Nato And Caspian Security A Mission Too Far Mr1074:

The Security of the Caspian Sea Region Gennadii Illarionovich Chufrin, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2001 Over the past decade the Caspian Sea region has risen from relative obscurity to considerable prominence in global affairs Located at the crossroads of traditional trade routes between Europe and Asia and possessing vast natural resources oil and natural gas among them it attracts widespread international interest The emergence of new sovereign states in the region has fundamentally transformed its political landscape The future of the Caspian region is far from certain however as it is challenged by a wide variety of political socio economic and military threats which include the declining living standards of vast segments of local populations inter ethnic and inter confessional tensions and conflicts militant separatism international terrorism and illegal trade in arms and drugs The security of the region is also affected by the intensifying strategic competition among major outside powers over establishing their political and economic influence in regional affairs The book offers a competent analysis of the major political economic and security developments in the region by a diverse group of highly qualified experts from the Caspian littoral states the USA and the European Union NATO's Eastern Agenda in a New Strategic Era F. Stephen Larrabee, 2004-01-05 NATO's Eastern agenda faces several challenges including consolidating the democratic transitions in Central and Eastern Europe ensuring the security of the Baltic states developing a post NATO enlargement strategy for Ukraine deepening the Russia NATO partnership and engaging the Caucasus and Central Asia The author also considers NATO's broader transformation The Stryker Brigade Combat Team Alan J. Vick, David T. Orletsky, Bruce R. Pirnie, Seth G. Jones, 2002-12-24 Examines alternative means to decrease the deployment time for the new Army medium weight brigade comparing air and sealift from the United States with air and fast but short range sealift from forward bases or preposition sites Historical experience and an assessment of U S regional interests are used to determine how much warning time the United States typically has before major force deployments and where it is most likely to deploy such forces Central Asia: Views from Washington, Moscow, and Beijing Eugene B. Rumer, Dmitri Trenin, Huasheng Zhao, 2016-09-16 The disintegration of the Soviet Union in 1991 rapidly and irrevocably transformed Central Asia's political landscape This region of five sovereign states with a population of some fifty million people quickly became a major focus of interest and influence for competing poles of power The eminent contributors to this volume offer a four part analysis of the region's new importance in world affairs Rajan Menon examines the place of Central Asia in a global perspective Eugene Rumer considers the perspective of the post 9 11 United States Dimitri Trenin looks at the region from the standpoint of traditional hegemon Russia Huasheng Zhao provides the view from economic superpower in the making China Russia's Security and the War on Terror Mikhail Tsypkin, 2007-09-26 This book discusses and provides examples of Russia's need to reshape its security and military policies in order to meet the global challenges of fighting terrorism and counterinsurgency It addresses some of the problems facing Russia's national security and military power including military reform US Russian relations the political economy of Russian security policy Russian policy regarding the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction the chances for US Russian cooperation in ballistic missile defence Russia's Security and the War on Terror provides a insight into Russian military policies and its changing relationship with NATO throughout the 1990s This book was previously published as a special issue of The Journal of Slavic Military Studies

The Future Security Environment in the Middle East Nora Bensahel, Daniel Byman, 2004-03-12 This report identifies several important trends that are shaping regional security It examines traditional security concerns such as energy security and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction as well as newer challenges posed by political reform economic reform civil military relations leadership change and the information revolution The report concludes by identifying the implications of these trends for U S foreign policy
