New Forces In The World Economy Washington Quarterly Readers:

New Forces in the World Economy Brad Roberts, 1996 Comprises a collection of articles originally published in The Washington Quarterly between 1990 and 1996 Articles are grouped under the following themes The Global Economy of the 1990s The USA Competitiveness Debate New Directions of Trade and Investment The New Regional Dimension The Global Power of Financial Markets and The Governance Agenda Covers mainly the 1990s Foreign Direct Investment and the Global Economy Jeremy Alden, Nicholas F. Phelps, 2024-02-02 With the emergence of a truly global marketplace regions now face far greater competition in attracting outside investment and multinational companies have to consider local conditions on many levels before choosing to invest Foreign Direct Investment and the Global Economy looks at the pattern of FDI and its impacts on the global regional trade block national and sub national scales The contributors describe the much discussed global local interlay apparent in the operations of multinational companies and their involvement with regulatory institutions at different levels from the global to the local International Labour Documentation, 1997 Selected Acquisitions Robert Crown Law Library, 1995 Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes American Economic Association, 2003 American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes, 2003 All Possible Wars? Sam J. Tangredi, 2000 This survey is a product of the Quadrennial Defense Review QDR 2001 Working Group a project of the Institute for National Strategic Studies at the National Defense University Sponsored by the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff the working group is an independent honest broker effort intended to build intellectual capital for the upcoming QDR More specifically it aims to frame issues develop options and provide insights for the Chairman the services and the next administration in three areas defense strategy criteria for sizing conventional forces and force structure for 2005 2010 One of the group's initial tasks was to assess the future security environment to the year 2025 This was pursued by surveying the available literature to identify areas of consensus and debate The goal was to conduct an assessment that would be far more comprehensive than any single research project or group effort could possibly produce This survey documents major areas of agreement and disagreement across a range of studies completed since the last QDR in 1997 Because it distills a variety of sources and organizes and compares divergent views this volume makes a unique contribution to the literature It also provides a particularly strong set of insights and assumptions on which both strategists and force planners can draw in the next Quadrennial Defense Review This survey does not claim to predict or illustrate all possible wars that America might face between now and the year 2025 Rather it attempts through analysis of representative and reputable sources to incorporate the most likely characteristics of the future security environment into a single scenario while heightening our awareness of dissenting viewpoints and plausible wild cards Global Development and Human Security Robert Picciotto, 2017-07-05 Global Development and Human Security explores the possibility of connecting all countries to the global economy while defusing the social tensions and managing the security risks that can result from exposure to a turbulent international system The complex intersection between security and development policies has not been adequately mapped or explored Frail and failing states that lack sound market and security institutions are the weak links in an interconnected global system Yet aid allocation principles discourage engagement with these difficult partners and the insular culture of development assistance hinders interaction with the security community In a world beset by problems without passport infectious diseases environmental pollution international crime conflict spillovers terrorism etc a new paradigm should supplant the now obsolete development consensus The authors took stock of current development practices through the prism of Sweden's Shared Responsibility bill which addresses peace security opportunity environmental conservation human rights and democracy The resulting volume draws the implications of emerging threats to global peace and prosperity for development policy and practice It seeks to build bridges of understanding between the development community and the security establishment by bringing together lessons of experience currently scattered in the literature Each chapter is self contained and includes policy findings and recommendations The book is principally aimed at practitioners who need up to date knowledge about security and development issues Publication of this paperback edition makes the book available for use as an introductory text for security specialists with little knowledge of development or for development specialists with limited knowledge of security or for college or university students in these areas

The New Dynamics of Multilateralism James P. Muldoon, Joann Fagot Aviel, Richard Reitano, 2018-04-19 This timely new book focuses on the various dynamics of contemporary multilateralism as it relates to global issues global governance and global institutions Invited authorities including academics business people and members of international groups contribute original essays on how multilateralism as an institution has been affected by globalization the rise of civil society and global business emerging economic and political conditions and new threats to peace and security in the world Emphasizing practical applications over theoretical foundations The New Dynamics of Multilateralism helps students understand how the practice of multilateral diplomacy has been influenced by the changes in the processes and procedures of international organizations and the role of multilateralism in the transformation of the international system of governance and the transition to an emerging new global order

Asia's New Geopolitics Desmond Ball, Lucie Béraud-Sudreau, Tim Huxley, C. Raja Mohan, Brendan Taylor, 2021-09-28 Intensifying geopolitical rivalries rising defence spending and the proliferation of the latest military technology across Asia suggest that the region is set for a prolonged period of strategic contestation None of the three competing visions for the future of Asian order a US led Free and Open Indo Pacific a Chinese centred order or the ASEAN inspired Indo Pacific Outlook is likely to prevail in the short to medium term In the absence of a new framework the risk of open conflict is heightened and along with it the need for effective mechanisms to maintain peace and stability As Asia's leaders seek to rebuild their economies and societies in the wake of COVID 19 they would do well to reflect upon the lessons offered by the pandemic and their applicability in the strategic realm The societies that have navigated the crisis

most effectively have been able to do so by putting in place stringent protective measures Crisis management and avoidance mechanisms and even in the longer term wider arms control can be seen as the strategic equivalent of such measures and as such they should be pursued with urgency in Asia to reduce the risks of an even greater calamity Joint Force Quarterly, 1993 Strategic Calling James Allen Smith, 1993 The Global Cities Reader Neil Brenner, Roger Keil, 2006 This book contains fifty selections from classic writings by authors such as John Friedmann Michael Peter Smith Saskia Sassen Peter Taylor Manuel Castells and Anthony King as well as major contributions by other international scholars of global city formation Peace and World Order Studies Barbara J. Wien, 1978-01-01 The World Economy, 1996 Covers trade policy and other open economy issues embracing international trade and the environment international finance and trade and development It also considers related areas such as economies in transition and development economics The China Reader David L. Shambaugh, 2016 Chronicles the diverse aspects of this transition since the late 1990s It is comprehensive in scope and draws upon both primary Chinese sources and secondary Western analyses written by the world's leading experts on contemporary China covers the full range of China's internal and external developments From publisher description
