Political Wives Veiled Lives:

Political Wives, Veiled Lives Joyce Schuck, 1991 Political Wives Veiled Lives presents the startling and often unsettling views of political wives who share a difficult position and tenuous status in the world of politics In this warm and humorous account we see the private side of what it is like to be a political wife and whether one wins or loses life is never quite the same

French Women in Politics: Writing Power Raylene L. Ramsay, 2003 Although more women in France have entered political life than ever before the fact remains that there are fewer women representatives in the French parliament than there were after the Second World War In a new and original approach the author presents an overview and analysis of the emerging body of text by or on women who have held high political office in France The argument is that writing about women and politics has not just described or reflected women's slow but now substantial entry into political life it has played a major part in shaping the parity debate and its outcomes Interviews with political women such as Huguette Bouchardeau Simone Veil or Edith Cresson inserted in the text demonstrate the emergence and circulation of a new common discourse focused on the issue of whether women in politics make or should make a difference A close reading of the various texts examined in this book and their connection to new public counter discourses in France suggest that a re writing of power is indeed occurring

Women and Politics in the Third World Haleh Afshar, 2005-07-26 Women and Politics in the Third World is the first comprehensive textbook on women's political activities in the third world It provides a feminist analytical perspective on the specific forms of resistance organisation and negotiation by women in third world states Using case studies the book focuses on difference as a theoretical basis for investigating feminine political activism Though Western analysts have attributed weakness to terms such as motherhood marriage and domesticity as choices made by non Western women the contributors show that such strategies are used by women to pursue particular goals such as seeking resources welfare or freedom from oppression for their children These strategies the book suggests should not be classified as unimportant or temporary and can be highly effective even within such discourses as Islamic fundamentalism The contributors highlight differing political approaches in regions as diverse as Latin America South East Asia China and the Middle East

Lives of Circumcised and Veiled Women Debangana Chatterjee, 2023-08-11 The book unravels the politics of representation and the process of exoticising women's bodies through the prism of external gaze and knowledge production It brings out the intricacies of representational discourses around cultural practices of female circumcision FC female genital cutting FGC and Islamic veiling Focusing on crucial international legal texts and national legislation the book gives an overview of the cultural nuances in FC FGC and juxtaposes it with the Indian variation khafz The author studies the international veiling narratives that conjure up a fractured discourse containing aspects of colonialism Islamophobia and Islamic fashion and maps them with the regional variations of Islamic purdah in India The volume explores the cultural practice of khafz and purdah through narratives in India portraying how representational factors from international discourses reflect on the Indian context and vice versa Amid the world of binaries and polarised opinions the book offers a nuanced analysis of the space in between characterised by narratives from women By situating women s narratives in relation to family community state and international politics the book explores the global Indian interplay of discourses on FC FGC and Islamic veiling This volume will be of interest to scholars students and readers of gender studies feminism cultural and religious studies sociology South Asian studies and International Relations Mother Jones Magazine ,1992-03

Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues The Veil Jennifer Heath,2008-07-02 This groundbreaking volume written entirely by women examines the vastly misunderstood and multilayered world of the veil Veiling of women of men and of sacred places and objects has existed in countless cultures and religions from time immemorial Today veiling is a globally polarizing issue a locus for the struggle between Islam and the West and between contemporary and traditional interpretations of Islam But veiling was a practice long before Islam and still extends far beyond the Middle East This book explores and examines the cultures politics and histories of veiling Twenty one gifted writers and scholars representing a wide range of societies religions ages locations races and accomplishments here elucidate challenge and or praise the practice Expertly organized and introduced by Jennifer Heath who also writes on male veiling the essays are arranged in three parts the veil as an expression of the sacred the veil as it relates to the emotional and the sensual and the veil in its sociopolitical aspects This unique dynamic and insightful volume is illustrated throughout It brings together a multiplicity of thought and experience much of it personal to make readily accessible a difficult and controversial subject Contributors Kecia Ali Michelle Auerbach Sarah C Bell Barbara Goldman Carrel Eve Grubin Roxanne Kamayani Gupta Jana M Hawley Jasbir Jain Mohja Kahf Laurene Lafontaine Shireen Malik Maliha Masood Marjane Satrapi Aisha Shaheed Rita Stephan Pamela K Taylor Ashraf Zahedi Dinah Zeiger Sherifa Zuhur The Politics of Biography in Africa Anaïs Angelo,2021-08-31 Bringing together historians political scientists and literary analysts this volume shows how biographical narratives can shed light on alternative little known or under researched aspects of state power in African politics Part 1 shows how biographical narratives breathe new life into subjects who upon decolonization had been reduced to silence women workers and radical politicians The contributors analyze the complex relationship between biographical narratives and power questioning either the power of biographical codes peculiar to western colonial origins or the power to shape public memory Part 2 reflects on the act of auto biography writing as an exercise of power one that blurs the lines between truth and invention Auto biographical narratives appear as politicized ambiguous stories Part 3 focuses on female leadership during and after colonization exploring on how women gained lost or reinvented power Brought together the contributions of this volume show that the function of biographical narratives should no longer oscillate between romanticized narratives and historical evidence their varied formats all offer fruitful opportunities for a multidisciplinary dialogue This book will be of interest to scholars from various disciplinary backgrounds working on the African postcolonial state the decolonization process women s and gender studies and biography writing

