New Killing Fields Massacre And The Politics Of Intervention:

The New Killing Fields, 2002 An examination of what the United States and its allies did and did not do in response to genocides in Yugoslavia Rwanda and East Timor      The New Killing Fields Nicolaus Mills, Kira Brunner, 2002-09-18 An examination of what the United States and its allies did and did not do in response to genocides in Yugoslavia Rwanda and East Timor      The UN Security Council David Malone, 2004 The nature and scope of UN Security Council decisions significantly changed in the post Cold War era have enormous implications for the conduct of foreign policy The UN Security Council offers a comprehensive view of the council both internally and as a key player in world politics Focusing on the evolution of the council's treatment of key issues the authors discuss new concerns that must be accommodated in the decisionmaking process the challenges of enforcement and shifting personal and institutional factors Case studies complement the rich thematic chapters The book sheds much needed light on the central events and trends of the past decade and their critical importance for the future role of the council and the UN in the sphere of international security

The Regime Change Consensus Joseph Stieb, 2021-07-08 Why did the United States invade Iraq setting off a chain of events that profoundly changed the Middle East and the US global position The Regime Change Consensus offers a compelling look at how the United States pivoted from a policy of containment to regime change in Iraq after September 11 2001 Starting with the Persian Gulf War the book traces how a coalition of political actors argued with increasing success that the totalitarian nature of Saddam Hussein's regime and the untrustworthy behavior of the international coalition behind sanctions meant that containment was a doomed policy By the end of the 1990s a consensus belief emerged that only regime change and democratization could fully address the Iraqi threat Through careful examination Joseph Stieb expands our understanding of the origins of the Iraq War while also explaining why so many politicians and policymakers rejected containment after 9 11 and embraced regime change      Reporting Genocide David Patrick, 2017-12-13 The Western world's responses to genocide have been slow unwieldy and sometimes unfit for purpose So argues David Patrick in this essential new contribution to the aid and intervention debate While the UK and US have historically been committed to the ideals of human rights freedom and equality their actual material reactions are more usually dictated by geopolitical noise pre conceived ideas of worth and the media attention spans of individual elected leaders Utilizing a wide ranging quantitative analysis of media reporting across the globe Patrick argues that an over reliance on the Holocaust as the framing device we use to try and come to terms with such horrors can lead to slow responses misinterpretation and category errors in both Rwanda and Bosnia much energy was expended trying to ascertain whether these regions qualified for genocide status The Reporting of Genocide demonstrates how such tragedies are reduced to stereotypes in the media framed in terms of innocent victims and brutal oppressors which can over simplify the situation on the ground This in turn can lead to mixed and inadequate responses from governments Reporting on Genocide also seeks to address how responses to genocides across the globe can be improved and will be essential reading for policy makers and for scholars of genocide and the media

Historical Dictionary of Human Rights Jacques Fomerand, 2014-02-18 This dictionary has more than 1000 cross referenced entries on terminology conventions treaties intergovernmental organizations in the United Nations family or regional bodies and the constantly expanding universe of non governmental organizations as well as some of the pioneers and defenders of human rights

Making Human Matthew S. Weinert, 2015-02-20

Differences between human beings have long been used to justify a range of degrading exclusionary and murderous practices that strip people of their humanity and dignity While considerable scholarship has been devoted to such dehumanization Matthew S Weinert asks how we might conceive its reverse humanization or what it means to make human Weinert proposes an account of making human centered on five mechanisms reflection recognition resistance replication of dominant mores and responsibility Examining cases such as the UN Security Council's engagements with crises and the International Court of Justice's grappling with Kosovo's unilateral declaration of independence he illustrates the distinct and contingent ways these mechanisms have been deployed Theoretically the cases evince a complex evolving relationship between state centric and human centric views of society ultimately revealing the normative potentialities of both Though the case studies concern specific human relations issues on an international level Weinert argues in favor of starting from the shared problem of being human and of living in a world in which the humanity of countless groups has been demeaned or denied Working outward from that point he proposes we obtain a more pragmatically grounded understanding of the social construction of the human being

Failed and Failing States Raj Bardouille, Margaret Grieco, 2010-01-08 State collapse is one of the major threats to peace stability and economic development in sub Saharan Africa today In a collapsed state the regime finally wears out its ability to satisfy the demands of the various groups in society it fails to govern or to keep the state together The collapse is marked by the loss of control over political and economic space A collapsed state can no longer perform its basic security and development functions and has no effective control over its territory and borders Efforts to avoid drawing other nations into a wider conflict created by the collapse of a state and creating favorable conditions for reconciliation and reconstruction of a failed state after it has collapsed present major challenges In April 2008 the Cornell Institute for African Development called a symposium on Failed and Failing States in Africa Lessons from Darfur and Beyond to address these critical issues Key contributions to the symposium are brought together in this volume Taken together these essays represent a significant discussion on the challenges presented by the presence of failing states within Africa

