Nationalism & Capitalism in Peru Aníbal Quijano, 1971      Nationalism and capitalism in Peru Anibal Quijano, 1971      Nationalism & Capitalism in Peru/National and Capitalism in Peru Aníbal Quijano, 1971      Peruvian Nationalism David Chaplin, 1976-01-01 Peru is the most interesting model of justice and development in Latin America today To analyze the sociopolitical progress of this nation David Chaplin has gathered together and edited this interdisciplinary collection of essays Peru's development is unique for several reasons First it has shown that a military force that was trained largely by the United States can employ its professional expertise not to remain a well behaved ally but to pull off a genuinely radical nationalist revolution even at the expense of various interests of its benefactor Second Peru has proven that successful economic development need be neither capitalist nor Socialist Peruvian Nationalism contains major papers by leading Peruvianists on the 1960s and on the current revolutionary military regime The temporal focus is on the current post 1968 revolutionary military government with background material covering the early 1960s Contributors are all social scientists including American Italian and Peruvian writers who have carried out field research in Peru The primary focus of this volume is the radical change being carried out by the current military structure Relevant background topics include Peru's sociopolitical structure during the 1960s especially under the Belaunde regime with particular attention to peasant movements and agrarian reform a reassessment of the pre 1968 golpe coup de etat behavior of former military governments an analysis of the uniquely radical ideology and concrete reforms of the current military government This social science reader on Peru is a scholarly as well as sympathetic treatment of Peru's national and local politics social structure agrarian and tax reform and peasant movements The editor has provided an extensive introduction and index and has also included a thorough bibliography of publications on Peru since 1960      The United States and the Andean Republics Fredrick B. Pike, 1977 Monograph on the role of USA in the present and historical political development of the Andean region treats the rise of corporatism ie The protection of traditional culture and social structure from negative outside capitalistic influences in Peru Bolivia and Ecuador and discusses the effects of race and religion Marxism elites and the CIAP on the formation of political ideology Maps and references      The New Authoritarianism in Latin America David Collier, Fernando Henrique Cardoso, Joint Committee on Latin American Studies, 1979 While one of the most important attempts to explain the rise of authoritarian regimes and their relationship to problems of economic development has been the bureaucratic authoritarian model there has been growing dissatisfaction with various elements of this model In light of this dissatisfaction a group of leading economists political scientists and sociologists was brought together to assess the adequacy of the model and suggest directions for its reformulation This volume is the product of their discussions over a period of three years and represents an important advance in the critique and refinement of ideas about political development Part One provides an overview of the issues of social science analysis raised by the recent emergence of authoritarianism in Latin America and contains chapters

by David Collier and Fernando Henrique Cardoso The chapters in Part Two address the problem of explaining the rise of bureaucratic authoritarianism and are written by Albert Hirschman Jose Serra Robert Kaufman and Julio Coder In Part Three Guillermo O Donnell James Kurth and David Collier discuss the likely future patterns of change in bureaucratic authoritarianism opportunities for extending the analysis to Europe and priorities for future research The book includes a glossary and an extensive bibliography

Masculinity in Transition K. Allison Hammer, 2023-10-17

Locating the roots of toxic masculinity and finding its displacement in unruly culture Masculinity in Transition analyzes shifting relationships to masculinity in canonical works of twentieth century literature and film as well as in twenty first century media performance and transgender poetics Focusing on toxic masculinity which has assumed new valence since 2016 K Allison Hammer traces its roots to a complex set of ideologies embedded in the histories of settler colonialism racial capitalism and political fraternity and finds that while toxic strains of masculinity are mainly associated with straight white men trans and queer masculinities can be implicated in these systems of power Hammer argues however that these malignant forms of masculinity are not fixed and can be displaced by unruly alliances texts and relationships that reject the nationalisms and gender politics of white male hegemony and perform an urgently needed reimagining of what it means to be masculine Locating these unruly alliances in the writings performances and films of butch lesbians gay men cisgender femmes and trans and nonbinary individuals Masculinity in Transition works through an archive of works of performance art trans poetics Western films and streaming media global creative responses to HIV AIDS and working class and white trash fictions about labor and unionization Masculinity in Transition moves the study of masculinity away from an overriding preoccupation with cisnormativity whiteness and heteronormativity and toward a wider and more generative range of embodiments identifications and ideologies Hammer's bold rethinking of masculinity and its potentially toxic effects lays bare the underlying fragility of normative masculinity Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Eclipse of Justice George E. McCarthy, Royal W. Rhodes, 2008-12-21 A sociologist and a church historian provide a probing scholarly critique of Economic Justice for All the American bishops pastoral letter on Catholicism and the U S economy McCarthy and Rhodes examine the letter's focus on poverty inequality and powerlessness in American society They review classical concepts of social ethics and economic justice as applied by the bishops to analyze the social political and economic institutions of American By examining reactions to the letter from both the political left and right Eclipse of Justice opens up the full range of debate about the nature of social ethics The first part of Eclipse of Justice presents the moral dilemma created by the bishops critique of liberalism they pronounced it a social and moral scandal and explores the antecedents papal episcopal and lay that provided the ideas and vocabulary for the bishops letter The second part analyzes the pastoral letter and locates it within the larger context of debates about economic structures in modern liberalism The third part examines attempts of the bishops to relate Christian social doctrine to international political and economic issues and probes the contributions of liberation theology and dependency theory