Political Participation of Minorities Marc Weller, Katherine Nobbs, 2010 This Commentary provides the reader with a review of international standards and practice relating to the political participation of minorities Political participation has been increasingly recognized as a foundational issue in the debate about minority rights It is argued that minorities are more likely to feel co ownership in the state if they have the opportunity to participate freely and effectively in all aspects of its governance and that sustained and meaningful engagement will guard against the sense of alienation and exclusion among minorities that often emerges in ethnically divided societies Taking as its starting point the two most important standard setting documents in the field the Lund Recommendations on the Effective Participation of National Minorities in Public Life developed by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and the Council of Europe s Thematic Commentary on the Issue of Political Participation of Minorities the Commentary locates the international legal entitlement to political participation within the wider context of the right to democratic governance It also considers effective participation in relation to the right to full and effective equality as well as the legal entrenchment of these provisions and implementation mechanisms Individual chapters then consider each of the principal mechanisms aimed at enhancing political participation ranging from procedures covering minority representation in political institutions to consultative mechanisms and autonomy solutions The Commentary draws on a team of experts all of whom are recognized authorities in this specialized area of minority issues

Religion, Politics and Gender in Indonesia Sonja van Wichelen, 2010-06-10 The political downfall of the Suharto administration in 1998 marked the end of the New Order in Indonesia a period characterized by 32 years of authoritarian rule It opened the way for democracy but also for the proliferation of political Islam which the New Order had discouraged or banned Many of the issues raised by Muslim groups concerned matters pertaining to gender and the body They triggered heated debates about women s rights female political participation sexuality pornography veiling and polygamy The author argues that public debates on Islam and Gender in contemporary Indonesia only partially concern religion and more often refer to shifting moral conceptions of the masculine and feminine body in its intersection with new class dynamics national identity and global consumerism By approaching the contentious debates from a cultural sociological perspective the book links the theoretical domains of body politics the mediated public sphere and citizenship Placing the issue of gender and Islam in the context of Indonesia the biggest Muslim majority country in the world this book is an important contribution to the existing literature on the topic As such it will be of great interest to scholars of anthropology sociology and gender studies

Sexual Politics in Modern Iran Janet Afary, 2009-04-09 This book charts the history of Iran's sexual revolution from the nineteenth century to today The resilience of the Iranian people forms the basis of this sexual revolution one that is promoting reforms in marriage and family laws and demanding more egalitarian gender and sexual relations

Piety and Politics in Qajar Iran Nahid Massoumeh Assemi, 2024-03-21 The Takkiyya Muavin al Mulk is a building complex in the city of Kermanshah in western Iran dedicated to the annual commemoration of the martyrdom of Husayn ibn Ali at the Battle of Karbala in 680 an event of seminal significance to Shi'i Islam Private takkiyyas built by social elites were a phenomenon of the Qajar period with their construction motivated by a political quest for legitimacy This book examines the intersection of art and architecture popular piety and the politics of legitimation Through an examination of the building and its decorative programme it addresses issues of patronage Shi'i iconography and popular religious practices during the early 20th century in Iran It further argues for the role of takkiyyas in creation of a sense of community and group identity the formative stage of the emergent idea of nationhood at the time amongst those who frequented them

Veil and Vow Aneeka Ayanna Henderson, 2020-01-29 In Veil and Vow Aneeka Ayanna Henderson places familiar often politicized questions about the crisis of African American marriage in conversation with a rich cultural archive that includes fiction by Terry McMillan and Sister Souljah music by Anita Baker and films such as The Best Man Seeking to move beyond simple assessments of marriage as good or bad for African Americans Henderson critically examines popular and influential late twentieth and early twenty first century texts alongside legislation such as the 1996 Defense of Marriage Act and the Welfare Reform Act which masked true sources of inequality with crisis laden myths about African American family formation Using an interdisciplinary approach to highlight the influence of law politics and culture on marriage representations and practices Henderson reveals how their kinship veils and unveils the fiction in political policy as well as the complicated political stakes of fictional and cultural texts Providing a new opportunity to grapple with old questions including who can be a citizen a wife and marriageable Veil and Vow makes clear just how deeply marriage still matters in African American culture

Depicting the Veil Robin L. Riley, 2013-09-12 This powerful book exposes how gendered Orientalism is wielded to justify Western imperialism Over the last ten years Western governments and mainstream media have utilized concepts of white masculine supremacy and feminine helplessness juxtaposed with Orientalist images depicting women of color as mysterious sinister and dangerous to support war Oscillating between Mrs Anthrax female suicide bomber and tragic helpless victim representations of brown women have spawned both rescue narratives and terrorist alerts Examining media and pop culture from Sex and the City 2 to Vanity Fair and Time magazine Robin Riley uses transnational feminist analysis to reveal how this kind of transnational sexism towards Muslim women in general and Afghan and Iraqi women in particular has led to a new form of gender imperialism
