National Health Care Lessons For The United States And Canada:

National Health Care Jonathan Lemco,1994 A valuable contribution to the health care debate National Health Insurance in the United States and Canada Gerard W. Boychuk,2008-07-02 After World War II the United States and Canada two countries that were very similar in many ways struck out on radically divergent paths to public health insurance Canada developed a universal single payer system of national health care while the United States opted for a dual system that combines public health insurance for low income and senior residents with private primarily employer provided health insurance or no insurance for everyone else In National Health Insurance in the United States and Canada Gerard W Boychuk probes the historical development of health care in each country honing in on the most distinctive social and political aspects of each country the politics of race in the U S and territorial politics in Canada especially the tensions between the national government and the province of Quebec In addition to the politics of race and territory Boychuk sifts through the numerous factors shaping health policy including national values political culture and institutions the power of special interests and the impact of strategic choices made at critical junctures Drawing on historical archives oral histories and public opinion data he presents a nuanced and thoughtful analysis of the evolution of the two systems compares them as they exist today and reflects on how each is poised to meet the challenges of the future Universal Free Health Care in Canada, 1947-77 Gordon H. Hatcher,1981 An Introduction to the U.S. Health Care System Steven Jonas,2003-04-15 Completely updated to reflect the continual changes in the U S health care delivery system this bestselling text is a concise and balanced classic presenting the domestic health care system It explains the five major components of the U S health care system health care institutions health care personnel financing mechanisms research and educational institutions that produce biomedical knowledge and health personnel and firms producing health commodities such as pharmaceutical drugs and hospital equipment Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1992 Single-payer Health Care Systems United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Human Resources. Subcommittee on Labor,1994 Health Manpower Policy Under National Health Insurance Ruth Roemer,Milton Irwin Roemer,1977 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
