Spetter,1987 Benjamin Harrison was an early proponent of American expansion in the Pacific a key figure in such landmark legislation as the Sherman Anti Trust Act and the McKinley Tariff and one of the Gilded Age s most eloquent speakers Yet he remains one of our most neglected and least understood presidents In this first interpretive study of the Harrison administration the authors illuminate our twenty third president s character and policies and rescue him from the long shadow of his charismatic secretary of state James G Blaine An Ohio native and Indiana lawyer Harrison opened the second century of the American presidency in a rapidly industrializing and expanding nation His inaugural address reflected the nation s optimism The masses of our people are better fed clothed and housed than their fathers were The facilities for popular education have been vastly enlarged and more generally diffused The virtues of courage and patriotism have given proof of their continued presence and increasing power in the hearts and over the lives of our people But the burdens and realities of his office soon imposed themselves upon Harrison The biggest blow came at midterm with the Republicans devastating losses in the 1890 congressional elections In an era of congressional dominance those losses eroded Harrison s position as a legislative advocate at least for domestic issues His impact in foreign affairs was more lasting One of the highlights of this study is its revealing look at Harrison s visionary foreign policy especially toward the Pacific Socolofsky and Spetter convincingly demonstrate that although Harrison s ambition to acquire the Hawaiian Islands was not realized during his presidency his foreign policy was a major step toward American control of Hawaii and American expansion in the Far East      Bulletin ... of Books Added to the Public Library of Detroit, Mich ,1908      Henry George and the Single Tax New York Public Library,Rollin Alger Sawyer,1926      Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library,1926 Includes its Report 1896 19      The Nation ,1908      Biography Story of the Constitution Edward Elliott,1910      The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,Scofield Thayer,Waldo Ralph Browne,1908      The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned,1924      History of Labour in the United States John Rogers Commons,David Joseph Saposs,Helen Laura Sumner,Edward Becker Mittelman,Henry Elmer Hoagland,John Bertram Andrews,Selig Perlman,1918      History of Labour in the United States: Nationalisation (1860-1877) by J.
