Uprootings/Regroundings Sara Ahmed, Claudia Castada, Anne-Marie Fortier, Mimi Sheller, 2020-08-05 New forms of transnational mobility and diasporic belonging have become emblematic of a supposed global condition of uprootedness Yet much recent theorizing of our so called postmodern life emphasizes movement and fluidity without interrogating who and what is on the move This original and timely book examines the interdependence of mobility and belonging by considering how homes are formed in relationship to movement It suggests that movement does not only happen when one leaves home and that homes are not always fixed in a single location Home and belonging may involve attachment and movement fixation and loss and the transgression and enforcement of boundaries What is the relationship between leaving home and the imagining of home itself And having left home what might it mean to return How can we re think what it means to be grounded or to stay put Who moves and who stays What interaction is there between those who stay and those who arrive and leave Focusing on differences of race gender class and sexuality the contributors reveal how the movements of bodies and communities are intrinsic to the making of homes nations identities and boundaries They reflect on the different experiences of being at home leaving home and going home They also explore ways in which attachment to place and locality can be secured as well as challenged through the movements that make up our dwelling places Uprootings Regroundings Questions of Home and Migration is a groundbreaking exploration of the parallel and entwined meanings of home and migration Contributors draw on feminist and postcolonial theory to explore topics including Irish Palestinian and indigenous attachments to soils of significance the making of and trafficking across European borders the female body as a symbol of home or nation and the shifting grounds of queer migrations and creole identities This innovative analysis will open up avenues of research and

Black British Feminism Heidi Safia Mirza, 1997 Black British Feminism A Reader is a unique collection of classic texts and new black feminist scholarship Exploring postmodern themes of gendered and racialized exclusion black identity and social and cultural difference this volume provides an overview of black feminism in Britain as it has developed during the last two decades Among the topics covered are white feminism political activism mixed race identity class differences cultural hybridity autobiography black beauty religious fundamentalism national belonging lesbian identity postcolonial space popular culture This timely and important book is essential reading for students and scholars of cultural studies women s studies sociology literature and postcolonial studies Woman and Nation Jean Kim,2021-10-01 Kim reads the Gospel of John from a postcolonial feminist perspective as a patriarchal nationalist discourse The author examines effects of colonialism in twentieth century Korean cultural experience as seen in social memory pervasive emotional nonlinear experience of the collective or oral traditions to develop an intercontextual lens through which she examines the role of the Johannine female characters in supporting Jesus s role as a national hero and in functioning as continuers of the nation In her unique handling of the Gospel of John the author describes how John s resistance to Roman imperial power defines and shapes the boundaries of his Jewish nationalism in relation to the symbolic meanings attached to the female characters sexuality and gender roles Fixing Gender Assistant Professor of Gender Peace and Security Aiko Holvikivi,2024-07-24 Through an ethnographic study of gender training practices in peacekeeping institutions Aiko Holvikivi examines how gender is conceptualised taught and learned in these settings and with what political effects She finds that this training constitutes a deeply ambivalent practice from the point of view of intersectional feminist political commitments Drawing on queer and postcolonial feminist thought Fixing Gender examines the contradictory politics of gender training arguing that we need to develop the analytical tools to grapple with paradoxical practices that are simultaneously good and bad feminist politics 'Race', Sport and British Society Ben Carrington,Ian McDonald,2002-01-04 Contrary to the popular belief that sport is an arena largely free from the corrosive effects of racism this book argues that racism is evident throughout British sport From playing fields and boardrooms of sports organisations to the offices of sports policy makers and the media this book breaks new ground in showing how discourses of race and nation continue to pervade our sporting life Looking at a range of sports including football rugby league and cricket this book covers key topics such as British nationalism and nationalist ideology racial science and the images of Asian and black physicality sport racism and the law black feminism and the issues of race gender and sport the role of the media in perpetuating and challenging racial stereotypes Challenging the prevailing liberal view that sport is one area of society where good race relations are developed this book offers a wealth of research material and a strong theoretical perspective on contemporary British sport It will therefore be of vital interest to sociologists sports studies students sport policy makers and anyone with an interest in contemporary British sport Women and Revivalism in the West M. Franks,2001-08-21 Why do some Western women choose to join Christian and Islamic revivalist movements in the present day Revivalist religions often called fundamentalist have a reputation for the policing of gender boundaries and roles and the blanket subjugation of women This study aims particularly to establish what the attractions might be for women who choose to swim against the prevailing consumerist current and affiliate themselves with such groups in a liberal democracy Feminism and Migration Glenda Tibe Bonifacio,2012-02-09 Feminism and Migration Cross Cultural Engagements is a rich original and diverse collection on the intersections of feminism and migration in western and non western contexts This book explores the question does migration empower women Through wide ranging topics on theorizing feminism in migration contesting identities and agency resistance and social justice and religion for change well known and emerging scholars provide in depth analysis of how social cultural political and economic forces shape new modalities and perspectives among women upon migration It highlights the centrality of the various meanings and interpretations of feminism s in the lives of immigrant and migrant women in Australia Belgium Brazil Eastern Europe France Greece Japan Italy Mexico Morocco Papua New Guinea Spain and the United States The well researched chapters explore the ways in which feminism and migration across cultures relate to women s experiences in host societies as women wives mothers exiles nuns and workers and the avenues of interactions for change Cross cultural engagements point to the convergence and even disjunctures between im migrant and non immigrant women that remain unrecognized in contemporary mainstream discourses on migration and feminism

