The Geography of Environmental Crime Gary R. Potter, Angus Nurse, Matthew Hall, 2016-06-30 This book critically examines both theory and practice around conservation crimes It engages with the full complexity of environmental crimes and different responses to them including poaching conservation as a response to wildlife crime forest degradation environmental activism and the application of scientific and situational crime prevention techniques as preventative tools to deal with green crime Through the contributions of experts from both the social and ecological sciences the book deals with theoretical and practical considerations that impact on the effectiveness of contemporary environmental criminal justice It discusses the social construction of green crimes and the varied ways in which poaching and other conservation crimes are perceived operate and are ideologically driven as well as practical issues in environmental criminal justice With contributions based in varied ideological perspectives and drawn from a range of academic disciplines this volume provides a platform for scholars to debate new ideas about environmental law enforcement policy and crime prevention detection and punishment

The Extinction Market Vanda Felbab Brown, 2017-11-15 The planet is currently experiencing alarming levels of species loss caused in large part by intensified poaching and wildlife trafficking driven by expanding demand for medicines for food and for trophies Affecting many more species than just the iconic elephants rhinos and tigers the rate of extinction is now as much as 1000 times the historical average and the worst since the dinosaurs died out 65 million years ago In addition to causing irretrievable biodiversity loss wildlife trafficking also poses serious threats to public health potentially triggering a global pandemic The Extinction Market explores the causes means and consequences of poaching and wildlife trafficking with a view to finding ways of suppressing them Vanda Felbab Brown travelled to the markets of Latin America South and South East Asia and eastern and southern Africa to evaluate the effectiveness of various tools including bans on legal trade law enforcement and interdiction allowing legal supply from hunting or farming alternative livelihoods anti money laundering efforts and demand reduction strategies This is an urgent book offering meaningful solutions to one of the world s most pressing crises

Geography of Trafficking Fred M. Shelley,Reagan Metz,2017-10-27 This important reference work examines trafficking from a geographic perspective and investigates the driving forces behind it and the powers that are trying to curtail the problem The worldwide crime of trafficking involves countless people animals and animal parts and illicit goods such as drugs and weapons being moved and sold illegally Often the trafficking occurs with the local government or law enforcement s knowledge and complicity This one volume encyclopedia sheds light on a frightening and major issue investigating the geography of trafficking and examining a range of examples of illegal human animal drug and weapons movement around the world After a preface and introduction that provides an exact definition of trafficking the encyclopedia presents thematic essays that explore the various specific kinds of trafficking Approximately 30 country profiles describe who and what is trafficked in each country the motivations of those doing the trafficking where people and things are being moved to how the trafficking occurs and what actions are being taken in an effort to prevent it An appendix of primary documents interesting sidebars a bibliography and a glossary listing key terms and important organizations round out the work

Environmental Crime and Social Conflict Avi Brisman,Nigel South,Rob White,2016-03-09 This impressive collection of original essays explores the relationship between social conflict and the environment a topic that has received little attention within criminology The chapters provide a systematic and comprehensive introduction and overview of conflict situations stemming from human exploitation of environments as well as the impact of social conflicts on the wellbeing and health of specific species and ecosystems Largely informed by green criminology perspectives the chapters in the book are intended to stimulate new understandings of the relationships between humans and nature through critical evaluation of environmental destruction and degradation associated with social conflicts occurring around the world With a goal of creating a typology of environment social conflict relationships useful for green criminological research this study is essential reading for scholars and academics in criminology as well as those interested in crime law and justice

Unreason Kendrick Frazier, Benjamin Radford, 2023-10-17 UNREASON Exploring Pseudoscience Conspiracies and Extraordinary Claims is a collection of forty five of the best articles the legendary Skeptical Inquirer magazine has published in the past decade Featuring articles from writers including Neil deGrasse Tyson on the process of science Richard Dawkins on the standards of truth Elizabeth Loftus on memory Steven Pinker on the notion of progress and many others covering topics from the politicization of science to the frightening rise of misinformation each entry in this collection brings scientific examination to bear in order to ferret out the facts and misconceptions behind popular claims All of the articles within are interesting and readable Yet they are also quite diverse Some articles reinforce and complement each other others as happens in science may voice disagreements or differing perspectives But they all have one thing in common a respect for evidence a demand for the best most well tested most scientifically reliable information Readers will learn Why and how conspiracy rumors start spread and readily gain believers How to stay afloat in a sea of disinformation and survive the age of misinformation Why and how we form beliefs and adhere to them so powerfully How and why memory is fallible and what we can do about it How pseudoexperiments mislead the public about science Unreason will arm readers with scientific knowledge to curb the misinformation and misconceptions that increasingly threaten our civil discourse Even further these essays present a way for us to be better citizens equipped to deal with the winds of misinformation and disinformation swirling about us and better able to look ahead to a world where science and reason indeed just good old common sense can prevail