Teaching about Genocide Samuel Totten, 2006-07-01

Civilian Protection in Armed Conflicts Robert Schütte, 2014-10-29 The study analyzes three themes first the evolution of the concept of civilians in the course of human history and secondly the situation and victimization of civilians in armed conflict since 1990 and third how the international community since the end of the Cold War to protect civilians has monitored by the mandating robust UN peacekeeping missions The United Nations Mission in the Congo functions as a case study

Genocide: A Thematic Approach Thomas Earl Porter, John Cox, 2025-04-08 The purpose of this volume is not simply to compile yet another wearying chronicle of the horrors that have been committed by our fellow human beings Most students who register for a course on Genocide assume that it will focus perhaps exclusively on the Holocaust the case with which they are most familiar Many of them have read Elie Wiesel s eloquent masterpiece Night in secondary school and some may have read The Diary of Anne Frank A few students might even know that a genocide occurred in Rwanda or Darfur Like most people however they equate genocide simply with mass killing and assume that genocide must by definition entail millions of deaths Raphael Lemkin who coined the word genocide meaning literally to kill a people originally defined it a colonial crime of destroying the national patterns of the oppressed and imposing the national patterns of the oppressors This was a process Lemkin said deliberately intending to destroy a people s culture that could sometimes but not necessarily always result in mass murder Students need to know that after World War II the great powers undermined and co opted the process of writing the 1948 Genocide Convention at the UN because these nations did not want their own colonial crimes oppression of minorities and destructions of cultures to be included in the definition Instead they simply used the Holocaust as a template and succeeded in distorting what Lemkin originally meant by genocide the murder of a people by destroying their social and cultural connections

Understanding Ethnic Conflict Raymond

Taras,2015-08-07 Understanding Ethnic Conflict provides all the key concepts needed to understand conflict among ethnic groups Including approaches from both comparative politics and international relations this text offers a model of ethnic conflict s internationalization by showing how domestic and international actors influence a country s ethnic and sectarian divisions Illustrating this model in five original case studies the unique combination of theory and application in Understanding Ethnic Conflict facilitates more critical analysis of contemporary ethnic conflicts and the world s response to them

The Scourge of Genocide Adam Jones,2013-06-26 The Scourge of Genocide collects essays reviews and reportage on the subjects of genocide and crimes against humanity by Adam Jones recently selected as one of Fifty Key Thinkers on the Holocaust and Genocide The volume includes a number of previously unpublished essays and explores a range of debates and approaches in comparative genocide studies such as Genocide pedagogy and visual representation Gender and gendercide The role of media and communications in genocide The historiography of genocide studies Subaltern genocide or genocides by the oppressed Strategies of genocide prevention and intervention Covering a broad spectrum of theoretical perspectives as well as case studies from the former Yugoslavia Rwanda Guatemala Afghanistan Iraq and Israel Palestine this book is essential reading for all scholars and students of genocide studies political violence and international relations

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten,2008 Over the last twenty years the world has witnessed four major genocides There was the genocide in Iraq 1988 in Rwanda 1994 in Srebrenica 1995 and in Darfur 2003 and continuing Most observers agree there is an urgent need to assess the international community s efforts to prevent genocide and to intervene once a genocide is under way in an effective and timely manner This volume the latest in a widely respected series on the subject of genocide provides an overview of a host of issues germane to this task The book begins with a cogent discussion of the issues of prevention and intervention during the Cold War years The second chapter discusses the abject failures and moderate though in some cases highly controversial successes at prevention and intervention carried out in the 1990s and early 2000s Further chapters examine latest efforts to develop an effective genocide early warning system and examine the complexity of and barriers to prevention The pros and cons of sanctions and the problems of enforcement and evaluation their effectiveness are then discussed Conflicts between state sovereignty and the protection of threatened populations are examined both in historical context and by incorporating the latest thinking Later chapters treat the issue of intervention why and how it has met with only limited success Concentrating on Rwanda and Srebrenica chapter 8 discusses various peace operations that were abject failures and those that were moderately successful The concept of an anti genocide regime is examined in terms of progress in developing such a regime as well as what the international community must do in order to implement it Chapters discuss key issues related to post genocidal periods those that need to be addressed in order to establish stability in a wounded land and populace as well as to prevent future genocides The final chapter asks whether bringing perpetrators to justice has any impact in breaking impunity ensuring deterrence and bringing about reconciliation

