Good Sean Cubitt, 2025-04-01 What is the good life for me for us for the cosmos Good is an ecocritical enquiry into ethical and political dimensions of aesthetics Following Aristotle's lead it starts with ethics as the question concerning what is the good life for me moving on to politics as the good life for us Like Aristotle between ethics and politics it inserts the question of the good life for you and me the question of love In the end which is where we all live today it goes beyond Aristotle's human centred approach insisting that the good life cannot be thought or lived without including technologies and ecologies A truly cosmopolitan politics is a politics of the cosmos Learning from indigenous cultures it speaks from and with nature and machines in the form of gods and ancestors Packed with examples from banking apps to cave art economic manifestos to cookery passing through music painting poetry and film the book evokes critical traditions from across the world to present a lucid and accessible case for decolonial and ecocritical aesthetics

Incentives for Domestic Refining United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on Energy and Agricultural Taxation, 1981 The authors argue that in spite of decades of racial progress and the pervasiveness of multicultural rhetoric racial judgments are often based not just on skin color but on how a person conforms to behavior stereotypically associated with a certain race Specifically racial minorities are judged on how they perform their race the clothes they wear the way they style their hair the institutions with which they affiliate their racial politics the people they befriend date or marry where they live how they speak and their outward mannerisms and demeanor
