

National Interest

- The concept is very vague and unclear
- Difficult to know exactly a state's national interests

Brooking's Institute: National interest is 'the general and continuing ends for which a nation acts'

Dyke: the interest which the states seek to protect or achieve in relation to each other

Morgenthau: 'A country's national interests is proportional to its capacities'

The greater the capacity, the more the national interests e.g. US

- Marx: National interests is a hoax. There are no national interests, there are only class interests.
