Hair Susan J. Vincent, 2018-10-04 Bobs beards blondes and beyond Hair takes us on a lavishly illustrated journey into the world of this remarkable substance and our complicated and fascinating relationship with it Taking the key things we do to it in turn this book captures its importance in the past and into the present to individuals and society for health and hygiene in social and political challenge in creating ideals of masculinity and womanliness in being a vehicle for gossip secrets and sex Using art film personal diaries newspapers texts and images Susan J Vincent unearths the stories we have told about hair and why they are important From ginger jibes in the seventeenth century to bobbed hair suicides in the 1920s from hippies to Roundheads from bearded women to smooth metrosexuals Hair shows the significance of the stuff we nurture remove style and tend You will never take it for granted again

The Journalist in British Fiction and Film Sarah Lonsdale, 2016-07-14 Why did Edwardian novelists portray journalists as swashbuckling truth seeking super heroes whereas post WW2 depictions present the journalist as alienated outsider Why are contemporary fictional journalists often deranged murderous or intensely vulnerable As newspaper journalism faces the double crisis of a lack of trust post Leveson and a lack of influence in the fragmented internet age how do cultural producers view journalists and their role in society today In The Journalist in British Fiction and Film Sarah Lonsdale traces the ways in which journalists and newspapers have been depicted in fiction theatre and film from the dawn of the mass popular press to the present day The book asks first how journalists were represented in various distinct periods of the 20th century and then attempts to explain why these representations vary so widely This is a history of the British press told not by historians and sociologists but by writers and directors as well as journalists themselves In uncovering dozens of forgotten fictions Sarah Lonsdale explores the bare knuckled literary combat conducted by writers contesting the disputed boundaries between literature and journalism Within these texts and films there is perhaps also a clue as to how the best aspects of Fourth estate journalism can survive in the digital age Authors covered in the volume include Martin Amis Graham Greene George Orwell Pat Barker Evelyn Waugh Elizabeth Bowen Arnold Wesker and Rudyard Kipling Television and films covered include House of Cards US and UK versions Spotlight Defence of the Realm Secret State and State of Play

Il finto dottore ovvero la muta risanata. Ediz. italiana e inglese Henry Fielding, Paolo Pepe, 2013 International Directory of Little Magazines & Small Presses Lenard V. Fulton, 1977 The Bookseller, 1913 Women Prophets and Radical Protestantism in the British Atlantic World, 1640-1730 Elizabeth Bouldin, 2015-11-12 This book examines the stories of radical Protestant women who prophesied between the British Civil Wars and the Great Awakening It explores how women prophets shaped religious and civic communities in the British Atlantic world by invoking claims of chosenness Elizabeth Bouldin interweaves detailed individual studies with analysis that summarizes trends and patterns among women prophets from a variety of backgrounds throughout the British Isles colonial North America and continental Europe Highlighting the ecumenical goals of many early modern dissenters Women Prophets and Radical Protestantism in the British Atlantic World 1640 1730 places female prophecy in the context of major political cultural and religious transformations of the period These include transatlantic migration debates over toleration the formation of Atlantic religious networks and the rise of the public sphere This wide ranging volume will appeal to all those interested in European and British Atlantic history and the history of women and religion Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 The Cumulative Book Index, 1982 A world list of books in the English language Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1913 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1920 International Warbirds John C. Fredriksen, 2001-08-01 In depth descriptions and photographs of the aircraft of 21 nations presented with a unique human dimension that goes behind the machines to the people involved Invaluable for specialists accessible to enthusiasts International Warbirds An Illustrated Guide to World Military Aircraft 1914 2000 puts the most legendary fighter aircraft of the 20th century developed outside the United States on vivid display It offers 336 illustrated biographies of the most significant warplanes used in squadron service from World War I to the Balkan conflict including numerous models from Great Britain France Russia and Japan as well as notable machines from Israel Canada China India Brazil and other nations Entries span the history and scope of military aircraft from bombers and fighters to transports trainers reconnaissance craft sea planes and helicopters with each capsule history combining nuts and bolts technical data with the story of that model s evolution and use Together these portraits offer an exciting well researched tribute to visionary designers and builders as well as courageous pilots and crews across the globe and tell a vivid tale of how air power became such a decisive factor in modern warfare Nineteenth-Century Lives Jerome Hamilton Buckley, 1989 In this unique collection of essays ten distinguished critics and biographers consider what it means to narrate a life Their illustrative texts are largely taken from nineteenth century biography autobiography and the novel but narrative is the broader genre that unites their various inquiries The principal issues are framed by Margaret Atwood J Hillis Miller and Phyllis Rose Atwood compares and contrasts the biographer and the novelist as creators of narratives emphasizing that the difference is in the ground rules Determining what these ground rules are is a recurring theme in these essays Some of the subjects discussed are the boundaries of fact and fiction the professed power of the narrator and the figurative underpinnings of autobiography Many of these pieces are delightful and provocative biographical and autobiographical excursions in themselves Atwood describes her early fear of biography Morton Cohen narrates an exciting bit of detective work he conducted into the life of Lewis Carroll and John Rosenberg gives a vivid and frequently revisionary reading of many aspects of Darwin's life Other critics Carl Woodring Richard Altick Norman Kelvin Margaret Stetz and Robert Kiely consider related topics The contributors as well as the editors have all been colleagues or students of the eminent critic and biographer Jerome Hamilton Buckley in whose honor these essays have been written