Global Perspectives on War, Gender and Health Hannah Bradby, 2016-04-22 Rendering the suffering of the marginalized visible has been an important aspect of feminist sociological studies of health illness and medicine with the subjective experience of those without access to institutional power being at the forefront of the research This volume analyzes the links between the suffering caused by the intentional violence of war and the unintentional suffering engendered by modern medicinal processes By establishing a fitting tribute to the academic and campaigning work of Meg Stacey Global Perspectives on War Gender and Health responds to her challenge of why medical sociology had not yet turned its gaze upon the health consequences of war A selection of international case studies are used to create a volume of significant interest to sociologists and those working in the fields of anthropology social policy social work peace war and security studies and international development The Women's Movement in Postcolonial Indonesia Elizabeth

Martyn, 2004-11-10 This book examines women s activism in the early years of independent Indonesia when new attitudes to gender nationalism citizenship and democratization were forming It questions the meaning of democratization for women and their relationship to national sovereignty within the new Indonesian state and discusses women s organizations and their activities women s social and economic roles and the different cultural regional and ethnic attitudes towards women while showing the failure of political change to fully address women s gender interests and needs The author argues that both the role of nationalism in defining gender identity and the role of gender in defining national identity need equal recognition

Women's Sport in Africa John Bale, Michelle Sikes, 2016-04-14 In recent decades Africa has emerged as a sporting giant The African sporting phenomenon has been addressed in the popular press and it has also attracted scholarly interest however this interest is almost entirely focussed on men Yet women s participation in recreational and elite sport is worthy of exploration and research This path breaking collection of essays provides an introduction to a variety of dimensions of women s participation in African sports Several key concepts are addressed in the book women and media women and sport migration sport and empowerment sporting and social development women s sport and postcolonial Africa and professional sport and economic development This collection authored by established scholars will attract readership from students from Sports Studies to African Studies and from undergraduate students to university teachers This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society History of Education Deirdre Raftery, David Crook, 2016-04-08 Specially commissioned to mark the 40th Anniversary of History of Education and containing articles from leading international scholars this is a unique and important volume Over the past forty years scholars working in the history of education have engaged with histories of religion gender science and culture and have developed comparative research on areas such as education race and class This volume demonstrates the richness of such work bringing together some of the leading international scholars writing in the field of history of education today and providing readers with original and theoretically informed research Each author draws on the wealth of material that has appeared in the leading SSCI indexed journal History of Education over the past forty years providing readers with not only incisive studies of major themes but delivering invaluable research bibliographies A must have for university libraries and a must own for historians This book was originally published as a special issue of History of Education Women and Mobility on Shakespeares Stage Elizabeth Mazzola, 2017-07-06 Long before the economist Amartya Sen proposed that more than 100 million women were missing lost to disease or neglect kidnapping or forced marriage denied the economic and political security of wages or membership in a larger social order Shakespeare was interested in such women s plight how they were lost and where they might have gone Characters like Shakespeare s Cordelia and Perdita Rosalind and Celia constitute a collection of figures related to the mythical Persephone who famously returns to her mother and the earth each spring only to withdraw from the world each winter when she is recalled to the underworld That women s place is far from home has received little attention from literary scholars however and the story of their fraught relation to domestic space or success outside its bounds is one that hasn t been told Women and Mobility investigates the ways Shakespeare s plays link female characters agency with their mobility and thus represent women s ties to the household as less important than their connections to the larger world outside Female migration is crucial to ideas about what early modern communities must retain and expel in order to carve a shared history identity and moral framework and in portraying women as sometime daughters who frequently renounce fathers and homelands or queens elsewhere whose links to faraway places are vital to the rebuilding of homes and kingdoms Shakespeare also depicts global space as shared space and the moral world as an international one Women in Global Migration, 1945-2000 Eleanore O. Hofstetter, 2001-03-30 With large numbers of people migrating to other countries after World War II a substantial amount of scholarship has focused on the status problems and successes of women immigrants since 1945 The first comprehensive compilation of the international literature on these women this bibliography with over 5 100 entries reveals the breadth of scholarship on feminist immigration issues Focusing particularly on sources from North America and Western Europe where most immigrant women settled the book includes feminist analyses bibliographies demographic studies economic comparisons educational research health and medical reports legal discussions biographies and autobiographies psychological case studies religious reports sociological investigations and publications dealing with general aspects of female immigration The book covers such legal issues as citizenship international conventions on contract workers the traffic in women and services and government benefits to immigrants Medical entries include such topics as female genital mutilation comparative obstetric results and equity of treatment Education entries cover such subjects as adult education and the second language programs necessary for assimilation With entries in several languages the bibliography includes books journal articles essays and chapters in books dissertations ERIC reports national and international government documents and statistical sources With immigration a major political and social issue in most countries today the book provides an important research tool

