New Horizons in English 4 , Black Teachers of English(es) in Japan Gregory Paul Glasgow,2024-12-10 This book examines the pedagogical and professional experiences of a transnational group of teachers from the African continent and diaspora who made the decision to live and teach English in Japan Through a layered analytical framework it explores how these teachers struggle to negotiate their raciolinguistic identities in contexts that may prove to be professionally supportive in some cases but marginalizing in others The author contends that although multiculturalism and diversity within ELT in Japan may currently seem to be more prevalent the agency that Black teachers exercise in promoting their own cultures and language varieties may be constrained depending on the characteristics of the institutions in which they teach The issues raised in this volume will be relevant to educators administrators curriculum and materials developers and researchers committed to promoting equity racial harmony and intercultural understanding in language education Global Englishes in Asian Contexts K. How Then Shall We Guide? Jimmy Boon-Chai Tan, 2023-05-25 There has been a marked increase of interest in the art of spiritual direction in recent decades Yet in many circles especially in ecumenical and interfaith contexts it is unclear what grounds the practice of this ancient art As a tradition's practice of spiritual direction expresses its particular theology which in turn is shaped by its unique history this work explains that ecumenical spiritual direction must make and retain the tri perspective of history theology and method that faithfully reflects each tradition's distinctives as requisite for true ecumenical enrichment The importance of this trinocular vision is brought into sharp focus through a comparative study of Ignatius of Loyola and John Calvin where points of continuity and discontinuity between the Ignatian and Reformed traditions underscore the importance of this work's thesis

EIL Education for the Expanding Circle Nobuyuki Hino, 2018-03-14 The teaching of English in the Expanding Circle traditionally called EFL countries has long been regarded as having no choice but to follow Inner Circle or Anglo American norms both in pedagogy and language models This situation is in sharp contrast with that of the Outer Circle or ESL countries where the WE World Englishes paradigm coupled with post colonialism has liberated the users of indigenous Englishes from the norms of Anglophone native speakers Employing Japan as a primary sample this book proposes a new paradigm of EIL English as an International Language education by integrating relevant paradigms such as WE and ELF English as a Lingua Franca which enables users of English from the Expanding Circle to represent their own voices in international communication Various examples of actual classroom practice in EIL are also presented bridging the longstanding gap between theory and practice in this field
