No formal hypothesis;
study explores marijuana risk perceptions

This study's purpose was to "improve the understanding of which adolescents were most likely to perceive marijuana use as not harmful" (309). In order to do this, the author administered the Utah Student Health and Risk Prevention Survey in 2009, 2011, and 2013. Participants were students in grades 6,8, 10 and 12 within three large school districts. The questionnaire gathered demographic information, as well as students' perception of marijuana use risk. Several thousand student responses were utilized. Survey data showed that several factors decreased the perception of marijuana as being risky: poorer academic performance, having a parent with no college education, the presence of a step-parent, Hispanic ethnicity, and having friends who did not believe it was risky. Overall, data showed that associations between perceived risks and marijuana use are rather complex.

Dorwart, 1992 New settlements appeared in the pine wilderness of the mainland and on the uninhabited Atlantic Ocean barrier islands These changes caused social and political conflicts and new development assaulted the fragile seashore environment Fishing and shipbuilding were key industries throughout the early history of Cape May County In addition familiar industries such as cranberry harvesting and nearly forgotten endeavors such as goldbeating sugar refining and cedar shingle mining played vital roles in the county s economic development Dorwart also traces the origins of the seashore resort industry through the history of the city of Cape May with its unique architectural styles and heritage as well as the founding of Wildwood Ocean City and the newer resort towns New Jersey History , 1973 William Franklin Sheila L. Skemp, 1990-08-09 When Benjamin Franklin flew his kite in a thunderstorm in his famous experiment his illegitimate son William was his only companion Together they traveled through the western wilds of Pennsylvania during the French and Indian War fought in the colony s fractious political battles Ben helped his son attain the post of Royal Governor of New Jersey and William s government hired Ben to represent the colony in London But when war came father and son were split one acclaimed as a patriot hero the other a loyalist condemned by his countrymen In William Franklin Sheila Skemp tells the story of this fascinating and complex man a man with a foot in both worlds he loved both King and country and saw the interests of both as inextricably intertwined She follows William s early years as a militia officer in the wars with the French his life as a law student in England and his long tenure as Royal Governor of New Jersey Skemp highlights the close personal and political relationship between father and son depicting such ironic episodes as William s defense of his father against charges that Ben was the author of the infamous Stamp Act But as the years passed Ben in London grew increasingly bitter toward the Crown while William in America remained devoted to the King By the time war came their loyalties were divided their relationship destroyed Skemp traces William s career through the tumult of revolution and exile Refusing to follow his fellow royal governors into asylum he was arrested by the patriots and jailed his wife soon died and his property was confiscated Upon release William became president of the Board of Associated Loyalists in New York where neglected by the British and despised by the revolutionaries he authorized one of the most notorious atrocities of the war the hanging of Joshua Huddy At war s end Franklin fled into exile in England hated by his countrymen and disowned by the father he still venerated and even loved Sweeping and authoritative William Franklin captures some of the great issues and personalities of the Revolutionary era and the bitterness of a family split between father and son patriot and loyalist Special Area Management Plan, Hackensack Meadowlands District , 1995 Draft Environmental Impact Statement on the Special Area Management Plan for
