New Creation In Paul's Letters And Thought Society For New Testament Studies Monograph Series:

New Creation in Paul's Letters and Thought Moyer V. Hubbard, 2002-07-11 As a biblical motif new creation resonates throughout the pages of the Jewish and Christian scriptures and occupies a central place in the apostle Paul's vision of the Christian life. Yet the biblical and extra-biblical occurrences of this theme vary widely in meaning referring to either a new cosmos, a new community, or a new individual. Beginning with the Old Testament and working through the important texts of Second Temple Judaism, Moyer V. Hubbard focuses on how the motif functions in the argument strategy and literary structure of these documents, highlighting its role as the solution to the perceived plight. He then explores in detail which senses of the term Paul intends in Galatians 6:15 and 2 Corinthians 5:17, concluding that new creation in Paul's letters describes the Spirit-wrought newness of the person in Christ and is fundamentally anthropological in orientation. New Creation in Paul's Letters

T. Ryan Jackson, 2016-08-19 T. Ryan Jackson explores the Apostle Paul's conception of new creation. He proposes that Paul's concept of new creation is an expression of his eschatologically infused soteriology, which involves the individual, the community, and the cosmos, and which is inaugurated in the death and resurrection of Christ. The New Creation and the Storyline of Scripture Frank Thielman, 2020-12-09 A Biblical Theology of the New Creation from Genesis to Revelation. Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. Revelation 21:3. The Bible begins with the story of one perfectly good God creating a perfectly good universe, forming two perfectly good human beings in his own image. Adam and Eve was the crown jewel of his creative expression. Through humanity's sin, however, God's creation fell into a fallen state, yet he promised to bring restoration. In this book, Frank Thielman traces the theme of the new creation through the Bible, beginning in Genesis and ending in Revelation. He shows us that at every turn, God invites his people to be a kingdom of priests. Exodus 19:6 exemplifies the new creation to a needy and watching world until the return of Jesus. Crucifixion and New Creation

Jeff Hubing, 2015-04-23 This book provides an interpretation of Galatians 6:11-17, which yields significant insights about Paul's perception of the crisis in Galatia and the solution he presents to his readers in light of it. In the first section of the book, the epistolary form and function of Galatians 6:11-17 are analysed. Revealed as a body closing, it works to sharpen and complete Paul's message by spelling out his motivation for writing and establishing the basis for further communication with his readers. The theme of persecution in the letter is then seen, rendered both explicitly and implicitly through the examination of pertinent passages. These indicate that all parties involved share some connection to persecution. Finally, an exegetical analysis of Galatians 6:11-17 reveals Paul's claim that the agitators' primary motive is to avoid persecution because of the cross of Christ. He contrasts them with himself by boasting in that same cross. The net effect is that Paul draws on both the redemptive moment of Jesus' death and the ongoing cross-shaped life he lives to validate his apostleship. Studies in the New Perspective on Paul

Don Garlington, 2008-06-15 This collection of essays follows upon its predecessor originally entitled In Defense of the New

Perspective on Paul Essays and Reviews Wipf and Stock 2005 This second edition differs from the first in that five new chapters have been added and one review article has been deleted The change of the main title to Studies in the New Perspective on Paul is due to the conviction that the New Perspective on Paul actually represents a return to the original context in which Paul proclaimed the gospel of Christ Therefore it is not something to be defended but propounded in the most positive terms possible

As it Was in the Beginning Mark D Owens, 2016-05-26 The meaning of Paul's comments about the new creation in 2 Corinthians 5:17 and Galatians 6:15 has long been obscured Debate has raged for years with some arguing that the phrase new creation solely refers to the inward transformation believers have experienced through faith in Jesus Christ and others that this phrase should be understood cosmologically and linked with Isaiah's new heavens and new earth Still more advocate an ecclesiological interpretation of this phrase that centres Paul in the new community formed around Jesus Christ In As It Was in the Beginning Mark Owens argues that the concept of new creation should be understood within the realm of Paul's anthropology cosmology and ecclesiology Paul's understanding of new creation belongs within an Urzeit Endzeit typological framework especially within 2 Corinthians 5:6 and Ephesians 1:2 Owens's reading of new creation gives due weight to the use of Isaianic traditions in Paul's letters and to demonstrate that the vision of new creation in 2 Corinthians and Galatians is in striking harmony with that of Ephesians

