this period through the prism of popular culture Making Movies Black shows how movies anticipated and helped form America s changing ideas about race Cripps contends that from the liberal rhetoric of the war years marked as it was by the propaganda catchwords brotherhood and tolerance came movies that defined a new African American presence both in film and in American society at large He argues that the war years more than any previous era gave African American activists access to centers of cultural influence and power in both Washington and Hollywood Among the results were an expanded black imagery on the screen during the war in combat movies such as Bataan Crash Dive and Sahara musicals such as Stormy Weather and Cabin in the Sky and government propaganda films such as The Negro Soldier and Wings for this Man narrated by Ronald Reagan After the war the ideologies of both black activism and integrationism persisted resulting in the message movie era of Pinky Home of the Brave and No Way Out a form of racial politics that anticipated the goals of the Civil Rights Movement Delving into previously inaccessible records of major Hollywood studios among them Warner Bros RKO and 20th Century Fox as well as records of the Office of War Information in the National Archives and records of the NAACP and interviews with survivors of the era Cripps reveals the struggle of both lesser known black filmmakers like Carlton Moss and major figures such as Sidney Poitier More than a narrative history Making Movies Black reaches beyond the screen itself with sixty photographs many never before published which illustrate the mood of the time Revealing the social impact of the classical Hollywood film Making Movies Black is the perfect book for those interested in the changing racial climate in post World War II American life Film & Television Coll Europe Kirschner,2012-11-12 Published in 1995 Film Television is an important contribution to Film and Media Early Cinema Simon Popple,Joe Kember,2019-07-25 This book introduces the reader to the study of cinema as a series of aesthetic technological cultural ideological and economic debates while exploring new and challenging approaches to the subject It explores the period 1895 to 1914 when cinema established itself as the leading form of visual culture among rapidly expanding global media emerging from a rich tradition of scientific economic entertainment and educational practices and quickly developing as a worldwide institution Catalogue of the Book Library of the British Film Institute, London, England: Subject catalogue. Alphabetical subject index British Film Institute. Library,1975 The Intimate Screen Jason Jacobs,2000 This book explores the formative period of British television drama concentrating on the years 1936-55 It examines the continuities and changes of early television drama and the impact this had upon the subsequent golden age In particular it questions the caricature of early television drama as photographed stage plays and argues that early television pioneers in fact produced a diverse range of innovative drama productions using a wide range of techniques It also explores the often competing definitions about the form and aesthetics of early television drama both inside and outside the BBC Given the absence of an audio visual record of early television drama the book uses written archive material in order to reconstruct how early television drama looked and how it was considered by producers and critics whilst also offering a critical examination of surviving dramas such as Rudolph Cartier's Nineteen Eighty Four Researcher's Guide to British Film & Television Collections Elizabeth Oliver,1981 Guide sets out to document film and television material held in archives and collections throughout the UK Catalogue of the Public Archives Library Public Archives of Canada.
