Nationalism And Literature The Politics Of Culture In Canada And The United States:

Nationalism and Literature Sarah M. Corse, 1997 Sarah Corse's analysis of nearly two hundred American and Canadian novels offers a theory of national literatures. Demonstrating that national canon formation occurs in tandem with nation building and that canonical novels play a symbolic role in this, this 1996 book accounts for cross national literary differences, addresses issues of mediation and representation in theories of reflection, and illuminates the historically constructed nature of the relationship between literature and the nation state.

Robert Burns and the United States of America Arun Sood, 2018-07-23 This book provides a critical study of the relationship between Robert Burns and the United States of America c 1786-1866. Though Burns is commonly referred to as Scotland's National Poet, his works were frequently reprinted in New York and Philadelphia, his verse mimicked by an emerging canon of American poets, and his songs appropriated by both abolitionists and Confederate soldiers during the Civil War era. Adopting a transnational Atlantic Studies perspective that shifts emphasis from Burns as national poet to transnational icon, this book charts the reception, dissemination, and cultural memory of Burns and his works in the United States up to 1866.

National Identity and the Conflict at Oka Amelia Kalant, 2004-06 Through readings of literature, canonical history texts, studies of museum displays, and media analysis, this work explores the historical formation of myths of Canadian national identity and then how these myths were challenged and affirmed during the 1990 standoff at Oka. It draws upon history, literary criticism, anthropology, studies in nationalism, and ethnicity, and post colonial theory.

The Female Voice of Myanmar Nilanjana Sengupta, 2015-12-09 The Female Voice of Myanmar seeks to offer a female perspective on the history and political evolution of Myanmar. It delves into the lives and works of four of Myanmar's remarkable women who set aside their lives to answer the call of their country: Khin Myo Chit, who spoke about latent sexual politics in pre-Independent Burma; Ludu Daw Amar, who as the editor of the leftist Ludu Daily was deemed anti-establishment and was witness to the socialist government's abortive efforts at ethnic reconciliation; Ma Thida, whose writing bears testimony to the impact the authoritative military rule had on the individual psyche; and Aung San Suu Kyi, who has re-articulated Burmese nationalism. This book breaks new ground in exploring their writing, both published and hitherto unexamined, some in English and much in Burmese, while the intimate biographical sketches offer a glimpse into the Burmese home and the shifting feminine image.

Sealed with Blood Sarah J. Purcell, 2010-08-03 The first martyr to the cause of American liberty was Major General Joseph Warren, a well-known political orator, physician, and president of the Provincial Congress of Massachusetts. Shot in the face at close range at Bunker Hill, Warren was at once transformed into a national hero, with his story appearing throughout the colonies in newspapers, songs, pamphlets, sermons, and even theater productions. His death, though shockingly violent, was not unlike tens of thousands of others, but his sacrifice came to mean something much more significant to the American public. Sealed with Blood reveals how public memories and commemorations of Revolutionary War heroes such as those for Warren helped Americans form a common bond and create a new national identity Drawing from extensive research on civic celebrations and commemorative literature in the half century that followed the War for Independence Sarah Purcell shows how people invoked memories of their participation in and sacrifices during the war when they wanted to shore up their political interests make money argue for racial equality solidify their class status or protect their personal reputations Images were also used especially those of martyred officers as examples of glory and sacrifice for the sake of American political principles By the midnineteenth century African Americans women and especially poor white veterans used memories of the Revolutionary War to articulate their own more inclusive visions of the American nation and to try to enhance their social and political status Black slaves made explicit the connection between military service and claims to freedom from bondage Between 1775 and 1825 the very idea of the American nation itself was also democratized as the role of the people in keeping the sacred memory of the Revolutionary War broadened

The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets, 1880-1897 D. M. R. Bentley, 2004-01-01 As one of the formative periods in Canadian history the late nineteenth century witnessed the birth of a nation a people and a literature In this study of Canada s first school of poets D M R Bentley combines archival work including extensive research in periodicals and newspapers with close readings of the work of Charles G D Roberts Archibald Lampman Bliss Carman William Wilfred Campbell Duncan Campbell Scott and Frederick George Scott Bentley chronicles the formation reception national and international successes and eventual disintegration after the 1895 War Among the Poets of the Confederation Group whose poetry forever changed the perception and direction of Canadian literature With the aid of biographical political and sociological analyses Bentley s literary history delineates the group s political aesthetic and thematic dispositions and characteristics and contextualizes them not only within Canadian history and politics but also within contemporary intellectual and literary currents including