Gold Rush in the Jungle Dan Drollette, Jr., 2013-04-16 An engrossing adventure filled account of the rush to discover and save Vietnam s most extraordinary animals Deep in the jungle where the borders of Vietnam meet those of Laos and Cambodia is a region known as the lost world Large mammals never seen before by Western science have popped up frequently in these mountains in the last decade including a half goat half ox a deer that barks and a close relative of the nearly extinct Javan rhino In an age when scientists are excited by discovering a new kind of tube worm the thought of finding and naming a new large terrestrial mammal is astonishing and wildlife biologists from all over the world are flocking to this dangerous region The result is a race between preservation and destruction Containing research gathered from famous biologists conservationists indigenous peoples former POWs ex Viet Cong and the first U S ambassador to Vietnam since the war s end Gold Rush in the Jungle goes deep into the valleys hills and hollows of Vietnam to explore the research the international trade in endangered species the lingering effects of Agent Orange and the effort of a handful of biologists to save the world s rarest animals

Poached Rachel Love Nuwer, 2025-04-08 An intrepid investigation of the criminal world of wildlife trafficking the poachers the traders and the customers and of those fighting against it Journalist Rachel Nuwer plunges the reader into the underground of global wildlife trafficking a topic she has been investigating for nearly a decade Our insatiable demand for animals for jewelry pets medicine meat trophies and fur is driving a worldwide poaching epidemic threatening the continued existence of countless species Illegal wildlife trade now ranks among the largest contraband industries in the world yet compared to drug arms or human trafficking the wildlife crisis has received scant attention and support leaving it up to passionate individuals fighting on the ground to try to ensure that elephants tigers rhinos and more are still around for future generations As Reefer Madness Schlosser took us into the drug market or Susan Orlean descended into the swampy obsessions of The Orchid Thief Nuwer an award winning science journalist with a background in ecology takes readers on a narrative journey to the front lines of the trade to killing fields in Africa traditional medicine black markets in China and wild meat restaurants in Vietnam Through exhaustive first hand reporting that took her to ten countries Nuwer explores the forces currently driving demand for animals and their parts the toll that demand is extracting on species across the planet and the conservationists rangers and activists who believe it is not too late to stop the impending extinctions More than a depressing list of statistics Poached is the story of the people who believe this is a battle that can be won that our animals are not beyond salvation

Between Two Worlds: The Account of a Jet-Setting Vagrant Leo Anthony, 2012-12-05 This is a personal reflective and occasionally humorous recollection of the author's adventures and nomadic life principally in the UK but with two forays to Southern Africa Born in Britain to Rhodesian parents at the end of that country's tumultuous civil war he was raised in a fairly peaceful and prosperous Zimbabwe The narrative journey encompasses not only the present but the past He does his best to make an objective assessment of modern Britain whilst elaborating on just what Zimbabwe and South Africa means to him and the conflicting senses of identity and purpose in the homeland of his heart of which he is no longer a citizen In his quest for answers on his travels through the UK he surveys the cultural and political landscape of England today revisits his birthplace in Ealing and traverses the southwest of England in search of work Circumstance draws him to his estranged uncle's abode in the coastal city of Plymouth where the past and present collide unexpectedly

Dark Commerce Louise I. Shelley, 2020-11-10 Though mankind has traded tangible goods for millennia recent technology has changed the fundamentals of trade in both legitimate and illegal economies In the past three decades the most advanced forms of illicit trade have broken with all historical precedents and as Dark Commerce shows now operate as if on steroids tied to computers and social media In this new world of illicit commerce which benefits states and diverse participants trade is impersonal and anonymized and vast profits are made in short periods with limited accountability to sellers intermediaries and purchasers Louise Shelley examines how new technology communications and globalization fuel the exponential growth of dangerous forms of illegal trade the markets for narcotics and child pornography online the escalation of sex trafficking through web advertisements and the sale of endangered species for which revenues total in the hundreds of millions of dollars The illicit economy exacerbates many of the world's destabilizing phenomena the perpetuation of conflicts the proliferation of arms and weapons of mass destruction and environmental degradation and extinction Shelley explores illicit trade in tangible goods drugs human beings arms wildlife and timber fish antiquities and ubiquitous counterfeits and contrasts this with the damaging trade in cyberspace where intangible commodities cost consumers and organizations billions as they lose identities bank accounts access to computer data and intellectual property

