Studebaker,2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western

The Meaning of Icons Léonide Ouspensky, Vladimir Lossky, 1982 The nature of the icon cannot be grasped by means of pure art criticism nor by the adoption of a sentimental point of view Its forms are based on the wisdom contained in the theological and liturgical writings of the Eastern Orthodox Church and are intimately bound up with the experience of the contemplative life The present work is the first of its kind to give a reliable introduction to the spiritual background of this art The introduction into the meaning and language of the icons by Ouspensky imparts to us in an admirable way the spiritual conceptions of the Eastern Orthodox Church which are often so foreign to us but without the knowledge of which we cannot possibly understand the world of the icon Back cover

The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world The various chapters reflect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ However the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion National Message and Banner, 1924

Nature Praising God Dermot Lane, 2023-03-16 During the lockdown caused by the Covid 19 crisis streets were emptied churches closed and a relationship with nature developed in which questions to be asked again in light of the crisis arose Is God present in nature Is communion with God in nature possible Is there a relationship between the God of creation the God of history and the God we worship in Sunday liturgies In Nature Praising God Dermot Lane explores these questions by returning to the Bible The Christian tradition shows that nature is understood as a living community is graced by God and has a sacramental character He suggests that readers change their perception of how nature is traditionally regarded as a resource for human needs and embrace a new way of praising God through an appreciation of and care for the myriad life forms on earth The result of these explorations is the outline of a new theology of nature praising God with lessons for the way we worship God in our churches today The Power of the Church John Williamson Nevin, Philip Schaff, John Williams Proudfit, 2020-07-29 This volume is a collection of essays on the early creeds by John Nevin and Philip Schaff the two principal representatives of the Mercersburg Theology that was birthed in nineteenth century Pennsylvania It also contains a critical response by John Proudfit a more traditionally scholastic Calvinist In these essays Nevin and Schaff argued that the early creeds provide an indispensable lens through which the Bible should be interpreted and an essential bond to preserve the unity of the church through the centuries According to these Mercersburg theologians the liturgical and confessional use of the early creeds is crucial for shaping the identity of Christians and mediating the life of Christ to believers Nevin and Schaff's enthusiasm for the creeds was a function of their understanding of Christianity as an evolving tradition the Christian life as growth in Christ likeness the church as the nurturing body of Christ and the sacraments as conduits of Christ's vivifying personhood These convictions stood in sharp contrast to the a credal sensibilities of most nineteenth century American Protestants who emphasized the sufficiency of Scripture alone the church as a gathered community of like minded individuals dramatic conversion experiences and the direct presence of Christ to the individual soul Distinctively Catholic Daniel Donovan, 1997 Drinking from the Sources: How Scripture and Liturgy Shape Our Christian Life Sofia Cavalletti, Patricia Coulter, 2015 This resource translates several of Cavalletti's meditations on Scripture and liturgy highlighting those that focus on Baptism and the Eucharist
