New Feminism:

More Joy Than Rage Caryl Rivers, 1991      The Fire This Time Vivien Labaton, Dawn Lundy Martin, 2004-05-18 Young feminists today are becoming activists on behalf of many causes beyond the classic and indispensable feminist ones of reproductive rights and equal pay for equal work In The Fire This Time Dawn Martin one of four founders of The Third Wave Foundation a multiracial multi issue and multicultural activist organization and Vivien Labaton its first executive director offer an exciting cross section of feminist voices that express new directions in activism identity and thought Ayana Bird dissects the role of black women in hip hop Joshua Breitbart and Ana Noguiera demonstrate how Indimedia can break the hold of the corporate media over the news and Jennifer Bleyer reviews the exhilarating power unleashed by the GirlZine movement Anna Kirkland s analysis of transsexual and transgendered people and the law is deeply thoughtful and Shireen Lee s piece on women technology and feminism envisions empowering prospects for women Ranging from media and culture to politics and globalization The Fire This Time is a call to new frontiers of activism and helps reinvent feminism for a new generation

Repudiating Feminism Christina Scharff, 2016-04-08 Gender equality is a widely shared value in many western societies and yet the mention of the term feminism frequently provokes unease bewilderment or overt hostility Repudiating Feminism sheds light on why this is the case Grounded in rich empirical research and providing a timely contribution to debates on engagements with feminism Repudiating Feminism explores how young German and British women think talk and feel about feminism Drawing on in depth interviews with women from different racial and class backgrounds and with different sexual orientations Repudiating Feminism reveals how young women s diverse positionings intersect with their views of feminism This critical and reflexive analysis of the interplay between subjective accounts and broader cultural configurations shows how postfeminism neoliberalism and heteronormativity mediate young women s negotiations of feminism revealing the manner in which heterosexual norms structure engagements with feminism and its consequent association with man hating and lesbian women Speaking to a range of contemporary cultural trends including the construction of essentialist notions of cultural difference and the neoliberal imperative to take responsibility for the management of one s own life this book will be of interest to anyone studying sociology gender and cultural studies

