Nations Without Nationalism:

Nations Without Nationalism Julia Kristeva, 1993 Underlying Julia Kristeva's latest work is the idea that otherness whether it be ethnic religious social or political needs to be understood and accepted in order to guarantee social harmony Nations Without Nationalism is an impassioned plea for tolerance and for commonality aimed at a world brimming over with racism and xenophobia Responding to the rise of neo Nazi groups in Germany and Eastern Europe and the continued popularity of the National Front in France Kristeva turns to the origins of the nation state to illustrate the problematic nature of nationalism and its complex configurations in subsequent centuries For Kristeva the key to commonality can be found in Montesquieu's esprit general his notion of the social body as a guaranteed hierarchy of private rights Nations Without Nationalism also contains Kristeva's thoughts on Harlem Desir the founder of the antiracist organization SOS Racisme the links between psychoanalysis and nationalism the historical nature of French national identity the relationship between esprit general and Volksgeist Charles de Gaulle's complex ideas involving the nation and his dream of a unified Europe In the tradition of Strangers to Ourselves her most recent nonfiction work Nations Without Nationalism reflects a passionate commitment to enlightenment and social justice As ethnic strife persists in Europe and the United States Kristeva's humanistic message carries with it a special resonance and urgency Nations without States Montserrat Guibernau, 2013-07-10 Guibernau offers a comparative analysis of nationalist movements in nations without states

Nations without States James B. Minahan, 1996-01-19 Russians are suppressing the Chechen Ibo nationalism may yet tear Nigeria apart With the end of the Cold War any of the world's stateless peoples could be in tomorrow's headlines This book provides an essential guide to the stateless nations suppressed or ignored during the Cold War In more than 200 national surveys the volume highlights the historical political social economic and diplomatic evolution of many of the currently emerging nations without states Including nations from all continents from the Chechen in Eastern Europe to the Ibo in Africa and the Quebeckers in North America the book addresses the current nationalist resurgence by focusing on the most basic element of any nationalism the nation itself The book provides the only source of concise information on stateless nations Each entry includes the nation's name and alternative names population statistics information on major languages and religions geographical information independence declarations information on the national flag a brief sketch of the primary national group or groups and a profile of the nation's history and national development to the present A chronological appendix of declarations of independence helps to set the waves of nationalism in an historical context A second appendix provides a geographic listing by region and nation of national organizations Nationality Between Poststructuralism and Postcolonial Theory P. Leonard, 2005-10-28 Nationality Between Poststructuralism and Postcolonial Theory A New Cosmopolitanism examines and interrogates recent work on nationality in literary critical and cultural theory Focusing on the work of Derrida Deleuze and Guattari Kristeva Spivak and Bhabha it explores how for these theorists the concepts of community the new International nomadism deterritorialization cosmopolitanism hospitality the native informant hybridity and postcolonial agency can provoke a different understanding of national identity