The contributors to the volume are all noted scholars some of whom specialize in the study of genocide and others who specialize in such areas as early warning peacekeeping and sanctions      Genocidal Crimes Alex Alvarez,2009-12-04

Genocidal Crimes draws upon the extensive criminological literature on criminality and violence to provide a comprehensive and contemporary analysis of genocide Written in an accessible style this book differs from much of the writing on genocide in that it explicitly relies on criminological theory and research to help provide new insight into the nature and functioning of genocide      Genocide at the Millennium Samuel Totten,2017-12-02

Genocide at the Millennium is the fifth volume in the acclaimed series Genocide A Critical Bibliographical Review This latest volume s focus is both the genocidal activity that has taken place over the past fourteen years including that in Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia as well as a critique of the international community s response to genocide and potential genocidal situations including those of the United Nations and nongovernmental organizations Genocide at the Millennium is divided into ten chapters The opening chapter treats the Yugoslav genocide discussing the causes of the conflict the violence that ensued the reaction of the international community and the ramifications that are still being felt in that part of the world today Chapter 2 provides a detailed and thought provoking examination of the causes results and ramifications of the 1994 Rwandan genocide Chapter 3 examines the conflict in Kosovo and the events surrounding the controversial intervention by NATO Chapter 4 discusses the remarkable efforts and successes that various non governmental agencies have had in addressing a wide variety of issues related to genocide Chapter 5 examines the United Nations efforts to address the issue of genocide at the turn of the century The role of individual states confronting issues and cases of genocide is analyzed in chapter 6 Chapter 7 gives a solid overview of the evolution of international law as it pertains to the crime of genocide and how and why major changes in such law have begun to take place in the 1990s and early 2000s The international criminal tribunals for Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia are considered in chapters 8 and 9 The concluding chapter provides an extremely detailed and highly informative overview of key aspects of the International Criminal Court In keeping with the multidisciplinary approach of previous volumes in the series each of the essays and accompanying annotated      Teaching Multiwriting Robert L. Davis,Mark F Shadle,2007-04-23

Formulaic ways to train students in composition and rhetoric are no longer effective say authors Robert L Davis and Mark F Shadle Scholar teachers must instead reinvent the field from the inside Teaching Multiwriting Researching and Composing with Multiple Genres Media Disciplines and Cultures presents just such a reinvention with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composition Seeking to open the minds of both writers and readers to new understandings the authors argue for the supplanting of the outdated research paper assignment with research projects that use multiple forms to explore questions that cannot be fully answered This innovative volume geared to composition teachers at all levels includes sixteen helpful illustrations and provides classroom exercises and projects for each chapter      Warning Signs of Genocide E.N. Anderson,Barbara A. Anderson,2013

Genocide occurs when a government attempts to exterminate systematically a large percentage of its own citizens or subjects simply because they fall into a particular group defined by religion ethnicity political affiliation or rarely other group identification ranging from occupation to gender status Genocide has been a major cause of death worldwide over the last 100 years or more and is far from being eliminated Through examining available cases Warning Signs of Genocide An Anthropological Perspective shows that genocide becomes a live danger when group hatreds especially religious ethnic and political are exploited by political regimes as major ways of seizing and maintaining power Genocide is actually invoked however only when such regimes feel they are threatened usually either because they are new and not consolidated in power or because they are challenged by local rebellions civil war or less often international war or major economic decline Knowing these warning signs should make the international community take note that genocide is virtually certain to occur and take action to stop it This book joins others in noting that the international community has rarely intervened in time and in the hope that these findings will encourage more prompt action

Global Terrorism James Lutz, Brenda Lutz, 2013-06-26 Global Terrorism 3rd edition continues to provide students with the most comprehensive introduction to terrorism as a global phenomenon It introduces students to history politics ideologies and strategies of both contemporary and older terrorist groups Written in a clear and accessible style each chapter explains a different aspect of terrorism and illustrates this with a wide variety of detailed case studies from across the world Although the focus is on the contemporary the book also includes discussion of older terrorist groups Building on the strengths of the previous editions this edition has been revised and updated throughout and includes new material on Strategies of terrorism The future of Al Qaeda after the death of Bin Laden Changes in the Middle East New case studies on Hizbollah Afghanistan Pakistan Aum Shinrikyo Japan Militia movement in the US The unique combination of a genuinely historical focus and truly global coverage makes this an ideal introductory textbook for anyone studying terrorism
