Politicizing The Poor The Legacy Of The War On Poverty In A Mexican American Community:

Politicizing the Poor Biliana C. S. Ambrecht, 1976 Race and the War on Poverty Robert Bauman, 2022-08-16 President Lyndon B Johnson s War on Poverty did more than offer aid to needy Americans in some cities it also sparked both racial conflict and cooperation Race and the War on Poverty examines the African American and Mexican American community organizations in Los Angeles that emerged to implement War on Poverty programs It explores how organizers applied democratic vision and political savvy to community action and how the ongoing African American Chicano and feminist movements in turn shaped the contours of the War on Poverty's goals programs and cultural identity Robert Bauman describes how the Watts riots of 1965 accelerated the creation of a black community controlled agency the Watts Labor Community Action Committee The example of the WLCAC combined with a burgeoning Chicano movement inspired Mexican Americans to create The East Los Angeles Community Union TELACU and the Chicana Service Action Center Bauman explores the connections that wove together the War on Poverty the Watts revolt and local movements in ways that empowered the participants economically culturally and politically Although heated battles over race and other cultural issues sometimes derailed the programs these organizations produced lasting positive effects for the communities they touched Despite Nixon era budget cuts and the nation s turn toward conservatism the War on Poverty continues to be fought today as these agencies embrace the changing politics economics and demographics of Los Angeles Race and the War on Poverty shows how the struggle to end poverty evolved in ways that would have surprised its planners supporters and detractors and that what began as a grand vision at the national level continues to thrive on the streets of the community

Chávez, 1998 This is a history of the East Los Angeles Community Union established to improve conditions in the barrio of East Los Angeles It shows how it has had a pronounced impact on the area providing social services helping increase political representation and most notably promoting economic development particularly through extensive real estate dealings Hope for Justice and Power Kathleen Staudt, 2020-03-15 Texas based affiliates in the Industrial Areas Foundation IAF built on ideas principles and actions from the late Saul Alinsky offer a strong mature organizing model compared with other community organizations in the state and the United States as a whole IAF affiliates members consist of institutions most of them faith based congregations and synagogues Local volunteer leaders in those institutions work together in relationships of trust that draw strength unity and purpose from IAF principles and the social justice precepts of their different faiths In Hope for Justice and Power Kathleen Staudt examines the twenty first century activities of the Texas IAF in multiple cities and towns around the state drawing on forty years of academic teaching and on twenty years of active leadership experiences in the IAF She identifies major contradictions tensions and their resolutions in IAF organizing related to centralism versus local control reformist versus radical goals stable revenue generation greater gender balance in leadership and evolving IAF principles The political context in modern Texas is a challenging one compared to the Texas IAF founding period in the last guarter of the twentieth century yet local IAF volunteer leaders achieve their goals with a strong political base in divergent urban regions around the state With declining religious affiliation in U S society the Texas IAF has begun to recruit members from broad based institutions such as schools and health clinics. The hope and winnable goals that sustain IAF organizing show the importance of organized power trained volunteer leaders and relationships with public officials in between elections With cross class alliances IAF affiliates work to foster equitable change toward a more just society To analyze the Texas IAF Staudt draws on participant observation in El Paso statewide meetings and training on interviews and on archival documents and media coverage This book will appeal to those interested in community based organizing and leadership Mexican American and women's politics civic capacity building in education political socialization and both Texas and urban politics Public Involvement And Social Impact Assessment Gregory Daneke, Jerome Delli Priscoli, Margot Garcia, 2019-06-04 The participation of the public sector in assessing the social impact of a wide range of projects is the focus of this ground breakingbook Leading experts from the u s and canada have contributed original articles based on their empirical research conducted in currentimpact situations. These are supplemented by the editors analytical overviews The book concludes with projections regarding future linkages between public involvement and social impact assessment Dr Gregory A Daneke is associate professor of public affairs and business administration at Arizona State University He has coeditedEnergy Policy and Public Administration 1980 and coauthoredPerformance Administration Improved Responsiveness and Effectivenessin Public services 1980 Dr Margot w Garcia is a program analystwith the USDA Forest Service as part of a nationwide training programfor the Forest Service in land management planning she taught publicinvolvement and land management planning Dr Jerome Delli Priscoliis senior policy analyst at the Institute for Water Resources u s Army Corps of Engineers Ft Belvoir Virginia Labor Literature United States. Department of Labor. Library, 1977 Raza sí!, guerra no! Lorena Oropeza,2005-04-25 A fascinating and beautifully argued interpretation of how the American war in Southeast Asia affected Chicano communities The author provides the most complete and well documented study to date of this important chapter in U S history and its impact on an ethnic group with long standing traditions of military service assimilation and resistance to injustice Oropeza's book is what students of the Chicano Movement especially the Mexican American role in antiwar activities during the Vietnam War period have been waiting for

