IPOs and Equity Offerings Ross Geddes, 2003-06-06 An initial public offering IPO is one of the most significant events in corporate life It follows months even years of preparation During the boom years of the late 1990s bull market IPOs of growth companies captured the imagination and pocketbooks of investors like never before This book goes behind the scenes to examine the process of an offering from the decision to go public to the procedures of a subsequent equity offering The book is written from the perspective of an experienced investment banker describing the hows and whys of IPOs and subsequent equity issues Each aspect of an IPO is illustrated with plenty of international examples pitched alongside relevant academic research to offer a combination of theoretical rigour and practical application Topics covered are the decision to go public legal and regulatory aspects of an offering marketing and research valuation and pricing allocations of shares to investors examination of fees and commissions Global perspective UK European and US practices regulations and examples and case studies First hand experience written by an IPO trader with academic rigour Includes the changes in the market that resulted from 1998 2000 equity boom      International Competitiveness in Financial Services Marvin H. Kusters,A.H. Meltzer,2012-12-06 financial markets suggests that factors such as differences in capital requirements limitations on size or on the range of financial activities in which firms can engage government guarantee arrangements for deposits or payments and reporting or disclosure requirements can have important effects on the efficiency of industrial and commercial firms and thus on the international competitive positions of major sectors of the U S economy Regulatory and tax policies must therefore take into account effects on international competitive positions in addition to domestic concerns The articles in this issue analyze differences in market organization and regulation across countries and examine how efficiency in producing financial services is influenced by these differences These articles were presented and discussed at a conference sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute in Washington D C on May 31 and June 1 1990 This conference on International Competitiveness in Financial Services brought to the attention of Washington policy officials these analyses by leading scholars in finance Publication of these studies and critiques in the Journal of Financial Services Research is intended to stimulate further interest in research on these important issues      Recent Trends in Bank Consolidation and Interstate Mega-mergers United States. Fair Trade in Financial Services Legislation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on International Development, Finance, Trade, and Monetary Policy,1992      The Routledge Companion to Financial Services Marketing Tina Harrison,Hooman Estelami,2014-12-05 Interest in Financial Services Marketing has grown hugely over the last few decades particularly since the financial crisis which scarred the industry and its relationship with customers It reflects the importance of the financial services industry to the economies of every nation and the realisation that the consumption and marketing of financial services differs from that of tangible goods and indeed many other intangible services This book is therefore a timely and much needed comprehensive compendium that reflects the development and maturation of the research domain and pulls together in a single volume the current state of thinking and debate The events associated with the financial crisis have highlighted that there is a need for banks and other financial institutions to understand how to rebuild trust and confidence improve relationships and derive value from the marketing process Edited by an international team of experts this book will provide the latest thinking on how to manage such challenges and will be vital reading for students and lecturers in financial services marketing policy makers and practitioners
