Pecho Del Amor Tan Lastimado El:

The Poems of St. John of the Cross, 2015-03-10 Saint John's poetry of love and joy describes the soul's passage through dark night to final illumination in mystical union with Absolute Being. The allegory the poet uses is that of earthly love and the poems are strikingly effective on the immediate level of personal experience quite apart from their theological meanings. Many critics regard the work of Saint John of the Cross 1542-91, the 16th-century mystic, to be among the finest poetry Spain has produced. This bilingual edition, the first in modern English, was originally published in hard cover in 1968 by the Indiana University Press. Most of these poems were written during a period of nine months in 1577-78 when Saint John San Juan de la Cruz was imprisoned and tortured in the dungeon of a small Carmelite monastery in Toledo, and their recurrent motifs are both metaphysical and deeply personal.

Poems of St. John of the Cross Kathleen Jones, 2010-01-07 The first complete English translation in 40 years Jones has produced a version aimed at those who wish to pray through the poems, the source of all of St. John's work. It is also a literary delight, simple, direct, and close to the popular romance meter beloved of St. John himself. Spanish and English on facing pages.

The Poems of St. John of the Cross Saint John of the Cross, 1979 San Juan de la Cruz, the great sixteenth-century Spanish mystic, is regarded by many as Spain's finest poet. Passionate, ecstatic, and spiritual, his poems are a blend of exquisite lyricism and profound mystical thought. In The Poems of St. John of the Cross, John Frederick Nims presents his superlative translation of the complete poems, re-creating the religious fervor of St. John's art. This dual-language edition makes available the original Spanish from the Codex of Sanl con de Barrameda, with facing English translations. The work concludes with two essays: a critique of the poetry and a short piece on the Spanish text that appears alongside the translation, as well as brief notes on the individual poems.

The Complete Poems of San Juan de la Cruz, 2021-04-13 In 1578, during months of imprisonment for his reformist beliefs, San Juan de la Cruz composed a series of narrative poems inspired by the Biblical Song of Songs and the story goes, a popular love song overheard from his cramped cell that take God as the beloved. Erotically charged, initially scandalous, his mystical poetry engages with the journey of the soul through the darkest trenches of suffering and despair toward an enlightened spiritual connection with God. For hundreds of years, these poems have resonated deeply with those who search for meaning in the dark and have influenced generations of poets, artists, and philosophers. This bilingual edition of the Complete Poems, including Dark Night and both the Sanl car and Ja n manuscripts of Spiritual Canticle, presents an intimate and exceptionally collaborative new translation from Mar a Baranda and Paul Hoover. Baranda, one of the most distinguished Mexican poets of her generation, lends her deft hand with expansive meditative poetry. Hoover, the accomplished American poet, editor, and translator, offers his dexterity with form and the possibilities of language. The product is uniquely faithful to image and idea and loyal to the ecstatic lyricism of this canonical text. A volume that hums with the soul's longing to find solace, The Complete Poems of San Juan de la Cruz is a collection to be treasured.