George Mariscal author of Aztl n and Viet Nam Chicano and Chicana Experiences of the War Raza S Guerra No is a superb first book Maintaining a balance between national context and the activism in the every day Lorena Oropeza seeks to understand and contextualize antiwar activism among a generation of Mexican American youth Bolstered with an array of archival sources and oral interviews she carefully delineates the nature of political organizing among Mexican Americans across the Southwest To her credit Oropeza avoids a narrative of solidarity as she interrogates the internal messiness and contradictions of movement politics and the result is a finely nuanced interpretation of Chicano youth rebellion one rooted firmly in the politics of confrontation I highly recommend it Vicki L Ruiz University of California Irvine With this important study Lorena Oropeza grapples with some of the central questions in the history of ethnic Mexicans in the United States Although the central thrust of the work is an exploration of the evolution political trajectory and eventual implosion of the Chicano mobilization against war in Viet Nam the study is ultimately a meditation on much larger questions involving Mexican American's political and cultural orientations loyalties and sense of status and place in American society In these unsettled times Oropeza s analysis of the relationship between war citizenship and masculinity should also contribute a much needed reassessment of these important issues in contemporary American and Mexican life David G Guti rrez author of Walls and Mirrors Mexican Americans Mexican Immigrants and the Politics of Ethnicity Reinventing Citizenship Kazuvo Tsuchiya, 2014-04-15 In the 1960s and 1970s the United States and Japan went through massive welfare expansions that sparked debates about citizenship At the heart of these disputes stood African Americans and Koreans Reinventing Citizenship offers a comparative study of African American welfare activism in Los Angeles and Koreans campaigns for welfare rights in Kawasaki In working class and poor neighborhoods in both locations African Americans and Koreans sought not only to be recognized as citizens but also to become legitimate constituting members of communities Local activists in Los Angeles and Kawasaki ardently challenged the welfare institutions By creating opposition movements and voicing alternative visions of citizenship African American leaders Tsuchiya argues turned Lyndon B Johnson s War on Poverty into a battle for equality Koreans countered the city s and the nation s exclusionary policies and asserted their welfare rights Tsuchiya s work exemplifies transnational antiracist networking showing how black religious leaders traveled to Japan to meet Christian Korean activists and to provide counsel for their own struggles Reinventing Citizenship reveals how race and citizenship transform as they cross countries and continents By documenting the interconnected histories of African Americans and Koreans in Japan Tsuchiya enables us to rethink present ideas of community and belonging Polite Politics Denny Ho Kwok-leung, 2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2000 This book contributes to social movement theory and to an understanding of Hong Kong politics through analysis of an urban housing protest movement The theoretical approach adopted is a multi level one and seeks to show the influence of the political context the resources available to the groups concerned the actors interpretations of their situation and their strategy preferences This approach fills a gap in social movement theory because most theoretical frameworks focus on a single level of analysis The book also aims to help researchers in the field to re examine the current development of social movement theories and to learn the specific trajectory of urban social movements in Hong Kong Black, Brown, Yellow, and Left Laura Pulido, 2006-01-16 Laura Pulido traces the roots of third world radicalism in Southern California during the 1960s and 1970s in this accessible wonderfully illustrated comparative study Focusing on the Black Panther Party El Centro de Acci n Social y Autonomo CASA and East Wind a Japanese American collective she explores how these African American Chicana o and Japanese American groups sought to realize their ideas about race and class gender relations and multiracial alliances Based on thorough research as well as extensive interviews Black Brown Yellow and Left explores the differences and similarities between these organizations the strengths and weaknesses of the third world left as a whole and the ways that differential racialization led to distinct forms of radical politics Pulido provides a masterly nuanced analysis of complex political events organizations and experiences She gives special prominence to multiracial activism and includes an engaging account of where the activists are today together with a consideration of the implications for contemporary social justice organizing Social Change and the Empowerment of the Poor Mark Edward Braun, 2001-01-01 Social Change and the Empowerment of the Poor provides insight into the local impact of a variety of federal programs funded by the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 Specifically Mark Edward Braun's dramatic social history examines seven anti poverty programs Community Action Programs CAPs started in Milwaukee in the 1960s Braun's research confirms that unlike most other cities Milwaukee's deteriorating urban neighborhoods were transformed by these initiatives CAPs successfully empowered Milwaukee's poor made public officials and institutions more accountable to the needs of the poor reformed punitive legislation created new community based organizations expanded social services for people of color and challenged elites This book provides an excellent framework for future studies that will add to the current scholarly interest in the long term results of CAPs Braun simultaneously dispels the myth that CAPs were a categorical failure and brings a provocative new voice to urban studies social activism policy Housing and Planning References, 1976 studies and political science Fire this Time Gerald Horne, 1995 In August 1965 the predominantly black neighborhood of Watts in Los Angeles erupted in flames and violence following an incident of police brutality This is the first comprehensive treatment of that uprising Property losses reached hundreds of millions of dollars and the official death toll was thirty four but the political results were even more profound. The civil rights movement was placed on the defensive as the image of meek and angelic protestors in the South was replaced by the image of rioting blacks in the West A white backlash ensued that led directly to Ronald Reagan's election as governor of California in 1966 In Fire This Time Horne delineates the central roles played by Ronald Reagan Tom Bradley Martin Luther King Jr Edmund G Brown and organizations such as the NAACP Black Panthers Nation of Islam and gangs He documents the role of the Cold War in the dismantling of legalized segregation and he looks at the impact of race region class gender and age on postwar
