National Self-determination in Postcolonial Africa Ralph Benyamin Neuberger, 1986-01-01 National Self-determination in Postcolonial Africa Benyamin Neuberger, 1986 Combines theoretical and comparative perspectives with analyses of case studies to deal in a new way with the host of secessions boundary disputes irredenta and ethnic conflicts in The Territorial Management of Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 2003 This book makes a postindepenence Africa comparative study of ethno national mobilization and territory and corresponding government policies through a series of selected case studies It examines the role of ethnic groups in dissolving and reconfiguring the state and the institutional options available for dealing with ethnic claims It does this through a systematic qualitative analysis from a range of countries in which in varying degrees territorial solutions to ethnic conflict have been contemplated Sound policies aimed at mitigating ethnic tensions whether partition territorial or cultural autonomy or limited home rule must be tailored to its ethnic reality The contributors to this volume begin each case study with an overview of the ethnic problem relevant to the country analyze its historical roots examine the range of strategies on which the state authorities responded and assess the importance of the issue of territory Each case study is accompanied by a map that shows the distribution of selected groups in terms of standard bands of intensity Ethiopia and Political Renaissance in Africa Bertus Praeg, 2006 The Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia has made fresh attempts to deal with the intra state challenges to the nation state in multi ethnic societies. This book examines how that country is trying to implement a programme of decentralising state power to ethnically based regional constituencies which could be of interest to other countries in Africa The study reveals that the Ethiopian Experiment questions conventional images of polyethnic states This book presents a practical example of the formulation of new approaches towards ethnicity federalism and objective nation statehood attempting to examine the changing meaning of ethnicity and nationalism throughout history in Western Europe to discuss how they impacted on state formations in Africa and to consider why Ethiopia stands unique in the process of state building versus ethnicity The study elaborates the factors which convinced the new Ethiopian leadership to embark on such a revolutionary path one on which each of the country's Nations Nationalities and Peoples is guaranteed the right to self government self determination and even independence federalism and the transition to democracy U.S. Policy in Postcolonial Africa Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam, 2004 This book a concise examination of U S policy in contemporary Africa delineates various aspects of the role that the U S played in exacerbating and or resolving violent conflicts in postcolonial Africa and provides a succinct historical overview of these armed conflicts F Ugboaja Ohaegbulam devotes considerable attention to four specific conflicts in Ethiopia Somalia the Western Sahara Angola and Rwanda and to the Clinton administration's African Crisis Response Initiative and its seguel under George W Bush The book concludes that lack of congruence between local forces in conflict in Africa as well as U S aims in those conflicts was only one of the constraints on the United States in its attempts at conflict resolution America's counterproductive Cold War policies also defined relations with African states for far too long Hence the conflicts in postcolonial Africa became part of the legacy of those policies even as African problems continued to be low priority concerns for the U S government Libraries advanced undergraduate and graduate students and professors of African studies as well as the general reader will find this book useful The Riddles of Africa folk Souls Max O. Thompson-Eleogu, 2023-05-26 About the Book We are living in a period where the old age is dying and the new age is not yet born We must ask ourselves these questions What is an authentic lifestyle What is the proper social order These are significant questions and as crucial as they are they need answers and answers that are true Rather the consensus is that these answers are beyond the apprehension of Africans Other questions covered in this book are What is the human soul Why do we suffer from the disintegration of the soul Are we truly free or dependent on the iron rule of the machine world What is cosmic thought and its relation to human soul What is the problem of intuitive flash and the myth of Western modernity What is national identity and values. These questions have their root in the symptom of disrupted historical period that plaqued the world and the entire continent of Africa The plague obliterated our ways of life and it was replaced with a machine world which denied us of the mysteries of the living earth and the human soul Currently this plague continues to haunt us because post colonial African states were born out of this plague In this book I believed that the problem of Africa could be resolved in placing it in a wider context of world historical consciousness because Africa is a part of the world and its crisis About the Author Max O Thompson Eleogu is a native Nigerian who lives and was schooled in the United States of America for both his undergraduate program and graduate program He authored the book AFRICA THE ROAD TO AFRO MODERNITY He is a Distinguished Fellow and founder of NobbleAfriq Institute a select and innovative think tank whose trajectory is the transformation of African politics and its people He was trained as a philosopher with an unwavering interest in African philosophy African American philosophy and Continental philosophy