The Woman's Guide to Second Adulthood Suzanne Braun Levine, 2011-12-05 Second Adulthood is a new stage of life for women over fifty The first generation of socially emancipated women have reached an important frontier they have fulfilled all their roles daughter wife mother career woman Yet with longer life expectancy and better health they have no intention of retiring from the world At the same time these women are experiencing an often bewildering array of physical readjustments their brains experience a growth very similar to that in adolescence they enter menopause their sexual and emotional rhythms change Such momentous challenges raise three crucial questions that each woman must answer for herself What matters What works What's next Drawing on interviews science trend analysis and her own struggles Levine explores all the issues and offers countless stories of how others have answered those three questions This is the inspiring handbook and companion for every woman entering these uncharted waters Aging Harry R.

Moody, Jennifer R. Sasser, 2017-01-12 Presenting current research in an innovative text reader format Aging Concepts and Controversies Ninth Edition encourages students to become involved and take an informed stand on the major aging issues we face as a society Not simply a summary of research literature Harry R Moody and Jennifer R Sasser's text focuses on controversies and questions rather than on assimilating facts or arriving at a single correct view about aging and older people Drawing on their extensive expertise the authors first provide an overview of aging in three domains aging over the life course health care and the socioeconomic aspects of aging Each section is followed by a series of edited readings offering different perspectives from experts and specialists on that subject New readings focus on whether current federal spending on the elderly is sustainable and fair to other groups how older consumers are reshaping the business landscape and the challenges of marketing and selling to customers 60 and over More emphasis is placed on how social class and inequality earlier in life can shape our final years and the number of older Americans living in poverty The section on Aging and Health Care has been thoroughly updated to reflect the latest data about chronic diseases that affect the elderly government spending on health care and policy changes to programs like Medicaid and Medicare The section on the Social and Economic Outlook for an Aging Society gives the most current picture of the racial and ethnic diversity of older Americans their participation in the labor force and their income and wealth

Fountain of Age Betty Friedan, 2006-08 Betty Friedan launches a new revolution with this powerful bestselling book breaking through the American mystique of aging as decline Through hundreds of interviews Friedan confronts our denial and demolishes society's compassionate contempt to offer a vision of what can be embraced

Transformed States Martin Halliwell, 2024-11-15 Transformed States offers a timely history of the politics ethics medical applications and cultural representations of the biotechnological revolution from the Human Genome Project to the COVID 19 pandemic In exploring the entanglements of mental and physical health in an age of biotechnology it views the post Cold War 1990s as the horizon for understanding the intersection of technoscience and culture in the early twenty first century The book draws on original research spanning the presidencies of George H W Bush and Joe Biden to show how the politics of science and technology shape the medical uses of biotechnology Some of these technologies reveal fierce ideological conflicts in the arenas of cloning reproduction artificial intelligence longevity gender affirmation vaccination and environmental health Interweaving politics and culture the book illustrates how these health issues are reflected in and challenged by literary and cinematic texts from Oryx and Crake to Annihilation and from Gattaca to Avatar By assessing the complex relationship between federal politics and the biomedical industry Transformed States develops an ecological approach to public health that moves beyond tensions between state governance and private enterprise To that end Martin Halliwell analyzes thirty years that radically transformed American science medicine and policy positioning biotechnology in dialogue with fears and fantasies about an emerging future in which health is ever more contested Along with the two earlier books Therapeutic Revolutions 2013 and Voices of Mental Health 2017 Transformed States is the final volume of a landmark cultural and intellectual history of mental health in the United States journeying from the combat zones of World War II to the global emergency of COVID 19