The New Heaven and New Earth Raymond R. Hausoul, 2020-04-09 There is a growing focus on the Christian confession of God's completed kingdom the new heaven and the new earth This theme has time and again seduced people into elaborate fantasies that stimulated the senses How can we talk about it meaningfully Raymond R Hausoul relates systematic theology to biblical theology by comparing three theologians the Catholic theologian Karl Rahner the Protestant Jürgen Moltmann and the Reformed Gregory Beale This leads to reflections on differences between matter space and time of the new heaven and new earth and those of our present reality The hope for renewal and resurrection is thus linked to the prophecies of the new Jerusalem the tree of life and the resurrection body The Way of Salvation Paul A.

Rainbow,2012-12-01 Martin Luther invented the Reformation slogan sola fide by faith alone which Philipp Melanchthon and John Calvin brandished and defended Most Protestants since their time have swallowed it whole But is evangelical obedience the good works that follow faith and are produced by grace excluded from the basis for justification or otherwise Asserting that there is no more serious question bearing upon the destiny of human beings than how sinners can be justified before a Holy God Paul Rainbow examines current and traditional treatments of faith works and justification marshals a biblical case majoring on the New Testament teaching of Paul and James and offers a series of systematic historical and pastoral reflections Beyond Canon Meron Gebreananaye,Francis Watson,Logan Williams,2020-12-24 This book highlights the significance of a group of five texts excluded from the standard Christian Bible and preserved only in Ge'ez the classical language of Ethiopia These texts are crucial for modern scholars due to their significance for a wide range of early readers as extant fragments of other early translations confirm in most cases Yet they are also noted for their eventual marginalization and abandonment as a more restrictive understanding of the biblical canon prevailed everywhere except in Ethiopia with its distinctive Christian tradition in which the concept of a closed canon is alien In focusing upon 1 Enoch Jubilees the Ascension of Isaiah the Epistula Apostolorum and the Apocalypse of Peter the contributors to this volume group them together as representatives of a time in early Christian history when sacred texts were not limited by a sharply defined canonical boundary In doing so this book also highlights the unique and under appreciated contribution of the Ethiopic Christian Tradition to the study of early Christianity Galatians (Paideia: Commentaries on the New Testament) Peter

Oakes,2015-04-14 In this volume respected New Testament scholar Peter Oakes offers a translation and reading of Galatians as presenting a gospel of unity in diversity in Christ He shows that Paul treats the Galatians possible abandonment of his gospel as putting at stake their fidelity to Christ As with other volumes in the Paideia series this volume is conversant with contemporary scholarship draws on ancient backgrounds and attends to the theological nature of the text Students pastors and other readers will appreciate the historical literary and theological insight offered in this practical commentary In Defense of the New Perspective on Paul Don Garlington,2005-01-25 The following book is comprised of a series of essays and reviews that have been produced over the past several years all related in one way or the other to the New Perspective on Paul NPP This defense of the NPP takes the form of a combination of exegesis and extended book reviews In endeavoring to defend the NPP the eight chapters of this book contain a common thread namely that the movement generically bearing this moniker is not inimical to most historical traditional systems of soteriology Yet because of the rather volatile reaction of many the volume seeks to redress the balance in favor of a more tempered approach to a highly controversial topic Cosmology and Self in the Apostle Paul Troels Engberg-Pedersen, 2010-03-18 This book presents an innovative challenge to the traditional reading of Paul Troels Engberg Pedersen argues that the usual mainly cognitive and metaphorical ways of understanding central Pauline concepts must be supplemented by a literal understanding that directly reflects Paul's materialist cosmology The Figure of Adam in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 Filipe d Jesus