His other interests include African Mysticism and Accommodating National Identity Stephen Tierney, 2021-10-18 This collection of essays brings together Spiritualism international lawyers with their perspectives on how the international community has coped with contemporary cases of nationalist crisis and constitutional lawyers from states which are attempting to facilitate the political expression of national identity through developments in federalism devolution and the protection of minority rights The aim is to explore to what extent existing legal mechanisms permit a flexible engagement with and accommodation of the aspirations of national and ethnic groups It would appear that a heightened level of fluidity in the interaction and exchange of normative standards now exists in the relationship between international and domestic law as both types of system confront the challenge which national identity continues to constitute As this process marks a renewed preparedness on the part of legal systems to expand imaginatively to meet current problems it is hoped that this collection will highlight opportunities for an ongoing process of development in this complex and troubled area Minorities' Claims: From Autonomy to Secession

Gnanapala Welhengama,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2000 An investigation of how the claims of minority groups for greater political power through autonomy and secession clash with the concerns of the nation State and how States refusals to respond positively to such claims contribute to the escalation of ethnic conflicts in contemporary multi ethnic polities In addition this book examines the extent to which the international community is prepared to accommodate the concerns of minority groups beyond traditionally identified minority rights The validity of claims for autonomy with shared sovereignty autonomy as an inherent part of self determination autonomy as a solution to current ethnic conflicts secessionist and irredentist movements and their impact on peace and security are analyzed in detail Most importantly whether minorities as such can secede from the State in which they live by virtue of self determination is critically analyzed The discussion of peoples in the context of self determination is the first detailed research on this subject to appear in international and human rights literature these questions achieved in conjunction with strong sub national local governance establish a more effective framework for systemic change Drawing on a history of colonization and decolonization while scrutinizing decisions made about the imposition of the State on the basis of colonial boundaries this multidisciplinary work analyses why current challenges are unlikely to be adequately addressed through existing governance structures In response it advocates for a sub regional transnational approach drawing on analyses of pre colonial shared histories and contemporary population ethnographies unfettered by hegemonic boundary drawing The book argues that collaboration across such frontiers in the face of climate and other challenges may offer more feasible approaches to the pursuit of peace than the unquestioned maintenance of state based structures of inherited privilege This book will appeal to scholars and others with interests in international law international relations and international politics as well as in the history and politics of colonialism Ethnic Conflict Raymond Taras, 2015-08-07 Understanding Ethnic Conflict provides all the key concepts needed to understand conflict among ethnic groups Including approaches from both comparative politics and international relations this text offers a model of ethnic conflict s internationalization by showing how domestic and international actors influence a country's ethnic and sectarian divisions Illustrating this model in five original case studies the unique combination of theory and application in Understanding Ethnic Conflict facilitates more critical analysis of contemporary ethnic conflicts and the world s response to them Autonomy and Ethnic Conflict in South and South-East Asia Rajat Ganguly, 2013-05-20 This book uses empirical evidence from various case studies to examine the relationship between territorial and regional autonomy the nation state and ethnic conflict resolution in South and South East Asia The concept of territorial or regional autonomy holds centre stage in the literature on ethnic conflict settlement because it is supposed to be able to reconcile two paradoxical objectives the preservation of the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the state and the satisfaction of ethnic minorities right to national self determination Critics argue however that autonomy may not be the panacea for ethnic conflict in all cases The contributing authors begin with the concept of territorial or regional autonomy and subject it to a rigorous empirical analysis which provides reliable evidence regarding the suitability of the autonomy solution to intractable ethnic conflicts Drawing upon case studies from Kashmir Assam Sri Lanka Aceh Mindanao and Southern Thailand this edited volume argues that autonomy arrangements may at best work to resolve only a handful of separatist ethnic conflicts in South and South East Asia This book will be of much interest to students of South and South East Asia Asian security ethnic conflict peace studies and IR in general Middle Eastern Minorities and Diasporas Moshe Ma'oz, Gabriel Sheffer, 2002-01-01 The Arab countries have been projected as homogeneous and united social and political entities Yet beneath the surface ethnic tensions and conflicts simmer This book looks at the factors forces and circumstances that affect relations in the region and point towards strategies that promote or hinder coexistence and integration or antagonism Democracy and Ethnic Conflict A.