The SAGE Handbook of Nations and Nationalism Gerard Delanty, Krishan Kumar, 2006-06-14 With its list of distinguished contributors and its wide range of topics the handbook is surely destined to become an invaluable resource for all serious students of nationalism Michael Billig Professor of Social Sciences at Loughborough University and author of Banal Nationalism SAGE 1995 The persistence some would say revival of nationalism across the recent history of modernity in particular the past two decades has taken many scholars in the social sciences by surprise In response interest in the analysis of nationalism has increased and given rise to a great variety of new angles under which to study the phenomenon What was missing in the cacophony of voices addressing nationalism was a volume that brought them together and confronted them with each other This handbook does just that It deserves particular praise for the wide range of approaches and topic included and for the systematic attempt at studying nationalism as a phenomenon of our time not a remnant from the past Peter Wagner Professor of Social and Political Theory European University Institute and Professor of Sociology University of Warwick For students concerned with the contemporary study of nationalism this will be an invaluable publication The three fold division into approaches themes and cases is a very solid and sensible one The editors have commissioned essays from leading scholars in the field and this handbook provides the best single volume overview of contemporary nationalism John Breuilly Professor of Nationalism and Ethnicity London School of Economics Nationalism has long excited debate in political social and cultural theory and remains a key field of enquiry among historians anthropologists sociologists as well as political scientists It is also one of the critical media issues of our time There are however surprisingly few volumes that bring together the best of this intellectual diversity into one collection This Handbook gives readers a critical survey of the latest theories and debates and provides a glimpse of the issues that will shape their future Its three sections guide the reader through the theoretical approaches to this field of study its major themes from modernity to memory migration and genocide and the diversity of nationalisms found around the globe The overall aim of this Handbook is to relate theories and debates within and across a range of disciplines illuminate themes and issues of central importance in both historical and contemporary contexts and show how nationalism has impacted upon and interacted with other political and social forms and forces This book provides a much needed resource for scholars in international relations political science social theory and sociology Julia Kristeva Sara Beardsworth, 2012-02-01 Honorable Mention 2006 Goethe Award for Psychoanalytic Scholarship presented by the Section on Psychoanalysis of the Canadian Psychological Association This is the first systematic overview of Julia Kristeva's vision and work in relation to philosophical modernity It provides a clear comprehensive and interdisciplinary analysis of her thought on psychoanalysis art ethics politics and feminism in the secular aftermath of religion Sara Beardsworth shows that Kristeva's multiple perspectives explore the powers and limits of different discourses as responses to the historical failures of Western cultures failures that are undergone and disclosed in psychoanalysis Ethnic Minorities and Inter-ethnic Relations in Context Karen Phaet, Antal Orkeny, 2017-10-19 This volume is based on papers presented on ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands which were presented and discussed in three conferences and a series of meetings from 1997-1999 This work builds on comparative studies of the rise of a radical right and the mobilization of anti immigrant feelings It presents cross national comparative research due to the credence that shifting national angles is a powerful strategic tool with which to correct national bias and to uncover submerged or overlooked aspects of specific national cases The book brings together contributions from Hungarian and Dutch scholars in the field of ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations The two countries are used as exemplary cases of distinct ethno political patterns in Central and Western Europe Combining complementary configurational and dimensional approaches to cross national comparison the diverse forms of ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands are analyzed and competing explanations of ethno political conflict or coordination are tested in both national contexts Intercultural Explorations, 2021-11-01 Divided into four sections Asian Western Intersections Intercultural Memory Intercultural Perspectives on Women Genre Studies and The Intercultural Arts these essays from diverse hands and multiple perspectives illuminate the intersections the cross sections and the synergies that characterize significant literary texts and artistic productions Individually they exemplify the insights available in an intercultural perspective together they remind us that no culture even those that claim to be pure or those that might be regarded as isolated has escaped the influence of external influences As a result this volume is doubly synergistic one because it focuses on intercultural phenomena within a specific culture and two because they represent multiple perspectives on these phenomena Towards a Transcultural Future: Literature and Society in a 'Post'-Colonial World 1, 2004-01-01 This collection has one central theoretical focus viz stock taking essays on the present and future status of postcolonialism transculturalism nationalism and globalization These are complemented by special angles of entry e.g dharmic ethics and by considerations of the global impress of technology African literary studies and the Internet Further essays have a focus on literary cultural studies in Australia the South Asian experience and New Zealand ecopoetics a Central European migr e perspective on the nation the unravelling of literary nationalism transplantation and the trope of translation The thematic umbrella finally covers studies of such topics as translation and interculturalism the transcendental in Australian and Indian fiction African Shakespeares Canadian narrative and First Nations story templates anglophone francophone relations the writing and rewriting of crime fiction in Africa and the USA utopian fiction in Quebec and syncretism in post apartheid South African theatre Some of the authors treated in detail are Janet Frame Kapka Kassabova Elizabeth Knox Annamarie Jagose Denys Trussell David Malouf Patrick White Yasmine Gooneratne Raja Rao Robert Kroetsch Thomas King Chester Himes Julius Nyerere Ayi Kwei Armah L opold S dar Senghor Simon Njami Abourahman Waberi Lueen Conning Nuruddin Farah Athol Fugard Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Shakespeare The collection is rounded off by creative writing prose poetry and drama by Bernard Cohen Jan Kemp Vincent O Sullivan Andrew Sant and Sujay Sood