Legarreta-Castillo, 2014-02-01 Felipe Legarreta gives careful attention to patterns of exegesis in Second Temple Judaism and identifies for the first time a number of motifs by which Jews drew ethical implications from the story of Adam and his expulsion from Eden He then demonstrates that throughout the Christological passages in Romans and 1 Corinthians Paul is taking part in a wider Jewish exegetical and ethical discussion regarding life in the new creation Images of Salvation in the New Testament Brenda B. Colijn, 2010-10-05 The New Testament does not develop a systematic doctrine of salvation writes Brenda Colijn Instead it presents us with a variety of pictures taken from different perspectives Students of the New Testament and of theology will both find their vision broadened and their understanding deepened by this rich informative study As the author seeks to understand their implications for people of faith she uncovers how New Testament images provide the building blocks of the master story of redemption

Second Corinthians (Paideia: Commentaries on the New Testament) Raymond F. Collins, 2013-06-15 In this addition to the well received Paideia series a respected senior New Testament scholar examines cultural context and theological meaning in Second Corinthians Paideia commentaries explore how New Testament texts form Christian readers by attending to the ancient narrative and rhetorical strategies the text employs showing how the text shapes theological convictions and moral habits commenting on the final canonical form of each New Testament book focusing on the cultural literary and theological settings of the text making judicious use of maps photos and sidebars in a reader friendly format Students pastors and other readers will appreciate the historical literary and theological insight offered in this practical commentary Union with Christ in the New Testament Grant

Macaskill, 2013-11 In conversation with historical and systematic theology Macaskill argues that the union between God and his people is consistently represented by the New Testament authors as covenantal with the participation of believers in the life of God specifically mediated by Jesus the covenant Messiah Being 'in Christ' in the Letters of Paul Teresa Morgan, 2020-11-05 In this study Teresa Morgan offers a radically new interpretation of in Christ and related expressions in the undisputed letters of Paul Starting from a reassessment of Deissmann's Die neutestamentliche Formel in Christo Jesu she argues that Deissmann's philology is flawed the Schweitzerian concept of participation in Christ which is indebted to it is problematic and many contemporary accounts of participation are better understood in other terms Through close readings of each letter Teresa Morgan shows how Paul uses en Christo language instrumentally to speak of what God has done through Christ by Christ's death and encheiristically to speak of the life the faithful now live in Christ's hands in Christ's power under his authority under his protection and in his care This creative use of en Christo language forms part of and connects Paul's soteriology eschatology and Christology shaping his narrative of God's intervention in the world the relationship between God Christ and the faithful the lordship and work of Christ between the resurrection and the parousia and God's ultimate triumph This narrative is closely connected with Paul's ecclesiology and ethics where life in Christ's hands is envisaged as the this worldly dimension of the new creation an aspect of eternal life already active in the present time In Christ's hands the faithful not least Paul himself live a new life in communities with a distinctive structure and dynamic In Christ's hands they hope to remain in right standing with God and serve God until Christ's return

The Fourfold Gospel, Volume 2 John DelHousaye, 2021-10-08 In the spirit of Ludolph of Saxony c 1295-1378 and Ignatius of Loyola 1491-1556 The Fourfold Gospel invites the reader into the mystery of God's redemption in Jesus Christ All the parallel passages in the Gospels are glossed together along with the unique material using a medieval interpretive approach called the Quadriga or the acronym PaRDeS in Hebrew Meditating on the literal canonical moral and theological senses of Scripture offers a scaffolding for the spiritual formation of the reader This volume focuses on the summoning and purgative stage of discipleship the Sermon on the Mount as well as participating in Christ's healing of creation
