New Directions from Don L. Lee Marlene Mosher, 1975-01-01 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson, 2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randall s unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans Freedom Time Anthony Reed, 2014-12 In Freedom Time Anthony Reed reclaims the power of black experimental poetry and prose by arguing that if literature fundamentally serves the human need for freedom in expression then readers and critics must see it as something other than a reflection of the politics of social protest and identity formation Prior to the successful campaigns against Jim Crow segregation in the U S and colonization in the Caribbean literary politics seemed much more obviously interventionist As more African Americans and Afro Caribbean writers gained access to formal political power more writing emerged whose political concerns went beyond improving racial representation appealing for social recognition raising consciousness or commenting on the political disillusion and fragmentation of the post segregation and post colonial moments Through formal innovation and abstraction writers increasingly pushed the limits of representation and expression in order to extend the limits of thought and literary possibility Reed offers a theoretical account of this new black experimental writing which is at once a literary historical development and a concept with which to analyze the ways writing engages race and the possibilities of expression One of his key interventions is arguing that form drives the politics literature not vice versa Through extended analyses of works by N H Pritchard NourbeSe Philip Kamau Brathwaite Claudia Rankine Douglas Kearney Harryette Mullen Suzan Lori Parks and Nathaniel Mackey Freedom Time draws out the political implication of their innovative approaches to literary aesthetics The Black Arts Enterprise and the Production of African American Poetry Howard Rambsy, 2018-05-09 A closer look at the poets and publishers who made the Black Arts Movement such an enduring cultural enterprise Black World/Negro Digest, 1975-10 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement Writing Home Eli Goldblatt, 2012-04-12 In this engrossing memoir poet and literacy scholar Eli Goldblatt shares the intimate ways reading and writing influenced the first thirty years of his life in the classroom but mostly outside it Writing Home A Literacy Autobiography traces Goldblatt's search for home and his growing recognition that only through his writing life can he fully contextualize the world he inhabits Goldblatt connects his educational journey as a poet and a teacher to his conception of literacy and assesses his intellectual emotional and political development through undergraduate and postgraduate experiences alongside the social imperatives of the era He explores his decision to leave medical school after he realized that he could not compartmentalize work and creative life or follow in his surgeon father's footsteps A brief first marriage rearranged his understanding of gender and sexuality and a job teaching in an innercity school initiated him into racial politics Literacy became a dramatic social reality when he witnessed the start of the national literacy campaign in postrevolutionary Nicaragua and spent two months finding his bearings while writing poetry in Mexico City Goldblatt presents a thoughtful and exquisitely crafted narrative of his life to illustrate that literacy exists at the intersection of individual and social life and is practiced in relationship to others While the concept of literacy autobiography is a common assignment in undergraduate and graduate writing courses few books model the exercise Writing Home helps fill that void and with Goldblatt's emphasis on out of school literacy fosters an understanding of literacy as a social practice experience This encyclopedia is a guide to his vast and influential body of works Bodies on the Line Raphael Allison, 2014-12-01 Bodies on the Line offers the first sustained study of the poetry reading in its most formative period the 1960s Raphael Allison closely examines a vast archive of audio recordings of several key postwar American poets to explore the social and literary context of the sixties poetry reading which is characterized by contrasting differing styles of performance the humanist style and the skeptical strain The humanist style made mainstream by the Beats and their imitators is characterized by faith in the power of presence emotional communion and affect The skeptical strain emphasizes openness of interpretation and multivalent meaning a lack of stability or consistency and ironic detachment By comparing these two dominant styles of reading Allison argues that attention to sixties poetry readings reveals poets struggling between the kind of immediacy and presence that readings suggested and a private retreat from such performance based publicity one centered on the text itself Recordings of Robert Frost Charles Olson Gwendolyn Brooks Larry Eigner and William Carlos Williams all of whom emphasized voice breath and spoken language and who were inveterate professional readers in the sixties expose this struggle in often surprising ways In deconstructing assertions about the role and importance of the poetry reading during this period Allison reveals just how dramatic political and contentious poetry readings could be By discussing how to hear as well as read poetry Bodies on the Line offers startling new vantage points from which to understand American poetry since the 1960s as both performance and text The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1977 American Negro Poetry Arna Bontemps,1974 Revised and updated edition of the standard anthology of Negro poetry in America The Stamp of Class Gary Lenhart,2006 The Stamp of Class is about reading poetry with an awareness of class and its themes While numerous works have taken up the question of race and gender as they relate to literary creation no single book has probed the interplay between class and American poetry The nine essays in Gary Lenhart s book deal with the question of class as reflected in the works of Tracie Morris Tillie Olsen Melvin Tolson William Carlos Williams Walt Whitman and others The work is rooted in the author s own experiences as a working class poet and teacher and is the result of more than a decade of exploration The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey,2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden s A Ballad of Remembrance By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century s most important and influential poets As elaborated in Lauri Ramey s extensive scholarly introduction this innovative volume has dual purposes To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman s memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series a photo documentary of W E B Du Bois s 1958 visit to The Netherlands poems by poets represented in the Series and scholarly essays Also included are bibliographies of the Heritage poets and of the Heritage Press Archives at the Chicago Public Library This reference work is an essential resource for scholars working in the fields of black poetry transatlantic studies and twentieth century book history Black World/Negro Digest ,1974-10 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement Introducing Poems Carl David Mead,1976