The Boilerplate Rhino David Quammen, 2012-10-23 From one of the most fascinating and thought provoking writers of natural history The Seattle Times a collection of enduring essays that form a bestiary of wondrous creatures and a gallery of the human faces that peer at them The Boilerplate Rhino brings together twenty six of David Quammen s most thoughtful and engaging essays from his column for Outside magazine gifting readers with an irrepressible assortment of ideas to explore conundrums to contemplate and wondrous creatures to behold In lucid penetrating and often quirkily idiosyncratic prose David Quammen takes his readers with him as he explores the world His travels lead him to rattlesnake handlers in Texas a lizard specialist in Baja the dinosaur museum in Jordan Montana and halfway across Indonesia in search of the perfect Durian fruit He ponders the history of nutmeg in the southern Moluccas meditates on bioluminescent beetles while soaking in the waters of the Amazon and delivers The Dope on Eggs from a chicken ranch near his hometown in Montana Quammen s travels are always jumping off points to explore the rich and sometimes horrifying tension between humankind and the natural world in all its complexity and ambivalence The result is another irrepressible assortment of ideas to explore conundrums to contemplate and wondrous creatures to behold The National Geographic Magazine ,1911 National Geographic Kids Almanac 2013 National Kids, 2012 Provides the latest information on a wide range of topics including animals culture geography the environment history and science AWIC Series ,1989 Killing for Profit Julian Rademeyer, 2012-11-08 A terrifying true story of greed corruption depravity and ruthless criminal enterprise On the black markets of Southeast Asia rhino horn is worth more than gold cocaine and heroin This is the chilling story of a more than two year long investigation into a dangerous criminal underworld where merciless syndicates will stop at nothing to attain their prize It is a tale of greed folly and corruption and of an increasingly desperate battle to save the rhino which has survived for more than 50 million years from extinction Killing for Profit is a meticulous devastating and revelatory account of one of the world s most secretive trades It exposes poachers gangsters con men mercenaries killers gunrunners diplomats government officials and other key players behind the slaughter And it follows the bloody trail from the front lines of the rhino wars in South Africa Zimbabwe and Mozambique to the medicine markets of Vietnam and the lair of a wildlife trafficking kingpin on the banks of the Mekong River in Laos A Deadly Covenant Michael Stanley, 2022-09-01 I found A Deadly Covenant completely intriguing and engrossing and the Bushman scenes fascinating Vividly painted scenery and I can feel the oppressive heat Talk about Sunshine Noir Kwei Quartey author of the Emma Djan and Darko Dawson mysteries The unmatched beauty spirit and mystery of Africa never fails to come to life in Michael Stanley s award winning Botswana based Detective Kubu series A Deadly Covenant is an irresistible page turner and a powerful contribution to the Kubu saga Jeffrey Siger author of the Andreas Kaldis series This is the eighth book in the Detective Kubu series and the second with him as a young man While building a pipeline near the Okavango Delta a contractor unearths the skeleton of a long dead Bushman Kubu and Scottish pathologist Ian MacGregor are sent to investigate and MacGregor discovers eight more skeletons Then an elder of the nearby village is murdered at his home The local police believe it was a robbery but Kubu thinks otherwise So does a strange woman who claims it was an angry river spirit The situation gets more confusing when the strange woman is found dead apparently killed by a crocodile Assistant Superintendent Mabaku joins them as accusations of corruption are leveled and international outrage builds over the massacre of the Bushman families But how do the recent murders link to the dead Bushmen if at all As Kubu and his colleagues investigate they uncover a deadly covenant and begin to fear that their own lives may be in danger The young Kubu s second big case mixes local mythology and tradition with smart police work to make for a satisfyingly immersive mystery that begs resolution until the last unpredictable moment Facets of Death Michael Stanley,2020-01-07 When a Botswana mine is robbed of 100 000 carats of diamonds and the thieves are murdered execution style Botswana s Detective Kubu s first case becomes a terrifying international investigation The stunning chilling PREQUEL to the award winning Detective Kubu series A wonderful original voice McCall Smith with a dark edge and even darker underbelly Peter James My favourite writing duo since Ellery Queen Ragnar Jonasson A thrilling and intriguing ride along with Botswana s Number 1 good guy detective Tony Park _____ Detective Kubu s first case may also be his last Recruited straight from university to Botswana s CID David Kubu Bengu has raised his colleagues suspicions with his meteoric rise within the department and he has a lot to prove When the richest diamond mine in the world is robbed of 100 000 carats worth of gems and then the thieves are killed execution style Kubu leaps at the chance to prove himself But where are the diamonds And what role does a witch doctor and his son play Does this young detective have the skill and integrity to engineer an international trap Or could it cost him everything including his life A riveting chilling prequel to the award winning Detective Kubu series Facets of Death introduces the beloved Kubu and his richly described native Botswana in a dark sophisticated thriller that will leave you breathless _____ Great African crime fiction Deon Meyer Easily one of the best heist novels I ve read since Gerald Browne s classic 11 Harrowhouse Bookpage A natural for fans of the No 1 Ladies Detective Agency Booklist The series you didn t know you needed in your life an absolute joy Grab this Book Original mind bending and twisty it s impossible to tell the innocent from the guilty until the grand finale Loarn Paterson Twists a classic heist story with local legends and beliefs in a believable and entertaining way thoroughly intriguing Jen Med s Book Reviews You will be captivated by the chilling snappy chapters and the exquisite atmospheric writing The Reading Closet Under the African sun Michael Stanley s Detective Kubu investigates crimes as dark as the darkest of Nordic Noir Call it Sunshine Noir if you will a must read Yrsa Sigurdardottir Detective David Kubu Bengu is a wonderful creation complex and beguiling The exotic smells and sounds of Botswana fill the pages as well as the changes and struggles of a country brimming with modern technology yet fiercely clinging to old traditions Compelling and deceptively written New York Journal of Books Impossible to
