Institute of Peace Journal ,1992-02 What the West is Getting Wrong about the Middle East Ömer Taspınar,2020-09-17

The West's actions in the Middle East are based on a fundamental misunderstanding political Islam is repeatedly assumed to be the main cause of conflict and unrest in the region The idea that we can decipher Jihadist radicalization or problems in the Middle East simply by reading the Qur'an has now become symptomatic of our age This dangerous over simplification and the West's obsession with Islam dominates media and policy analysis ultimately skewing intervention and preventing long term solutions and stability in the region mer Taspınar who has 20 years research and policymaking experience explains here what is really going on in the Middle East The book is based on three of the most pressing cases currently under the spotlight the role of Erdogan and the unrest in Turkey the sectarian clashes in Iraq Syria Yemen and Lebanon and the existence of the so called Islamic State Islam is often seen as the root cause of the challenge associated with these cases But by unpacking the real issues such as entrenched authoritarianism vast energy resources excessive defense spending and the youth bulge the book demystifies what is happening and cites governance and nationalism as the main drivers of conflict The book shows the importance of treating the causes which are economic social and institutional rather than the symptom the continued and growing success of Islamist parties and jihadist movements in assessing the Middle East In revealing exactly how Islamism is activated and by analyzing the structural challenges of the region this unique insider's account provides a map to understanding Middle Eastern wars and conflicts and the prospects for the future Greek-Turkish Relations in an Era of Détente Barry Rubin, Ali Çarkoglu,2020-05-04 Greek Turkish conflict ridden relations have long occupied a problematic position in the Western alliance first in NATO then more dramatically within the context of the newly developing European Union and its defence initiatives Following three major earthquakes on both sides of the Aegean the two countries have now experienced firstly a public empathy towards each other and secondly a significant diplomatic rapprochement This rapprochement though has failed to resolve the Cyprus conflict and is now at risk of reverting back to a series of conflicts This book addresses the crucial issues between Greece and Turkey from a critical perspective and provides an up to date assessment of the current state of the Greek Turkish rapprochement and its future development This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Turkish Studies Contested State Identities and Regional Security in the Euro-Mediterranean Area Raffaella A. Del Sarto,2006-07-07 Del Sarto argues that internal disputes over national identity limit the ability of states to participate in regional forums This is a close look at problems faced in negotiating the Euro Mediterranean Partnership EMP as a regional security project with particular attention to case studies of Israel Egypt and Morocco Japan's Threat Perception during the Cold War Eitan Oren,2023-02-10 Oren re examines Japan s threat perception during the first two decades of the Cold War using a wide range of source materials including many unavailable in English or only recently declassified There is a widely shared misconception that during the Cold War the Japanese were largely shielded from threats due to the American military protection the regional balance of power Japan s geographical insularity and domestic aversion to militarism Oren dispels this showing how security threats pervaded Japanese strategic thinking in this period By dispelling this misconception Oren enables us to more accurately gauge the degree to which Japan s threat perception has evolved during and after the end of the Cold War and to enhance our understanding of Tokyo s strategic calculus in the current situation of rivalry between China and the United States This book will be of great value to both scholars of Japanese history and contemporary international relations State Responses to Nuclear Proliferation Brian K. Chappell,2021-01-07 Contemporary fears of rogue state nuclear proliferation and nuclear terrorism pose unique challenges for the global community This book offers a unique approach by examining why states that have the military capability to severely damage a proliferating state s nuclear program instead choose to pursue coercive diplomacy The author argues cognitive psychological influences including the trauma derived from national tragedies like the September 11th attacks and the Holocaust and a history of armed conflict increase the threat perceptions of foreign policy decision makers when confronting a state perceived to be challenging the existing power structure by pursuing a nuclear weapon The powerful state s degree of perceived threat combined with its national security policies military power projection capabilities and public support then influence whether it will take no action use coercive diplomacy sanctions or employ military force to address the weaker state s nuclear ambitions Threat of Ballistic Missiles in the Middle East Arie Stav,2004-06-01 This addresses the complex issue of defence against ballistic missiles by intercepting them at various stages of their trajectory The book poses both technical and conceptual questions regarding the issue of missile to missile interception and other options
