Fascist Modernism in Italy Francesca Billiani, 2021-08-26 Between 1917 to 1975 Germany Italy Portugal the Soviet Union and Spain shifted from liberal parliamentary democracies to authoritarian and totalitarian dictatorships seeking total control mass consensus and the constitution of a new man woman as the foundation of a modern collective social identity As they did so these regimes uniformly adopted what we would call a modernist aesthetic huge scale experiments in modernism were funded and supported by fascist and totalitarian dictators Famous examples include Mussolini s New Rome at EUR or the Stalinist apartment blocks built in urban Russia Focusing largely on Mussolini s Italy Francesca Billiani argues that modernity was intertwined irrecoverably with fascism that too often modernist buildings art and writings are seen as a purely cultural output when in fact the principles of modernist aesthetics constitute and are constituted by the principles of fascism The obsession with the creation of the new man in art and in reality shows this synergy at work This book is a key contribution to the field of twentieth century history particularly in the study of fascism while also appealing to students of art history and philosophy