Gender and Migration Professor Erica Burman, Ingrid Palmay, Peace Kiguwa, Khatidja Chantler, 2013-04-04 Provocative and intellectually challenging Gender and Migration critically analyses how gender has been taken up in studies of migration and its theories practices and effects Each essay uses feminist frameworks to highlight how more traditional tropes of gender eschew the complexities of gender and migration In tackling this problem this collection offers students and researchers of migration a more nuanced understanding of the topic

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

The Rise of Women's Transnational Activism Marie Sandell, 2015-01-26 What characterised women's international co operation in the interwar period How did female activists from different countries and continents relate to one another Marie Sandell here explores the changing experiences of women involved in the major international women's organisations including the International Council of Women International Alliance of Women Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the International Federation of University Women as well as the changing compositions and aims of the organisations themselves Moving beyond an Anglo American focus Sandell analyses what the term international sisterhood meant in this broader context which for the first time included women from the beyond the Western world Focusing on shifting identities this book investigates how notions of sisterhood were played out and contested during the interwar period and will be invaluable reading for scholars of women's history and twentieth century world history The Routledge Handbook of the Global Sixties Chen Jian, Martin Klimke, Masha Kirasirova, Mary Nolan, Marilyn Young, Joanna Waley-Cohen, 2018-02-06 This extraordinary collection is a game changer Featuring the cutting edge work of over forty scholars from across the globe The Routledge Handbook of the Global Sixties is breathtaking in its range incisive in analyses and revolutionary in method and evidence Here fifty years after that iconic 1968 Western Europe and North America are finally de-centered if not provincialized and we have the basis for a complete remapping a thorough reinterpretation of the Sixties Jean Allman J H Hexter Professor in the Humanities Director Center for the Humanities Washington University in St Louis This is a landmark achievement It represents the most comprehensive effort to date to map out the myriad constitutive elements of the Global Sixties as a field of knowledge and inquiry Richly illustrated and meticulously curated this collection purposefully provincializes the United States and Western Europe while shifting the loci of interpretation to Africa the Middle East Asia and Latin America It will become both a benchmark reference text for instructors and a gateway to future historical research Eric Zolov Associate Professor of History Director Latin American Professor of Public Affairs and History The University of Texas at Austin As the fiftieth anniversary of 1968 approaches this book reassesses the global causes themes forms and legacies of that tumultuous period While existing scholarship continues to largely concentrate on the US and Western Europe this volume will focus on Asia Africa the Middle East and Eastern Europe International scholars from diverse disciplinary backgrounds explore the global sixties through the prism of topics that range from the economy decolonization and higher education to forms of protest transnational relations and the politics of memory Dying to be English Kelly McGuire, 2015-10-06 This study examines the presentation of suicide within the genre of the eighteenth century novel Referencing several key writers of the period McGuire demonstrates that their work inscribes a nationalist imperative to frame suicide as self sacrifice
