Making the Medieval Relevant Chris Jones, Conor Kostick, Klaus Oschema, 2019-12-02 When scholars

discuss the medieval past the temptation is to become immersed there to deepen our appreciation of the nuances of the medieval sources through debate about their meaning But the past informs the present in a myriad of ways and medievalists can and should use their research to address the concerns and interests of contemporary society This volume presents a number of carefully commissioned essays that demonstrate the fertility and originality of recent work in Medieval Studies Above all they have been selected for relevance Most contributors are in the earlier stages of their careers and their approaches clearly reflect how interdisciplinary methodologies applied to Medieval Studies have potential repercussions and value far beyond the boundaries of the Middle Ages These chapters are powerful demonstrations of the value of medieval research to our own times both in terms of providing answers to some of the specific questions facing humanity today and in terms of much broader considerations Taken together the research presented here also provides readers with confidence in the fact that Medieval Studies cannot be neglected without a great loss to the understanding of what it means to be human

Overtourism Martha Honey, Kelsey Frenkiel, 2021-05-27 COVID 19 put a temporary stop to the crisis of overtourism Yet there is no question that travel will resume the only question is when it does what will it look like Overtourism Lessons for a Better Future charts a path toward tourism that is truly sustainable focusing on the triple bottom line of people planet and prosperity This practical book examines the causes and effects of overtourism before turning to emerging management strategies Visitor education traffic planning and redirection to lesser known sites are among the measures that can protect the economic benefit of tourism without overwhelming local communities As tourism revives around the world these innovations will guide government agencies parks officials site managers civic groups environmental NGOs tourism operators and others with a stake in protecting our most iconic places