Historical Dictionary of Feminism Janet K. Boles, Diane Long Hoeveler, 2004 This Second Edition is an essential resource for librarians scholars and students This succinct handbook includes more than 1 000 entries covering the persons organizations campaigns and court cases goals and achievements and current and future directions of the feminist movement 75 percent of which are new and revised from the first edition This second edition also features a more internationally focused introduction that provides an overview of the history and development of feminism as a movement and as a philosophy Rounding out this new edition are an expanded chronology and an updated bibliography that brings attention to many feminist online resources and periodicals and emphasizes global and third wave feminism both new developments in the field since the publication of the first edition Paying tribute to the struggles of the women and men who have worked to change and to improve the living conditions for women in the world this book promises a comprehensive historical overview for readers of all interest levels      The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Feminism Tasha Oren,Andrea Press,2019-05-16 Feminism as a method a movement a critique and an identity has been the subject of debates contestations and revisions in recent years yet contemporary global developments and political upheavals have again refocused feminism s collective force What is feminism now How do scholars and activists employ contemporary feminism What feminist traditions endure Which are no longer relevant in addressing contemporary global conditions In this interdisciplinary collection scholars reflect on how contemporary feminism has shaped their thinking and their field as they interrogate its uses limits and reinventions Organized as a set of questions over definition everyday life critical intervention and political activism the Handbook takes on a broad set of issues and points of view to consider what feminism is today and what current forces shape its future development It also includes an extended conversation among major feminist thinkers about the future of feminist scholarship and activism The scholars gathered here address a wide variety of topics and contexts activism from post Soviet collectives to the Arab spring to the MeToo movement sexual harassment feminist art film and digital culture education technology policy sexual practices and gender identity Indispensable for scholars undergraduate and postgraduate students in women gender and sexuality the collection offers a multidimensional picture of the diversity and utility of feminist thought in an age of multiple uncertainties      Postfeminism(s) and the Arrival of the Fourth Wave Nicola Rivers,2017-09-07 This book addresses the current resurgence of interest in feminism notably within popular culture and media that has led some to announce the arrival of the fourth wave Research explores where fourth wave feminism sits in relation to those that preceded it and in particular how fourth wave feminism intersects with differing understandings of postfeminism s Through accessible and highly topical examples such as the controversial actions of activist group Femen the rising phenomenon of celebrity feminism or the assumed outdated views of feminists associated with previous waves the relationship between differing concepts of postfeminism s is illustrated By pressing the need for an intergenerational approach to fourth wave feminism this book encourages engaging past debates and theorists allowing readers with an interest in the relationship between feminism and popular culture a fuller understanding of feminist theory and providing the opportunity to take stock before diving headfirst into another wave      Women's Movements in Twentieth-Century Taiwan Doris Chang,2010-10-01 This book is the first in English to consider women s movements and feminist discourses in twentieth century Taiwan Doris T Chang examines the way in which Taiwanese women in the twentieth century selectively appropriated Western feminist theories to meet their needs in a modernizing Confucian culture She illustrates the rise and fall of women s movements against the historical backdrop of the island s contested national identities first vis vis imperial Japan 1895 1945 and later with postwar China 1945 2000 In particular during periods of soft authoritarianism in the Japanese colonial era and late twentieth century autonomous women's movements emerged and operated within the political perimeters set by the authoritarian regimes. Women strove to replace the Good Wife Wise Mother ideal with an individualist feminism that meshed social, political, and economic gender equity with the prevailing Confucian family ideology. However, during periods of hard authoritarianism from the 1930s to the 1960s, the autonomous movements collapsed. The particular brand of Taiwanese feminism developed from numerous outside influences, including interactions among an East Asian sociopolitical milieu, various strands of Western feminism, and even Marxist-Leninist women's liberation programs in Soviet Russia. Chinese communism appears not to have played a significant role due to the Chinese Nationalists' restriction of communication with the mainland during their rule on post-World War II Taiwan. Notably, this study compares the perspectives of Madame Chiang Kai-shek, whose husband led as the president of the Republic of China on Taiwan from 1949 to 1975, and Hsiu-lien Ann Hsu, Taiwan's vice president from 2000 to 2008. Delving into period sources such as the highly influential feminist monthly magazine Awakening, as well as interviews with feminist leaders, Chang provides a comprehensive historical and cross-cultural analysis of the struggle for gender equality in Taiwan.

Quiet Revolutionaries
Sharon Thompson, 2022-09-08
This book tells the untold story of the Married Women's Association. Unlike more conventional histories of family law, which focus on legal actors, it highlights the little-known yet indispensable work of a dedicated group of life-long activists. Formed in 1938, the Married Women's Association took reform of family property law as its chief focus. The name is deceptively innocuous, suggesting tea parties and charity fundraisers, but in fact the MWA was often involved in dramatic confrontations with politicians, civil servants, and Law Commissioners. The Association boasted powerful public figures, including MP Edith Summerskill, authors Vera Brittain and Dora Russell, and barrister Helena Normanton. They campaigned on matters that are still being debated in family law today. Quiet Revolutionaries sheds new light upon legal reform then and now, by challenging longstanding assumptions, showing that piecemeal legislation can be an effective stepping stone to comprehensive reform, and highlighting how unsuccessful bills, though often now forgotten, can still be important triggers for change. Drawing upon interviews with members, friends, and family, and thousands of archival documents, the book is compulsory reading for lawyers, legal historians, and anyone who wishes to explore histories of law reform from the ground up. Winner of the SLSA Socio-Legal Theory and History Book Prize 2023. Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World
R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15
This first-ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times, ordinary women, especially Christian women, need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others. More specifically, social science shows that the person-centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world, while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture
