Big Mall Kate Black, 2024-02-13 A phenomenology of the mall If the mall makes us feel bad why do we keep going back In a world poisoned by capitalism what makes life worth living Kate Black grew up in West Edmonton Mall a mall on steroids notorious for its indoor waterpark deadly roller coaster and controversial dolphin shows But everyone has a favourite mall or a mall that is their own personal memory palace It's a place people love to hate and hate to love a site of pleasure and pain of death and violence of sub urban legend Blending a history of shopping with a story of coming of age in North America's largest and strangest mall Big Mall investigates how these structures have become the ultimate symbol of late capitalist dread and surprisingly a subversive site of hope Speaking as a child of PacSun and Hot Topic myself Big Mall is like a madeleine dipped in Orange Julius Like a mall the book itself has a lot of everything a sublime mix of memoir history and cultural criticism Kate Black is a learned Virgil in the consumerist Inferno always avoiding the obvious and leading us to surprising connections oil suicide Reddit squatters dolphins Whether malls fill you with nostalgia or horror this book will change your relationship to the world we've constructed around us Tony Tulathimutte author of Private Citizens Before there was Instagram there was the mall But what happens when a seasonless tacky fantasyland is all you knew growing up How does one embrace a genuinely fake experience Or to be more precise a fake but genuine experience Kate Black's Big Mall is a smart sentimental and perspective shifting look at the outsized role that big malls play in modern life Love em or hate em one thing's for sure after reading this book you'll never look at a mall in the same way again Ziya Tong Science broadcaster author of The Reality Bubble Hollywood or History? Lisa K.

Pennington, Donna Fortune, Mary E. Tackett, Paige Horst, Meghan A. Kessler, 2024-09-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century However purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically K-6 teachers of social studies content by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions National Geographic Traveler: New York Michael S.