Romantic nationalism Canadianism and poetic formalism Bentley casts new light on the poets commonalities such as their debt to Young Ireland their commitment to careful workmanship and their participation in the American mind cure movement as well as on their most accomplished and anthologized poems from 1880 to 1897 In the process he presents a compelling case for the literary and historical importance of these six men and their poems in light of Canada s cultural and political past and defends their right to be known as Canada s first poetic fraternity at a time when Canada was striving to achieve literary and national distinction The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets 1880 1897 is an erudite and innovative work of literary history and critical interpretation that belongs on the bookshelf of every serious scholar of literary studies

Literature, Partition and the Nation-State Joseph N. Cleary, 2002-01-03 The history of partition in the twentieth century is one steeped in controversy and violence Literature Partition and the Nation State offers an extended study of the social and cultural legacies of state division in Ireland and Palestine two regions where the trauma of partition continues to shape political events to this day Focusing on the period since the 1960s when the original partition settlements in each region were challenged by Irish and Palestinian nationalists Joe Cleary s book contains individual chapters on nationalism and self determination on the construction of national literatures in the wake of state division and on influential Irish Israeli and Palestinian writers film makers and public intellectuals Cleary s book is a radical and enthralling intervention into contemporary scholarship from a range of disciplines on nations and nationalism It will be of interest to scholars in Cultural and Post Colonial Studies Nations and Nationalism Irish Literature Middle East Studies and Modern History The SAGE Handbook of Sociology Craig Calhoun, Chris Rojek, Bryan S Turner, 2005-06-18 Sociology has evolved greatly since its inception as an academic discipline It has diverged into numerous strands often flowing in disparate directions so much so that today the notion of canonical sociology has become widely disputed The field of sociology at present approximates to one of multi paradigmatic complexity in which many approaches to theory must be distinguished and situated In addition the discipline has had to confront new challenges from globalization the shift of interest from production to consumption the rise of new social movements the challenge of bio engineering the collapse of a presently existing socialist alternative and much else besides The new SAGE Handbook of Sociology aims to address these new developments while at the same time providing an authoritative guide to theory and method the key sub disciplines and the primary debates of today To undertake this ambitious project three leading figures in the field of sociology were selected as editors to bring together the foremost exponents of the different strands that contribute towards the make up modern sociology Drawn from both sides of the Atlantic the contributors have been commissioned to utilise the most up to date research available to provide a critical international analysis of their area of expertise The result is this essential resource collection that not just reflects upon the condition of sociology today but also looks to future developments in the discipline The Handbook is invaluable not just all sociologists but to a wide variety of students and researchers across the social sciences Click on Sample Chapters Resources to download the introduction The Necessary Nation Gregory Jusdanis, 2011-06-27 In this controversial look at nationalism Gregory Jusdanis offers a sweeping defense of the nation as a protector of cultural difference and a catalyst for modernization Since the end of the Cold War the nation state has undergone intense scrutiny among critics in the media and the academy Many believe that civic nationalism may be fruitful but that cultural nationalism fosters xenophobia and backward thinking Jusdanis however emphasizes the positive collaboration between nation building and culture Through a series of critical readings of multicultural postcolonial and globalization theories the author reveals how nationalism enables people to defend their distinctive ways of life to fight colonial oppression and to build an independent society of citizens He explains why people over the last two hundred years have politicized their ethnic identities and have sought a union of culture and power within an autonomous nation state While seeking to defend nationalism Jusdanis also examines its potential to unleash extraordinary violence into the world He thus proposes federalism as a political solution to the challenges posed by nationalism and globalization Jusdanis applies the tools of disciplines ranging from anthropology to philosophy as he explores the nation building projects of numerous and diverse countries around the world What emerges is a fresh perspective on the subjects of national culture identity political nations globalization postcolonialism and diaspora

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Lafleur Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsev, 2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