The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva Sara G. Beardsworth, 2020-08-18 The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva is the latest addition to the highly acclaimed series The Library of Living Philosophers The book epitomizes the objectives of this acclaimed series it contains critical interpretation of one of the greatest philosophers of our time and pursues more creative regional and world dialogue on philosophical questions The format provides a detailed interaction between those who interpret and critique Kristeva s work and the seminal thinker herself giving broad coverage from diverse viewpoints of all the major topics establishing her reputation With questions directed to the philosopher while they are alive the volumes in The Library of Living Philosophers have come to occupy a uniquely significant place in the realm of philosophy The inclusion of Julia Kristeva constitutes a vital addition to an already robust list of thinkers The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva exemplifies world class intellectual work closely connected to the public sphere Kristeva has been said to have inherited the intellectual throne left vacant by Simone de Beauvoir and has won many awards including the Hannah Arendt Prize for Political Thought Julia Kristeva s autobiography provides an excellent introduction to her work situating it in relation to major political intellectual and cultural movements of the time Her upbringing in Soviet dominated Bulgaria her move to the French intellectual landscape of the 1960s her visit to Mao s China her response to the fall of the Berlin Wall her participation in a papal summit on humanism her appointment by President Chirac as President of the National Council on Disability and her setting up of the Simone de Beauvoir prize honoring women in active and creative fields are all major moments of this fascinating life The major part of the book is comprised of thirty six essays by Kristeva s foremost interpreters and critics together with her replies to the essays These encounters cover an exceptionally wide range of theoretical and literary writing The strong international and multidisciplinary focus includes authors from over ten countries and spans the fields of philosophy semiotics literature psychoanalysis feminist thought political theory art and religion The comprehensive bibliography provides further access to Kristeva s writings and thought The preparation of this volume the thirty sixth in the series was supported by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Creating Boundaries Kathryn A. Manzo, 1996 This work analyses common conceptions about the relationship or lack of one between race and nationalism Case studies of Australia Britain and

South Africa are provided The author has also written Domination Resistance and Social Change in South Africa The Local Effects of Global Power The Nation Without Art Margaret Rose Olin, 2001-01-01 Case studies explore the Bezalel School of Arts and Crafts in Jerusalem whose efforts to use art to create a Jewish nationality in Palestine raise important issues of national identity and the discovery in 1932 of the third century Synagogue of Dura Europos a symbol for scholars struggling against the Third Reich Among those who supported or challenged concepts of Jewish art Margaret Olin considers the nineteenth century rabbinical scholar David Kaufmann the philosopher Martin Buber the critic Clement Greenberg and the filmmaker Chantal Akerman

Moral Spaces David Campbell, Michael J. Shapiro, 1999 Head Cases Elaine Miller, 2014-02-25 While philosophy and psychoanalysis privilege language and conceptual distinctions and mistrust the image the philosopher and psychoanalyst Julia Kristeva recognizes the power of art and the imagination to unblock important sources of meaning She also appreciates the process through which creative acts counteract and transform feelings of violence and depression Reviewing Kristeva's corpus Elaine P Miller considers the intellectual's aesthetic idea and thought specular in their capacity to reshape depressive thought on both the individual and cultural level She revisits Kristeva's reading of Walter Benjamin with reference to melancholic art and the imagination's allegorical structure her analysis of Byzantine iconoclasm in relation to Freud's psychoanalytic theory of negation and Hegel's dialectical negativity her understanding of Proust as an exemplary practitioner of sublimation her rereading of Kant and Arendt in terms of art as an intentional lingering with foreignness and her argument that forgiveness is both a philosophical and psychoanalytic method of transcending a stuck existence Focusing on specific artworks that illustrate Kristeva's ideas from ancient Greek tragedy to early photography contemporary installation art and film Miller positions creative acts as a form of spiritual inoculation against the violence of our society and its discouragement of thought and reflection

