New Life In An Old Village:

Popular China Perry Link, Richard P. Madsen, Paul G. Pickowicz, 2001-12-11 Using ingenious research methods the contributors to this book explore the search for meaning among ordinary people in China today The subjects of these vivid essays span the social spectrum from hip young entrepreneurs to sweatshop workers and homeless beggars The issues are equally diverse ranging from domestic violence to homosexuality to political corruption The culture of popular China emerges as a mixture of exhilarating new aspirations as seen in the basketball fans who dream of flying like Michael Jordan or Kobe Bryant rueful cynicism as biting conveyed in the many satirical jingles that circulate by word of mouth and painful ambivalence The people depicted here have built their popular culture out of ideas and symbolic practices drawn from old cultural traditions from concepts about modernity debated during the early twentieth century republican era from the legacies of Maoist socialism and from contemporary global culture Throughout the book shows how economic and social changes caused by globalization in combination with the continuing Party dictatorship have presented ordinary Chinese with a new array of moral and cultural challenges that they have met in ways that have changed the face of China Contributions by Julia F Andrews Anita Chan Deborah S Davis Leila Fernandez Stemberge Robert Geyer Amy Hanser Richard Levy Perry Link Richard P Madsen Andrew Morris Paul G Pickowicz Kuiyi Shen Liping Wang Li Zhang Yuezhi Zhao and Kate Zhou

The Festival of Pirs Afsar Mohammad, 2013-12 This study is about a popular manifestation of Islamic devotion that embraces a pluralist setting keeping itself in a dynamic dialogue with non Muslim practices With evidence from various public devotional narratives and ritual practices the author argues that even universal understanding of living Islam remains incomplete if we do not consider this locally produced pluralised devotional setting that surrounds it He seeks to address various aspects of local and localised Islam through an examination of Gugudu s local and popular transformation of normative Islam giving particular focus to the various devotional rituals that blend Muslim and Hindu practices in the public event of Muharram