The Peculiar Revolution Carlos Aguirre, Paulo Drinot, 2017-05-30 On October 3 1968 a military junta led by General Juan Velasco Alvarado took over the government of Peru In striking contrast to the right wing pro United States anti Communist military dictatorships of that era however Velasco's Revolutionary Government of the Armed Forces set in motion a left leaning nationalist project aimed at radically transforming Peruvian society by eliminating social injustice breaking the cycle of foreign domination redistributing land and wealth and placing the destiny of Peruvians into their own hands Although short lived the Velasco regime did indeed have a transformative effect on Peru the meaning and legacy of which are still subjects of intense debate The Peculiar Revolution revisits this fascinating and idiosyncratic period of Latin American history The book is organized into three sections that examine the era s cultural politics including not just developments directed by the Velasco regime but also those that it engendered but did not necessarily control its specific policies and key institutions and the local and regional dimensions of the social reforms it promoted In a series of innovative chapters written by both prominent and rising historians this volume illuminates the cultural dimensions of the revolutionary project and its legacies the impact of structural reforms at the local level including previously understudied areas of the country such as Piura Chimbote and the Amazonia and the effects of state policies on ordinary citizens and labor and peasant organizations

Militarism and Politics in Latin America Daniel Masterson, 1991-08-26 This comprehensive case study of the modern Peruvian military examines the professional development of South America s most controversial military establishment from the early 1930s to the present Based on extensive research in Peruvian military archives and numerous interviews with active and retired members of the Peruvian armed forces this study is placed in the context of Peruvian national politics and South American military affairs Particular emphasis is given to the impact of France and U S military theory upon the Peruvian military mentality Revolutionary politics from the Alianza Popular Revolucionaria Americana APRA in the 1930s to the present day s Sendero Luminoso also figure prominently This study also explores the rationale behind General Velasco s social and economic reforms 1968-1975 and assesses the Velasco government s legacy for contemporary Peru For the first time the Soviet Union s heavy involvement in Peru is examined As the only comprehensive case study in English of the modern Peruvian military this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Latin America This is a detailed historical study of the highly complex Peruvian military establishment and its place in Peruvian society It includes a review of the 1930s an in depth analysis of the armed forces from the late 1930s to the first Belaunde regime 1963-1968 the immediate antecedents of Peru s 12 year military government 1968-1980 known as the Docenio preliminary overview of the Docenio and its troubled legacy an assessment of the Sendero Luminoso Shining Path insurgency and a critique of the armed force s counter terrorism campaign Militarism and Politics in Latin America draws extensively on Latin American and U S archival sources and personal interviews and includes rare photographs

State and Society in Conflict Paul W. Drake, Eric Herschberg, 2006-06-25 State and Society in Conflict analyzes one of the most volatile regions in Latin America the Andean states of Colombia Venezuela Ecuador Peru and Bolivia For the last twenty five years crises in these five Andean countries have endangered Latin America's democracies and strained their relations with the United States As these nations struggle to cope with demands from Washington on security policies emphasizing drugs and terrorism neoliberal economics and democratic politics their resulting domestic travails can be seen in poor economic growth unequal wealth distribution mounting social unrest and escalating political instability The contributors to this volume examine the histories politics and cultures of the Andean nations and argue that due to their shared history and modern circumstances these countries are suffering a shared crisis of deteriorating relations between state and society that is best understood in regional not purely national terms The results in some cases have been semi authoritarian hybrid regimes that lurch from crisis to crisis often controlled through force though clinging to a notion of democracy The solution to these problems whether through democratic authoritarian peaceful or violent means will have profound implications for the region and its future relations with the world Medina by the Bay Maryam

Kashani, 2023-07-07 From the Black Power movement and state surveillance to Silicon Valley and gentrification Medina by the Bay examines how multiracial Muslim communities in the San Francisco Bay Area survive and flourish within and against racial capitalist carceral and imperial logics Weaving expansive histories peoples and geographies together in an ethnographic screenplay of cinematic scenes Maryam Kashani demonstrates how sociopolitical forces and geopolitical agendas shape Muslim ways of knowing and being Throughout Kashani argues that contemporary Islam emerges from the specificities of the Bay Area from its landscapes and infrastructures to its Muslim liberal arts college mosques and prison courtyards Theorizing the Medina by the Bay as a microcosm of socioeconomic demographic and political transformations in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Kashani resituates Islam as liberatory and abolitionist theory theology and praxis for all those engaged in struggle