Nation Building in Comparative Contexts William Foltz, 2017-07-12 What is and what makes a nation What forces work for and against the emergence of new nations What does the emergence of a nation mean to its people and what does it mean to international stability Nation Building in Comparative Contexts answers these questions Nine leading area specialists compare and analyze the long history of nationalism in Europe with its shorter histories in the Americas Asia and Africa The result is an outstanding contribution to understanding the problems confronting today's emerging nations one that remains of importance to the field The essays in this book provide the tools for comparison and analysis across continents and centuries The chapters dealing with Europe where the political and historical evidence is richest stress the broadest outlines of the nation making process The chapter on Asia concentrates on revolutionary war the two chapters on Africa where the creation or failure of nation states is a matter of the political situation of the moment raise the largest number of concrete problems Investigators have discovered that the making and breaking of nations is a process that must be studied in its general and uniform aspects especially if the unique features of each country and epoch are to be understood better The essays in this book are first steps in the comparison and analysis across the continents and centuries To some degree each combines concerns of the historian social scientist and of policy maker and statesman

Multinational Federalism Alain-G Gagnon,2015-12-17 A collection of state of the art reflections by fourteen leading experts in the field of multinational federalism Seymour and Gagnon have gathered contributions from philosophers political scientists and jurists dealing with the accommodation of peoples in countries like Belgium Canada Europe Great Britain India and Spain

Masses, Classes, Ideas Etienne Balibar,2013-10-15 In Masses Classes Ideas well known French philosopher Etienne Balibar explores the relationship between abstract philosophy and concrete politics The book gathers together for the first time in English nine of Balibar s most influential essays written over the last decade which have been carefully revised and reordered in logical succession with an original preface Balibar discusses the influence of political philosophy on collective movements touching on issues of religious and class struggle nationalism and racism the rights of man and the citizen and property as a social relation He seeks to explain the novelty of Marxist philosophy and political theory with respect to the classical doctrines of state and revolution Masses Classes Ideas also examines the limitations and aporias which have become manifest in Marxist philosophy and critically assesses its legacy offering a provocative contribution to the project of renewing democratic theory

Scaling the Balkans Maria N. Todorova,2018-09-11 Scaling the Balkans puts in conversation several fields that have been traditionally treated as discrete Balkan studies Ottoman studies East European studies and Habsburg and Russian studies By looking at the complex interrelationship between countries and regions demonstrating how different perspectives and different methodological approaches inflect interpretations and conclusions it insists on the heuristic value of scales The volume is a collection of published and unpublished essays dealing with issues of modernism backwardness historical legacy balkanism post colonialism and orientalism nationalism identity and alterity society and nation building historical demography and social structure socialism and communism in memory and historiography

Cultural Grammars of Nation, Diaspora, and Indigeneity in Canada Christine Kim,Sophie McCall,Melina Baum Singer,2012-05-09 Cultural Grammars of Nation Diaspora and Indigeneity in Canada considers how the terms of critical debate in literary and cultural studies in Canada have shifted with respect to race nation and difference In asking how Indigenous and diasporic interventions have remapped these debates the contributors argue that a new cultural grammar is at work and attempt to sketch out some of the ways it operates The essays reference pivotal moments in Canadian literary and cultural history and speak to ongoing debates about Canadian nationalism postcolonialism migrancy and transnationalism Topics covered include the Asian race riots in Vancouver in 1907 the cultural memory of internment and dispersal of Japanese Canadians in the 1940s the politics of migrant labour and the domestic labour scheme in the 1960s and the trial of Robert Pickton in Vancouver in 2007 The contributors are particularly interested in how diaspora and indigeneity continue to contribute to this critical reconfiguration and in how conversations about diaspora and indigeneity in the Canadian context have themselves been transformed Cultural

Grammars is an attempt to address both the interconnections and the schisms between these multiply fractured critical terms as well as the larger conceptual shifts that have occurred in response to national and postnational arguments
