The Real Devil Duncan Heaster, 2009

The Ethical Challenge of Auschwitz and Hiroshima

Darrell J. Fasching, Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies Darrell J Fasching, 1993-01-01 This book addresses the problem of religion ethics and public policy in a global technological civilization It attempts to do what narrative ethicists have said cannot be done to construct a cross cultural ethic of human dignity human rights and human liberation which respects the diversity of narrative traditions It seeks to do this without succumbing to either ethical relativism or ethical absolutism The author confronts directly the dominant narrative of our technological civilization the Janus faced myths of Apocalypse or Utopia Through this myth we view technology ambivalently as both the object of our dread and the source of our hope The myth thus renders us ethically impotent the very strength of our literal utopian euphoria sends us careening toward some literal apocalyptic final solution The demonic narrative that dominated Auschwitz killing in order to heal is part of this Janus faced technological mythos that emerged out of Hiroshima And it is this mythic narrative which underlies and structures much of public policy in our nuclear age This book proposes a coalition of members of holy communities and secular groups organized to prevent any future eruptions of the demonic Its goal is to construct a bridge not only over the abyss between religions East and West but also between religious and secular ethics

Theology, Ethics, and Technology in the Work of Jacques Ellul and Paul Virilio Michael Morelli, 2021-06-17

Theology Ethics and Technology in the Work of Jacques Ellul and Paul Virilio examines biographical and textual connections between sociologist theologian Jacques Ellul and philosopher phenomenologist Paul Virilio Through an examination of their embeddedness in the socio historical context of postwar France Michael Morelli identifies a relationship between these critics of technology that bears the marks of a nascent theological tradition He shows from various vantage points how Ellul and Virilio s nascent tradition exposes technology as modernity s primary idol and how these thinkers use multiple disciplines including history sociology philosophy phenomenology theology and ethics to resist the perilous consequences of the modern world s worship of power and the kinds of technologies this misdirected worship produces Jacques Ellul s death in 1994 and Paul Virilio s death in 2018 may have prevented the maturation of this nascent theological tradition but this book will aid in this tradition s ripening through the presentation of an illuminating way to read these two unique prophetic intellectuals

Demons in Eden Jonathan Silvertown, 2008-08 Jonathan Silvertown here explores the astonishing diversity of plant life in regions as spectacular as the verdant climes of Japan the lush grounds of the Royal Botanical Gardens at Kew the shallow wetlands and teeming freshwaters of Florida the tropical rainforests of southeast Mexico and the Canary Islands archipelago whose evolutionary novelties and exotic plant life have earned it the sobriquet the Galapagos of botany Along the way Silvertown looks closely at the evolution of plant diversity in these locales and explains why such variety persists in light of ecological patterns and evolutionary processes In novel and useful ways he also investigates the current state of plant diversity on the planet to show the ever challenging threats posed by invasive species and humans This paperback edition will include an entirely new chapter on the astonishing diversity of plant life in the Western Cape of South Africa that focuses on fynbos a vegetation endemic to the Cape Bringing the secret life of plants into more colorful and vivid focus than ever before Demons in Eden is an empathic and impassioned exploration of modern plant ecology that unlocks evolutionary mysteries of the natural world Jonathan Silvertown has a knack for explaining complex biological concepts in an accessible and engaging way He deftly uses analogy and example to illustrate his discussions and often waxes lyrical in his descriptions Viveka Neveln American Gardener Jonathan Silvertown's enthusiasm for scientific sleuthing is infectious Sara Alexander Science A delightful series of vignettes about plant diversity and evolutionary biology It is evident that Jonathan Silvertown is a scientist who can communicate complex scientific ideas to the general public Highly recommended Choice

Shifting Paradigms of Evil in Philosophy Imge Oranlı, 2025-09-29 This book develops an interdisciplinary framework rooted in philosophy for addressing the political evils experienced around the world Drawing on resources mainly from philosophy and historical studies it argues for the relationality and continuity between political evils using the Armenian Genocide and the Shoah as main examples The book begins by unpacking a series of limiting assumptions that define the philosophical study of evil These assumptions crystallize in the idea that evil is an inscrutable phenomenon what the author calls the paradigm of evil's inscrutability Tracing this paradigm through the legacies of five key philosophers Plato Augustine Kant Arendt and Levinas the author shows that by the time we arrive at 20th century the framing of political evils like the Shoah as inscrutable and exceptional is profoundly constraining it erases Shoah's continuity and connection with other atrocities including the 1915 Armenian Genocide The book next turns to practices and ideologies that connect the Armenian Genocide to the Shoah to propose an alternative paradigm for thinking about evil a paradigm of the continuity of evils Offering this paradigm to readers in philosophy and adjacent disciplines the author explores the relationality between the Armenian Genocide and the Shoah but also between Turkish genocide denialism and a contemporary case of racist evil doing against Armenians in Turkey shifting the discussion of political evil in a direction that aims to turn overlooked evils around the world into objects of philosophical thinking Shifting Paradigms of Evil in Philosophy will appeal to researchers and graduate students working in Continental philosophy social and political philosophy history of philosophy ethics political theory genocide studies and Holocaust studies Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us The Doctrines of the Christadelphians Duncan Heaster, 2011-10-28 A Biblical presentation of the main doctrines of the Christadelphian church These include teachings about Christology Satan the Kingdom of God and the return of Christ the Millennium inspiration of the Bible the death state baptism hell and the promises to Abraham All the basic beliefs shared by all Christadelphians in all Christadelphian fellowships are presented here
